Orders of the Day

Mr. ROUNDS of Portland: Mr. Speaker, I would like to reconsider the order relating to the time of reception of private bills.

The SPEAKER: Will the gentleman state what the order is to which he refers?

Mr. ROUNDS: It was passed last Thursday.

The SPEAKER: It is not now in the possession of the House.

Mr. ROUNDS: Will we have a chance to reconsider that today?

The SPEAKER: Does the gentleman wish to move that the order be recalled to the House?

Mr. ROUNDS: Yes Sir.

On motion by Mr. Rounds of Portland, it was voted to recall to the House the order passed on Thursday last with reference to the reception of private and special bills.

The SPEAKER: The gentleman from Portland, Mr. Rounds, is advised that by the time the Assistant Clerk had reached the Senate, the order had received passage in the Senate, and there is nothing which the House can do with reference to that particular order at today's session. The gentleman may introduce another order if he desires, or may make a motion tomorrow with respect to the order passed in the Senate today.

Mr. ROUNDS: Mr. Speaker, all I wish to do is to protect ourselves. As I understand it could not go over another day.

The SPEAKER: The gentleman may make an appropriate motion at tomorrow's session.

Mr. ALLEN of Sanford: Mr. Speaker, I think, to have the right of way, that that order should be presented in writing. He can reserve his rights here this afternoon and preserve his rights tomorrow. I do not think he can have a verbal order recalled.

The SPEAKER: Is there any further business under Orders of the Day? (No response)

On motion by Mr. Sargent of Brewer,

Adjourned until tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.
