STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Thursday
April 28, 2011

Senate called to order by President Kevin L. Raye of Washington County.

Prayer by Pastor Don Williams of Augusta, Chaplain for the Kennebec County Sherriff's Department.

PASTOR WILLIAMS: Peter Gibbon defines heroes using three criteria: heroes accomplish something extraordinary; they show moral valor, especially in adversity; and they are great souls who lift us up through their high-minded, noble examples. Chuck Olson said every hero to be sure is a human and deeply marred by sin yet a life without heroes is an impoverished life. Celebrities may hold our interests but they have no ability to inspire us to live great lives. By contrast, heroes invite us to grow. They enlarge our imaginations. They teach us to think big and expand our sense of the possible. We must never forget the great price paid everyday by those in the law enforcement community. They make the ultimate sacrifice for our safety. Song writer Ray Boltz wrote a song which says fallen but not forgotten. These are the heroes that stand tall and forever we will remember. With honor and glory they gave their all. Our men and women in the law enforcement community are the ones who run to the trauma while others are running away. The sights they see, the smells that they smell will stay with them forever. They live what most only see on TV. They can get up, get a snack, change the channel, and watch something else but for our men and women in law enforcement it is a reality that is going to be with them for the rest of their lives. They are truly our everyday heroes and now we should thank God for them.

Father, we thank You for these men and women who have given and are giving of themselves to keep us safe. God, we thank You for them, their dedication to this great and mighty land and for their answering the call to law enforcement. God, we would ask that You would grant them strength, courage, and boldness and wisdom. Care for them and keep them safe. God, I would ask that Your wisdom and power might come upon these, to whom has been placed the leadership of this great state of Maine. Give them wisdom and understanding. Help them to stay ethical and be people of good character and integrity. Give them courage, boldness, and wisdom as they direct this state. God, I thank You that they have recognized those who have given the ultimate sacrifice to keep us safe and give respect for those who are still serving. Father, we ask that You would be with the families and the friends of the fallen, that they might find peace and comfort in You. May they take pride in the fact that these who have fallen were doing what they loved and were called to do. For them it was not just a job, it was a calling. Please be with everything that is said and done today, that it might bring honor and glory to You. In the name of our Father I pray. Amen.

Posting of the Colors by Kennebec County Sherriff's Department.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Ronald F. Collins of York County.

Reading of the Journal of Wednesday, April 27, 2011.

Doctor of the day, Russell Dejong, MD of Belgrade.

Senator RECTOR of Knox moved the Senate ACCEPT the Majority OUGHT NOT TO PASS Report.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Craven.

Senator CRAVEN: Thank you Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, this is a tiny bill that doesn't cost anything. I was asked by three different constituents for some help in this regard. What this bill would do is to ask employers to identify or to let employees know that their earned personal time off does not have any financial value when they leave their post. I've had several people that had worked for a large out-of-state company that does business in Maine, and after working there for 24 years and having accumulated a lot of personal time, was told that they weren't going to get paid for their personal time. I think that this is fine because it's a very good benefit for people to have but I think that people should know that their accumulated or accrued time was not going to be paid for when they left the agency or left the company. This really impacts a lot of people, almost every employee in the state of Maine. The disappointment and sense of betrayal that they feel after having been an excellent employee all those years, and being proud of their perfect attendance and probably having seen their co-workers take many days off with pay, it makes them feel a little bit betrayed because they didn't know that they weren't going to get paid for this at their retirement. I would really, really like for this to go forward and for employers to be required to tell employees the value of their benefits. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Knox, Senator Rector.

Senator RECTOR: Thank you Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, this is, indeed, on the face of it, a simple request but it's complicated. It's complicated because the failure on the part of any employer, whether intentional or not, to not provide this information provides another opportunity for us to fine that employer for a failure to meet an additional State requirement that we've put on them. I think personal leave is a wonderful thing. It's one of the benefits that some businesses are able to provide and we certainly encourage those businesses that do to let their employees know about that benefit and all the other benefits that they are provided through their employment agreements. We don't think that putting in statute another requirement moves us at all along that continuum to a business environment that is friendlier, allows businesses to succeed more successfully, and allows our work environment to be more favorable and generally not over-burdensome as we have been characterized by so many around the country. I would ask that you follow the lead of the committee in this almost unanimous report and accept the Majority Ought Not to Pass Report. Let me also say that the committee did send a letter to the Department of Labor asking them to highlight on their website what they already have there, which is information that suggests that employers provide a complete information packet to their employees related to all the benefits that they receive as employees, including personal leave time if that is one of the benefits that they are fortunate to have. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEM: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Bartlett.

Senator BARTLETT: Thank you Mr. President. I found this particular bill intriguing and looked it up, the amendment that is proposed. What was striking about it is how simple it is and how flexible it is for employers. An employer can provide notice in four different ways; one is they can include the policy in an employee handbook so all the employers that already had handbooks have this covered. Two, they can post it a conspicuous common area. Three, they can post it on the company website if they have one. Four, simply provide it by request. This means that an employer need not provide anything in writing to employees unless they come forward and ask for it. That seems extraordinarily simple. It is not at all onerous. Even if an employer did not have one, once they are asked they could simply write down the policy and provide it to someone. This seems like just a simple way to facilitate communication between employees and employers, avoid miscommunication that can lead to problems upon termination, and make it crystal clear to everyone involved. Thank you, Mr. President.

At the request of same Senator a Division was had. 20 Senators having voted in the affirmative and 13 Senators having voted in the negative, the motion by Senator RECTOR of Knox to ACCEPT the Majority OUGHT NOT TO PASS Report, PREVAILED.

Sent down for concurrence.

All matters thus acted upon were ordered sent down forthwith for concurrence.
