STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Thursday
March 17, 2011

Senate called to order by President Kevin L. Raye of Washington County.

Prayer by Senator Margaret Craven of Androscoggin County.

SENATOR CRAVEN: Thank you Mr. President. Mr. President and fellow Senators, happy St. Patrick's Day. Many people are often surprised when I tell them that Ireland has their own unique language. We call it Irish but a lot of people call it Gaelic. I'm going to recite the Lord's Prayer today in Irish and then I will recite a poem by John O'Donohue in remembrance of the contributions that the Irish have made in building this country and their contributions to art and to literature and to civic work in this state.

Ar n-Athair a tha air nèamh, gu naomhaichear d'ainm. Thigeadh do riochachd. Dèanar do thoil air an talamh, mar a nithear air nèamh. Tabhair dhuinn an-diugh ar n-aran làitheil. Agus maith dhuinn ar fiachan, amhail a mhaitheas sinne dar luchd-fiach. Agus na leig ann am buaireadh sinn; ach saor sinn o olc; oir is leatsa an rìoghachd, agus an cumhachd, agus a' ghlòir, gu siorraidh. Amen.

This is a poem called Beannacht by the late John O'Donohue, who was a wonderful and honored poet in Ireland.

On the day when the weight deadens on your shoulders and you stumble, may the clay dance to balance you.

And when your eyes freeze behind the gray window and the ghost of loss gets into you, may a flock of colors, indigo, red, green, and azure blue come to awaken in you a meadow of delight.

When the canvas frays in the currach of thought and a stain of ocean blackens beneath you, may there come across the waters a path of yellow moonlight to bring you safely home.

May the nourishment of the earth be yours, may clarity of light be yours, may the fluency of the ocean be yours, may the protection of the ancestors be yours.

And so may a slow wind work these words of love around you, an invisible cloak to mind your life.

Happy St. Patrick's Day.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Barry J. Hobbins of York County.

Reading of the Journal of Wednesday, March 16, 2011.

Doctor of the day, Tamas Peredy, MD of Freeport.

JOINT RESOLUTION IN HONOR OF ST. PATRICK'S DAY AND IN RECOGNITION OF THE IRISH CONTRIBUTION TO MAINE AND TO THE UNITED STATES

WHEREAS, St. Patrick is the patron saint of Ireland, known for bringing Christianity to Ireland and, it is said, for instilling a sense of literacy and learning that allowed Ireland to become the "isle of saints and scholars" when the rest of Europe was in the Dark Ages; and

WHEREAS, the feast day of St. Patrick is the only national holiday that is given recognition outside its native land, which indicates the Irish influence throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, the modern secular holiday of St. Patrick's Day was first celebrated in America in Boston during colonial days and the first St. Patrick's Day Parade in New York City was in 1766 and now all Americans celebrate St. Patrick's Day with pride; and

WHEREAS, millions of Irish people emigrated from Ireland in the 1800s to escape brutal poverty and starvation during the Irish potato famine, and most of those people came to America to start new lives and to embrace and contribute to a new land; and

WHEREAS, tens of thousands of Irish immigrants arrived in New England and many came to Maine, and the Irish have been an important part of Maine's culture, history and society ever since; and

WHEREAS, within a few years of their arrival in the United States and in Maine, these Irish immigrants became part of the American cultural landscape while preserving the best of their native culture, and they dedicated themselves to helping build this Nation and State; and

WHEREAS, 4 signers of the Declaration of Independence were Irish-born and 9 signers were of Irish ancestry and 19 Presidents of the United States have proudly claimed Irish heritage, including George Washington, the father of our country; John Fitzgerald Kennedy; and Ronald Reagan; and

WHEREAS, the 44,000,000 Americans of Irish ancestry, like their forebears, continue to enrich all aspects of life in the United States, in science, education, art, agriculture, business, industry, literature, music, athletics, entertainment and military and government service; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Legislature now assembled in the First Regular Session, on behalf of the people we represent, take this opportunity to encourage the celebration of St. Patrick's Day, and, recognizing the valuable contribution to our State and to our Nation of all Irish-American citizens, we urge the citizens of the State to commend and celebrate the integrity and richness of the Irish culture.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator Hobbins.

Senator HOBBS: Thank you Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, this week has been a very important week. First of all we celebrated the Franco-American tradition and culture yesterday. I'm proud to say that my father was half French and half Irish, and I am a quarter Franco-American. Today we are celebrating St. Patrick's Day. I thank the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Craven, for her eloquence in saying the Our Father in Irish and, as always, the poem is very touching. Also I'd like to have everyone think about their own historical backgrounds and I'm sure all of you have great pride and memories of your backgrounds also.

I do want to share with you a story that you will, I think, appreciate. In 2008 we had a monumental election. I'm not talking about the Presidential election. I'm talking about an election for the State Senate in Lewiston, Maine. On that date the citizens of Lewiston elected the first Irish born State Senator in the whole country, of any State Senate in the whole country, in fact any legislator in the whole country, when the good gentle lady from Androscoggin, Senator Craven, was elected. As I do every year, with 17 different trips, I went to Ireland with a cast of very honorable Maine citizens. Some people might call them great Americans, but I will say that they are a cast of good citizens. We do that after every election. We go to Ireland. Go back and find our roots. This time, which was a real special occasion, I was treated a little differently over in Ireland because of the good Senator from Androscoggin. When I arrived I didn't realize that a national Irish television camera crew and national press had followed the Senator from Androscoggin around the last week of the election. They followed her on the plane and over to Ireland. Of course we had made arrangements through a former member of the other Body, former Representative Ed Kelleher, who was the tour guide for most of us during these visits, to have Senator Craven meet with us in Spiddal. We were a group of 12 Mainers who were making another pilgrimage to Ireland. When Senator Craven came little did we know that we had a rock star in our midst. There were camera crews. There were newspaper reporters. Of course everyone was very impressed. The person who was coordinating after the interviews with Senator Craven decided that they were going to have a group photo, or so we thought. Everyone lined up for the photo and they said, "No, no, no. We just want the two Senators for the photograph." Senator Craven and myself were in the photograph. I didn't realize that some of the members of the national press thought that both Senator Craven and myself were United States Senators. After brushing aside questions about the weather in Washington D.C. and whether or not I was on the seniority of committee assignments in Washington D.C. and the United States capital, the two of us, with a gasp from our friends, had our pictures taken. It went further than that. That picture went in every newspaper in all of Ireland. As a result of this filming there was a documentary that was in the same timeframe as 60 Minutes is, or 20-20 on the nightly news, of Senator Craven. As a result of that monumental effort I figured I should make a journey also to her hometown, to her birth home, in Connamara, which was an incredible experience. I wish I could have shared that moment because my father, who passed away 20 years ago a week after St. Patrick's Day, reminded me that many in Ireland have different Irish prayers and Senator Craven knows them all. I just didn't want it to end because I think this is a very important and special day but it also, I think, talks a little about our comradery and friendship here in the Senate. This is one of the Irish prayers. There are many but this is how this one goes. It was my father's favorite. There are woodchips, there are good ships, ships that sail the sea, but the best ships are friendships, may they always be. Thank you and happy St. Patrick's Day.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Craven.

Senator Craven: Thank you Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I just wanted to say that we did acknowledge that we were not U.S. Senators but after a pause the response was, "Oh well, everything is ready. We're going to have the party anyway."

On motion by Senator Craven of Androscoggin, the Joint Resolution was ADOPTED.

Sent down for concurrence.

ORDERS OF THE DAY

Unfinished Business

The following matters in the consideration of which the Senate was engaged at the time of Adjournment had preference in the Orders of the Day and continued with such preference until disposed of as provided by Senate Rule 516.

The Chair laid before the Senate the following Tabled and Later
(3/1/11) Assigned matter:

Health Care Costs

H.P. 597

Tabled - March 1, 2011, by Senator COURTNEY of York

The Chair laid before the Senate the following Tabled and Later
(3/16/11) Assigned matter:

Bill "An Act To Make a Violation of the Laws Governing Seat Belts
a Secondary Offense"

Tabled - March 16, 2011, by Senator DIAMOND of Cumberland

Pending - motion by same Senator to RECONSIDER whereby the Bill was PASSED TO BE ENGROSSED AS AMENDED BY COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (S-4)

(In Senate, March 16, 2011, READ A SECOND TIME and
PASSED TO BE ENGROSSED AS AMENDED BY COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (S-4).)

On motion by Senator COURTNEY of York, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll
Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator DIAMOND.

Senator DIAMOND: Thank you Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, just one quick note. We've hit this thing around quite a few times and everyone has been real good about it. I just wanted to remind everybody that this does have a fiscal note to the General Fund of $1.3 million. That's what we're going to be voting on if this motion to continue the Minority Report continues and not allowing for reconsideration. That is the amount of the cost of this, $1.3 million over the biennium. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator COLLINS.

Senator COLLINS: Thank you Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, that fiscal note is fines. A large portion of that $1.3 million is nothing more than an estimate of projected fines. We can hardly predict the weather three or four days in advance. I don't know how we can predict the income from fines. Even though it's a guess, nevertheless it is a guess of projected lost revenue as a result of fining people for not wearing their seatbelts.
Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is the motion by the Senator from Senator DIAMOND of Cumberland to RECONSIDER whereby the Bill was PASSED TO BE ENGROSSED AS AMENDED BY COMMITTEE
AMENDMENT "A" (S-4). A Roll Call has been ordered. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.

ROLL CALL (#19)

YEAS: Senators: ALFOND, BARTLETT, BLISS, BRANNIGAN, CRAVEN, DIAMOND, GERZOFKY,
GOODALL, HILL, HOBBS, PATRICK, ROSEN,
SULLIVAN, WOODBURY

NAYS: Senators: COLLINS, COURTNEY, FARNHAM, HASTINGS, JACKSON, KATZ, LANGLEY, MARTIN, MASON, MCCORMICK, PLOWMAN, RECTOR, SAVIELLO, SCHNEIDER, SHERMAN, SNOWE-MELLO, THIBODEAU, THOMAS, TRAHAN, WHITTEMORE, THE PRESIDENT - KEVIN L. RAYE

14 Senators having voted in the affirmative and 21 Senators having voted in the negative, the motion by Senator DIAMOND of Cumberland to RECONSIDER whereby the Bill was PASSED TO BE ENGROSSED AS AMENDED BY COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (S-4), FAILED.

JOINT ORDER - Expression of Legislative Sentiment Recognizing Kathy Crowley Fuller, of Hallowell, on the occasion of her retirement from State service after over 25 years of dedicated service to the Legislature and the people of the State of Maine.

SLS 164

Tabled - March 15, 2011, by Senator PLOWMAN of Penobscot

Pending - PASSAGE

(In Senate, March 15, 2011, READ.)

READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Diamond.

Senator DIAMOND: Thank you Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I will probably not have a greater honor than what I'm about to do right now in this Senate Body. Kathy Crowley, now Kathy Crowley Fuller, is retiring, as you have just heard, after all these years. Kathy and I kind of came in together. My first stint in the Senate in 1984, Kathy Crowley worked for the Audit and Program Review Committee, which was the beginning of the Government Oversight Committee. She was outstanding then and then proceeded to be, as we learned, one of the most genuine and nicest persons you will ever want to meet. I hope you get a chance to say hi to her today. She is retiring today. Again, she came in when it was my first time in the Senate. For the last past several years she's been working with the Appropriations Committee. I had the honor to work with her again. She kind of came in with me and is going out with me. I really appreciate all that she has done for the state. Those of you who don't know her, you will find her to be, again, one of the most gracious, well liked, nicest persons you would ever want to meet, and beyond all that, she's very very competent. She helped us through some of the toughest times on the Audit and Program Review Committee. That was a time when we wrote the Underground Gasoline Tank Leakage legislation. She was right there with us throughout. She's been phenomenal. I can't say enough nice things about her. I hope you will join me in saying thank you for her service and wishing her Godspeed and well in her new relaxation time which she will have for herself and her family. Thank you very much, Mr. President. Please join me in recognizing her.

PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is very pleased to recognize in the rear of the chamber Kathy Crowley Fuller. Would she please stand and accept the greetings and the thanks of the Maine Senate.
