Committee Reports

Mr. Farnsworth from the Senate Committee on Senatorial Vote, on order of the Senate calling for report on the vote for Senators for the political years of 1933 and 1934, reported that a complete tabulation of the Senatorial votes is too bulky for the files, and is on file in the office of the Secretary of State for inspection and examination of the Senators.

Which report was read and accepted and ordered placed on file.

Mr. WEEKS of Somerset: Mr. President, out of order, I wish to present the report of the Committee on Resolutions on the death of our late ex-President, Calvin Coolidge.

The PRESIDENT: The Senator from Somerset, Senator Weeks, presents the report of the Committee on Resolutions on the death of our late ex-President, Calvin Coolidge. The Secretary will read the report.

The Secretary read:

"Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from the midst of his fellow countrymen by the hand of death a guiding disciple of sincere Americanism, Calvin Coolidge, and

"Whereas, the Senate of the State of Maine wishes to imprint upon its records its appreciation of his splendid character and unselfish public service, therefore be it

"Resolved, by the Senate of the State of Maine:

"That we take this occasion to express our heartfelt sorrow to the family which has been thus bereaved; and be it further

"Resolved, that we desire to express anew our appreciation of his useful life, his strength of character, his courage, his justice, his learning, his fairness, his worldly honors and the sense of security which he gave not only to his fellow citizens but to the world; and be it further

"Resolved, that by his parting this mortal life the United States of America has been deprived of a guiding hand which by its simplicity, sincerity and loving kindness appealed to friend and foe alike, and caused him to be admired, trusted and honored by all; and be it further

"Resolved, that the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy hereof to the family of the deceased; and be it ordered

"That as a further expression of respect for the memory of our beloved ex-President, the Senate shall now stand adjourned until four-thirty o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, January seventeenth.

(Signed) WEEKS of Somerset,

HOLMES of Androscoggin,
HOLMAN of Franklin,
Committee on Resolutions."

The PRESIDENT: Is it the pleasure of the Senate that the report be accepted and the resolutions be adopted?

The report was accepted and the resolutions were adopted by a unanimous rising vote.

The PRESIDENT: The resolutions are adopted and the Senate stands adjourned until four-thirty o'clock Tuesday afternoon, January seventeenth.
