Orders of the Day

Mr. BISHOP of Sagadahoc: Mr. President, for several years now the committee for the Maine Fruit Growers has put on a strenuous campaign to sell or advertise their product. This year they have nearly a million bushels of fancy apples. On your desks you will find an apple placed there by the committee. Now, it is said that an apple a day keeps the doctor away. It is also said that an onion a day keeps everyone away. It is with their compliments they have given these apples in an effort to step up the fruit growing industry and fruit products in the State of Maine. Thank you.

On motion by Mr. Cross of Kennebec

Adjourned until tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.
