The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the Representative from Lewiston, Representative Rotundo.

Representative ROTUNDO: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. Cathy Newell is a Maine treasure. She has been a tireless advocate for adult education and, as such, has created programs and helped secure funding which have enriched the lives of thousands of adults in the state, as well as their families, because we all know that when parents go back to school, the educational aspirations of their children rise as well. Cathy is one of the most effective, passionate and dedicated advocates I've had the pleasure of working with in the State House. She is devoted to the people that she serves. As one of her colleagues once said, Cathy's success comes from seeing everything through the lens of what is best for her students. She has served as the voice of the undereducated and the underrepresented. Cathy will be missed very much in the State House, but her important work and her great work will live on in the adults in Maine for whom she has opened doors and helped to create a brighter future. We are enormously grateful to her for her work and we wish her the very best always.

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the Representative from Boothbay, Representative MacDonald.

Representative MacDONALD: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, Men and Women of the House. I rise today also to honor Cathy Newell, of Greenwood, on the occasion of her retirement from the position of Executive Director of the Maine Adult Education Association. In addition to her work in the field of Adult Ed, Ms. Newell is a former high school teacher in Rockland and at Gould Academy, and her work in the Bethel Adult Education system led to that site being one of the initial pilots in the Maine ITV system. I know you will all agree with me on the importance of Adult Ed in giving new skills and new pleasures and new outlets in life to many adult learners, skills which not only improve the quality of their personal lives but also help them in moving forward in the field of work. Ms. Newell has been involved in the life of the community through Adult Ed and in many other ways, locally and statewide, for long years. I bring her the heartfelt thanks on behalf of the Education Committee and the education community of the State of Maine on the occasion of her retirement, and wish her well in her retirement years. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the Representative from Bethel, Representative Crockett.

Representative CROCKETT: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, Distinguished Members of the House. Cathy Newell, I have known her since I was a kid. She has touched the lives of many in our community, not just through the Adult Ed but through her activities at the library and in numerous, numerous community organizations. She is a force and she undoubtedly will remain a force even after her retirement from Adult Ed, and I hope she does, because if she can continue through the next 50 years what she's done over the last 40, she will only make our community better. I look forward to seeing more of her in our town and it will be a pleasure. Thank you.

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the Representative from Buckfield, Representative Hayes.

Representative HAYES: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, Men and Women of the House. I also rise to thank Cathy Newell for all that she's done, in terms of supporting adult education. In an earlier edition of my life, I was Adult Education Director and I learned how to do my job well from Cathy. She is a force to be reckoned with, no matter what she chooses to do. Some of you are probably familiar with The Four Agreements. I'm just looking for a few smiles, you'll know what I'm talking about. Well, one of them is always do your best, and Cathy Newell always does her best. She has been a role model for me, and it's my privilege to have gotten here in time this morning to be able to stand up and say that on the record. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the Representative from Portland, Representative Russell.

Representative RUSSELL: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I, too, have known Ms. Newell for many years, growing up in Bryant Pond. She is a force to be reckoned with as Representative Hayes said. One of the things that I love about Cathy Newell is just how particular she is and how dedicated she is. You know, when Cathy Newell calls you and asks you to do something, you can't say, "Oh, I don't have time," because there are so many things that she is doing and has been doing. If she has the time to do something, then you should probably find it too, so you feel really guilty when you say, "No." So you don't end up saying "No." But what's really funny is my roommate grew up in Bethel, not too far from where I grew up, and her mom gave us a cookbook from the Bethel Historical Society and so we were very excited to see all the names of all the recipes. It was from like 1975 or something. We open it up, and sure enough, who was one of the ones that had written the book but Cathy Newell. It was very funny. So no matter where you go across this state, whether it's a cookbook from 1975 benefiting a historical society or it's with adult education, you are certain to find Cathy Newell. If you grew up or have any familiarity with Oxford County, you know that she has done so much more for the community out there than we are recognizing her for today, and I really appreciate all her work for adult education. But, for me, Cathy Newell has been a mentor and a supporter and someone who gave me either a good dose of encouragement or a good kick in the pants whenever I needed it, so I just thank you for all of her hard work. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Recognizing:

Faye Nicholson, of Waterville, who is the founder and an executive director of Revitalizing the Energy in Maine, known as REM. Mrs. Nicholson came up with the idea for REM after brainstorming with hundreds of residents of Waterville in 1995. REM is a nonprofit volunteer organization whose purpose is to make central Maine a more connected and collaborative community. Mrs. Nicholson is also on the board of the Waterville Regional Arts and Community Center. We extend our appreciation to Mrs. Nicholson for her commitment to the citizens of central Maine;

The SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the Representative from Waterville, Representative Longstaff.

Representative LONGSTAFF: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. Although I have known Faye Nicholson for many, many years, it was an article in Waterville's Morning Sentinel that prompted me to sponsor the Sentiment that we see before us this morning. Allow me to quote just a couple of paragraphs from that news story.

"On a frigid Wednesday night, a man dressed as Santa stood inside the downtown storefront window of The Center, waving at passing children, bundled up from the cold.

"In years past, the children and their parents waited outside to see St. Nick in a hut in the center of nearby Castonguay Square.

"The change to an indoor location, a welcome addition to the holiday season for the visiting families and volunteers alike, was made possible by Revitalizing the Energy in Maine, known as REM. The nonprofit volunteer organization has aimed to make central Maine a more connected and collaborative community for the last 18 years.

"During that time, REM has worked to develop the greater Waterville community by beautifying the downtown area, helping with the city's annual events such as the Santa visits, transforming the former department store into a multi-use community building and helping [to] support ... nonprofit organizations."

For the last 18 years, under the capable leadership of Faye Nicholson, REM has had an important role in revitalizing the greater Waterville area, stimulating the activities of volunteer organizations and fostering business development. REM was a major supporter of the Kennebec Messalonskee Trails Network. REM has publicized and made space available for events sponsored by Colby College, Thomas College, Maine General Medical Center, Inland Hospital and many others. REM has worked closely with the Waterville Opera House, Waterville Main Street, Habitat for Humanity and more. REM has made space for new businesses in the building that they purchased and these businesses contribute to a growing sense of progress in revitalizing the downtown district of our city. There is much more that I could say, much more, but perhaps the best way to put it is simply to say, thank you, Faye. Thank you for your dreams and the ability you have to turn those dreams into reality. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
