STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE
FIRST SPECIAL SESSION
JOURNAL AND RECORD OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Tuesday
April 22, 2025

Senate called to order by President Matthea E. Larsen Daughtry of Cumberland County.

Prayer by Pastor Travis Armstrong of Hope Baptist Church in Manchester.

PASTOR TRAVIS ARMSTRONG: Let's pray. Father God, I am so thankful today that you are a sovereign God. You are completely in control of each and every moment in our lives and in this world. I am grateful that even though there are many times that we don't know what is going to happen in our world, you do. I'm comforted with the knowledge that though we often and regularly make mistakes, you don't. You are a God of grace and mercy. There is no greater example of that than the holiday we just celebrated a few days ago, Easter Sunday. What a perfect display of sovereignty, your power over death.

God, the men and women in this room that you created, that you have sovereignly put into leadership over our state to govern and to make decisions on our behalf, you know that they are not perfect, you know that they don't make perfect decisions, you know that they are -- they are full of mistakes, yet you are perfectly in control. You have placed them into this place of leadership, and you are perfect. Every decision you make is perfect and you, God, are perfectly in control. You didn't make a mistake when you chose these men and women to represent us. And so, God, I pray that you would impart on this Body your divine and perfect wisdom so that they might make the decisions that you would have them make. That they might make moral and just judgments. That they would be united in their desire to do what is best for the people of Maine and for your glory. That they would focus on what is right and true, not on what is popular or partisan.

And so, God, I pray with expectation that you would be active in this Senate as well as over at the House and in the office of our Governor. May your sovereignty be evident through today's business and through each Member of this constitutional and continuous body, to bring blessing upon our great state.

And finally, God, I pray for each Member of this Senate, for all who will be active in this session, that you would bring blessing on their lives as they serve. I praise you, Sovereign God, in the Name of Jesus. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Henry L. Ingwersen of York County.

Reading of the Journal of Thursday, April 17, 2025.

Off Record Remarks

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator Rafferty.

Senator RAFFERTY: Thank you, Madam President. I just wanted to take a moment and have the opportunity to say thank you to Mr. Steve Bailey and Robbie Feinberg are here today with -- from Maine School Management and along with them are a number of schoolboard members from across the state.

So, I just wanted to say thank -- thank them personally as well as from our group for their leadership and efforts on behalf of public education throughout Maine. Thanks very much.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber as well as in the balcony, schoolboard members from across the state, from Kennebec to Baileyville, for the Maine Schoolboard Associations Day at the State House. Would they please rise? They are the guests today of the Senator from York, Senator Rafferty, as well as the entire Maine Senate.

Off Record Remarks

The Senate considered the following additional papers:

ORDERS

Joint Order

An Expression of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

Jessica Linzer Simpson, of Cape Elizabeth, who won the 2024 AARP Maine Steadfast Advocate Award for her countless volunteer hours and unending efforts to support the AARP Maine mission. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;
SLS 477

Sponsored by Senator CARNEY of Cumberland.
Cosponsored by Representatives: BOYER of Poland, KESSLER of South Portland.

The Joint Order was READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Carney.

Senator CARNEY: Thank you very much, Madam President. Good morning, Senators, and all of our honored guests. I rise today to recognize one of my constituents and neighbors in Cape Elizabeth for her dedication and advocacy in support of older Mainers.

Jessica Linzer Simpson is the recipient of the 2024 AARP Maine Steadfast Advocate Award, which celebrates an individual's -- an individual volunteer's countless and unending efforts to support the AARP Maine mission. This will likely come as no surprise to many of you since you've seen her every Tuesday in this Chamber and in the halls of the State House with her fellow AARP volunteers.

I have had the privilege of working closely with Jessica this session on a bill that is near and dear to both of our hearts, An Act to Prevent Financial Exploitation of Maine Residents 62 Years of Age or Older. This was Jessica's idea in order to help protect the finances of older Mainers from scammers. She came to me late last year with examples of what is commonly referred to as stop and hold legislation from other states and wondered if Maine had something similar on the books.

Now, I just have to deviate from my remarks for a minute because this was actually like a day or two before cloture and when I said yes, we should be looking into this, Jessica was immediately hopped on it and did a tremendous amount of groundwork in about 18 hours.

Back to my serious remarks. I was inspired, as I actually always am, to work with her on this legislation because of the stories she brought from her time volunteering as part of the AARP Maine Fraud Watch Team, which works closely with older Mainers to educate them about scams. She has dedicated so much of her time to advocating on issues that have a direct impact on older Mainers. In her own words, some of the issues she finds important are, quote, "protecting Social Security, advocating for affordable housing, expanding access to healthcare, working for broadband and digital equity, fighting for lower utility costs, strengthening retirement security, and educating my local community about frauds and scams." She notes that it has all given her purpose, fulfillment, and happiness, and I would say it's given the same things to our community.

Please join me in thanking Jessica Linzer Simpson for all her volunteer and advocacy. I know that we all look forward to seeing Jessica in the halls on many more Tuesdays to come. And congratulations, Jessica, on receiving the Steadfast Advocate Award.

The Joint Order was PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber, Jessica Linzer Simpson and Henry Simpson of Cape Elizabeth, and the AARP Maine Tuesdays at the State House volunteer advocates. They are from the town of Cape Elizabeth and they are the guests today of the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Carney. Would they please rise and accept the greetings of the Maine Senate?

Off Record Remarks

Senator BEEBE-CENTER of Knox moved the Senate ACCEPT the Majority OUGHT NOT TO PASS Report, in concurrence.

On motion by Senator HARRINGTON of York, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Oxford, Senator Bennett.

Senator BENNETT: Thank you, Madam President. Request permission to pose a question through the Chair?

THE PRESIDENT: The Member may proceed.

Senator BENNETT: Thank you, Madam President. I am just -- my attention has just been drawn this morning to this piece of legislation and I have been a bit frustrated in my understanding of the language in the bill and I'm wondering if somebody could explain to me whether this bill would put some -- potentially some burden of restitution or payment for testing of drugs on someone who is not convicted of a crime but just has been accused or -- or subject to investigation without a conviction.

Thank you, Madam President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Baldacci.

Senator BALDACCI: It would only apply to those convicted. You would have to be convicted of an offense and an order for the restitution to be ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is acceptance of the majority report. A roll call has been ordered. Is the Senate ready for the question?

Senator CARNEY of Cumberland moved the Senate ACCEPT the Majority OUGHT TO PASS AS AMENDED Report, in concurrence.

On motion by the same Senator, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Guerin.

Senator GUERIN: Thank you, Madam President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. Men and women already have equal protection under the law in the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment. I am thankful for these protections.

I am opposed to the bill before us because its many unintended consequences. Women have many protections that would be removed if the ERA is ratified. In the realm of family, women would no longer be eligible for alimony or child support, mothers would no longer have special priority in child custody cases, special grants and programs available to women in business would no longer be legal. The exemption from military draft or combat would no longer be available. And of course, as has been well debated in this building this year, the ratification of the ERA would create unacceptable disadvantages for females competing in women's sports competitions.

These economic and social consequences would hurt the very women that supporters are claiming to help. Please join me in voting against the pending motion and standing in support of women.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Talbot Ross.

Senator TALBOT ROSS: Thank you, and good morning, Madam President. I rise today in support of LD 260, a resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Maine that would affirm what should already be self-evident, that all Mainers have equal rights under the law.

Let me begin by honoring the late Honorable Lois Galgay Reckitt, a fierce advocate, a moral compass, and a tireless champion of equality. It is in her memory that I stand before you today.

This resolution is not about politics, it's about principle. It's not about partisanship, it's about the promise of equality. It's not about rewriting our laws and values, it's about finally writing them down. The Equal Rights Amendment reflects a simple truth, that no one should be denied fairness because of who they are, that dignity is not a privilege, it is a right, and that justice delayed is justice denied. Thirty-eight states have ratified the federal ERA. They didn't wait for the perfect moment; they acted in the right one. Now, it is our turn. Maine should be a state that moves forward, not one that stands still. I'm reminded today of the powerful words of Shirley Chisholm, who said, laws will not eliminate prejudice from the hearts of human beings, but that is no reason to allow prejudice to be enshrined in our laws.

Madam President, Mainers are ready. They are ready to say that equality is not controversial, it is constitutional. They are ready for the rights to be enshrined. They are ready for these to be fundamental to the way that we live. This is not a question of if, but when. I ask how long? Not long. Because the arc of the universe is long, but it bends towards justice. Let's give the people of Maine the opportunity to say yes to dignity, yes to fairness, yes to equality, and yes to justice. Let's give them that chance.

Thank you, Madam President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair would recognize the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Cyrway.

Senator CYRWAY: Thank you, Madam President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. I just wanted to say that we make the laws and equality is equality and women's rights has been really a big thing through the years. For a century, they've been fighting to have the same rights as men. And I think there's been great big strides made. In fact, I can remember being in this Body and also in the Other Body, how they were so proud of the accomplishments women have made. And I've seen back years ago when I was in college -- actually, after college, my son had a classmate, Cindy Blodgett, who was a basketball star for Lawrence High School and made big strides for the girls team and it really made them shine and the crowds that went to watch was amazing. And then, for us to see what's happening now is sad because I think that this is going to, you know, this will be taking away many things that the women have strived -- made strides for, and I feel that this bill is certainly going to hurt the image that they've been all striving for. And I think that that's why I'm so opposed to this bill.

So, I'm going to vote against this bill. Thank you, Madam President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Oxford, Senator Bennett.

Senator BENNETT: Thank you, Madam President. This is not a ratification of the federal ERA. If it were, I would be voting for it. I think our federal Constitution would be improved by putting an amendment in like the ERA. And we have available to us an Article V process that where this State could indeed call for such an amendment.

The Senator from Cumberland, Senator Talbot Ross, said that this is not only self-evident, I agree with that, it is more than self-evident, it's actually written -- these protections are already written into our Constitution. In fact, Article I, Declaration of Rights, Section 1 says: Natural rights. All people are born equally free and independent and have certain natural, inherent and unalienable rights, among which are those of enjoying and defending life and liberty, acquiring, possessing and protection property, and of pursuing and obtaining safety and happiness.

Unlike the federal Constitution, where there is no Declaration of Human Rights in the body of the Constitution, even the Bill of Rights is deficient in this respect, our Constitution in Maine which this provision seeks to amend already covers this and it is the first item on -- that you read beyond the Preamble, if you read Maine's Constitution. It doesn't have a category; it doesn't have a list of characteristics. It says very clearly, all people are born equally free. It says all people. It is well covered in our Constitution.

For that reason, I'll be voting against the pending motion. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Baldacci.

Senator BALDACCI: Thank you, Madam President. I would just argue a couple of points. One is if it's already in the Constitution, then it will do absolutely no harm to adopt this amendment. But second of all, I wanted to respond to some suggestions that in the family court system, parental rights, custody, alimony would somehow be affected, and that -- as somebody who has practiced for the last 33 years, this would not affect any of our current laws, our current procedures, and the current laws do not -- are not based on sex, they are based on a whole host of factors regarding the individual person. So, men and women have equal parental rights unless something has happened, or a court has ordered otherwise.

So, that -- those things are not going to change one iota, and I think it's important to pass this bill.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is Acceptance of the Majority Ought to Pass as Amended report. A roll call has been ordered. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.

On motion by the same Senator, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Libby.

Senator LIBBY: Thank you, Madam President, Men and Women of the Senate. This bill came to us and we had the expectation that leaders in public campuses around the state would support the bill. But that was not the case. The President of the Maine Community College System came and told us -- President Daigler came and told us we are neither for nor against the bill.

We really appreciate what the good Senator is trying to do who is the sponsor of this bill, I think the committee felt the same way, but here we are, saying we know better than the leaders of the campuses in the State of Maine. We don't know better than them on issues like this. This is a $1 million fiscal note - a $1 million fiscal note - and we're just going to go ahead with it even though it wasn't supported.

I just -- I didn't think it was a partisan bill at all and yet, it came through with a partisan vote, and that always frustrates me, I guess, around here is that we're trying to do the best we can. I mean, some people who feel like we need to support the University of Maine System, including me, went out there on the edge and said, you know, I'm going to support the bond issue. But these $1 million here, $1 million there, are we going to stop spending? Are we going to feel good about every single bill? I mean, like, that's what this is, a feel-good bill. I hate to put it that way, but that is the way it is. And I would love to see it in kind of a normal year where we actually had money to spend. This is not that year. Has anyone noticed? We have a pretty massive deficit to take care of and I don't mean to be, you know, but if -- and I'll take my top ten priorities and I'll send them to the appropriations table, absolutely, and I don't blame you for you doing that, too. But is this one of those? If the leadership in the system says no, then we move on to the next thing, where the leadership of the system says absolutely, this is a must have.

Thank you very much, Madam President, for the time.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Carney.

Senator CARNEY: Thank you very much, Madam Chair. I just rise to speak briefly in support of the pending motion and to explain a little bit why I brought this matter forward.

In my district, Senate District 29, the Southern Maine Community College campus is a shared community and college resource. If you've ever been there, you may have strolled along the shore walk to watch regatta or to eat an ice cream cone with your family or just to enjoy some respite. A lot of people go to this area along the shore of SMCC for intensely personal family experiences. I have been approached by many, many people, both in and out of my district, who were married on the bluff that is now closed due to the two winters ago ocean undercutting the bluff and making it unstable during those four terrible storms that our state experienced. There are also memorial benches on top of the bluff that cannot be accessed, again, because of the undercutting of the bluff.

On the other side of the cliff walk, there are academic buildings that are experiencing the same undercutting, and those academic buildings are in jeopardy. I believe that information was brought forward at the public hearing. However, community colleges are themselves in a really difficult position. They can't put any money on the line to protect these campus and community resources because every cent that is available to them, they need to use to advance immediate educational needs.

Now, the real problem here is that we have systematically excluded educational institutions from the programs that this Body has passed that repair climate damage and that allow for shared resources like college campuses to be part of our work to increase resiliency in light of climate change. And I would ask you to both support the pending motion and also to keep that in mind as we work on future funding mechanisms to establish -- repair climate damage and establish resiliency. Our educational institutions are not immune from climate change, and we should be recognizing that they, too, are suffering from the impacts. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from York, Senator Rafferty.

Senator RAFFERTY: Thank you, Madam President, and certainly, Senator Carney has covered a lot of my comments, but I just wanted to clarify that the president did not testify against the bill. The president testified neither for nor against based on the fact that at this time, due to the circumstances throughout, they have other priorities. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is Acceptance of the Majority Ought to Pass as Amended report. A roll call has been ordered. Is the Senate ready for the question?

Off Record Remarks

Senator TEPLER of Sagadahoc requested unanimous consent to speak on the Record.

THE PRESIDENT: Seeing no objection, so moved.

Senator TEPLER: Thank you. Well, today, we have two special guests in the Chamber now: Maryanne Gichanga of Kenya who's the Chief Executive Officer and co-founder of AgriTech Analytics, and she developed an award-winning solar-powered device for soil diagnostics and pest and disease detection, providing farmers with 98% accurate real-time insights. Her fellowship project aims to scale solutions to reach 20,000 farmers across 20 countries.

And we also have Shahid Iqbal Choudhary from India, who's the Secretary of the Department of Rural Development and Local Self Government in Jammu and Kashmir. Shahid Iqbal Choudhary manages a $654 million budget and a workforce of more than 16,000 people. He's a distinguished member of the Indian Administrative Service and received multiple awards for excellence in public administration.

We welcome him and Ms. Gichanga today, along with the Honorable Marge Kil Kelly, and we're pleased to have them here.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair would recognize in the rear of the Chamber, Maryanne Gichanga from Kenya, Sayid Choudhary, as well as former Senator Marge Kil Kelly. They are from the town of Dresden and they are the guests today of the Senator from part of Lincoln as well as Sagadahoc, Senator Tepler. Would they please accept the greetings of the Maine Senate?
