The PRESIDENT: In order to enable members of the Senate to plan as far ahead as possible in these days of difficult travelling, the Chair will announce that tomorrow, Thursday, there will be a recess after the morning session, and after the House papers are ready they will be exchanged at a subsequent session of the Senate in order to allow hearings to be held on next Tuesday.

There will be no session of the Senate on this Friday, but a week from Friday there will be a session of the Senate in the morning.

Immediately or very shortly following adjournment of the Senate this morning there will be a short informal session to which I hope all members of the Senate will come, and all people in the Senate Chamber are invited to attend.

On motion by Mr. Elliot of Knox, Adjourned until tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.
