SEC. 1. Whoever, with intent to defraud, falsely makes, alters, forges, or counterfeits, any public record or proceeding filed or entered in any court; or process issued, or purporting to be, by a competent court, magistrate, or officer; or attestation or certificate of any person required by law, or receivable as legal proof in relation to any matter; or any charter, deed, will, testament, bond, writing obligatory, power of attorney, letter of credit, policy of insurance, bill of lading, bill of exchange, promissory note, order or acceptance, indorsement or assignment thereof, or of any debt or contract; or acquittance, discharge, or accountable receipt for any thing of value; or any other written instrument of another or purporting to be such, by which any pecuniary demand or obligation or any right in any property is or purports to be created, increased, conveyed, transferred, diminished, or discharged; and whoever utters and publishes as true any instrument before mentioned, knowing it to be false, forged, or counterfeit, with like intent, shall be punished by imprisonment not less than two, nor more than ten years.

Forgery of, and publishing as true forged records and written instruments.
R. S. c. 121, § 1.
2 Me. 365.
20 Me. 81.
22 Me. 263.
47 Me. 165.
50 Me. 409.

SEC. 2. Whoever with intent to defraud, falsely makes, alters, forges, or counterfeits, any public security issued in any form or purporting to be by authority of the United States, or any state or territory thereof; or any indorsement or writing purporting to be a transfer thereof; or any bank bill or promissory note issued or purporting to be by any bank or banking company in any of the United States, or

Forgery or counterfeiting of public securities, bank bills, or coin &c.
R. S. c. 121, § 2.

CHAP. 121. in any foreign state, province, or government; or any gold or silver coin current in this state; and whoever has in his possession, at one time, ten or more such forged or counterfeit public securities, notes, or pieces of coin with intent to pass them, knowing them to be forged, or counterfeit, shall be punished by imprisonment for life, or any term of years.

Bringing into the state or having in possession any such coins or bank bills, with intent to pass them.
R. S. c. 121, § 3.

SEC. 3. Whoever brings into this state, or has in his possession with intent to pass the same; or with intent to defraud, utters or tenders in payment as true any such coins, bank bills, notes, or public securities, as are described in the preceding section, knowing them to be forged or counterfeit, shall be punished by imprisonment not more than three years, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

A person convicted second time, or of three offences at same term.
R. S. c. 121, § 4.

SEC. 4. If any person, after being convicted of an offence described in the preceding section, is again guilty and convicted thereof, or is convicted of three such distinct offences at the same term of the court, he shall be punished by imprisonment not less than three, nor more than ten years.

Counterfeiting foreign coin for export.
R. S. c. 121, § 5.

SEC. 5. Whoever forges or counterfeits any gold or silver coin of a foreign government or country, with intent to export it to defraud any foreign government or its subjects, shall be punished by imprisonment not less than one, nor more than ten years.

Manufacture or possession of implements and materials for counterfeiting. Disposal of them.
R. S. c. 121, § 6.
1861, c. 128.

SEC. 6. Whoever makes or begins to make, mend, cast, stamp, engrave, mould, or provide any plate, block, press, tool, instrument, paper or other material, designed and adapted for making any false, forged, or counterfeit coin, public securities, bank bills or notes, mentioned in this chapter; or has the same in his possession partly or wholly made, with intent to use or permit them to be used for that purpose, shall be punished by imprisonment not more than three years or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars; and all such tools, implements and materials shall be disposed of as provided in section eight of chapter one hundred and twenty-five.

Total erasures, and fraudulent connections.
R. S. c. 121, § 7.

SEC. 7. Whoever, with intent to defraud, totally erases or obliterates any record or other written instrument described in this chapter; fraudulently connects together different parts of several bank bills, notes or other written instruments so as to produce one, or alters the same in a material matter, shall be deemed guilty of forgery and punished as if such instrument had been forged and counterfeited.

Testimony to prove public securities and bank bills to be counterfeits.
R. S. c. 121, § 8.

SEC. 8. In prosecutions for any offence described in this chapter relating to the bills or notes of any bank, if the president or cashier thereof resides out of the state, or more than forty miles from the place of trial, any other witness, acquainted with their signatures and with the difference between the true and counterfeit bills of such bank, may be admitted to prove them forged and counterfeit; and if such prosecution relates to public securities, a certificate of the tenor of the genuine public security, alleged to be forged or altered, made under oath by the secretary of the treasury, or treasurer of the United States, or by the secretary or treasurer of any state by which such security purports to be issued, shall be evidence to prove them forged or altered. CHAP. 121.

FALSE CERTIFICATES, AND FALSE ISSUES AND TRANSFERS OF STOCKS.

SEC. 9. If any person, legally authorized to take the proof or acknowledgment of any instrument, that by law may be recorded, willfully and falsely certifies that such proof or acknowledgment was duly made; or if any person fraudulently affixes a fictitious or pretended signature, purporting to be that of any officer or agent of a corporation, to any written instrument purporting to be a draft, note, or other evidence of debt issued by such corporation, with intent to pass the same as true, though such person never was an officer or agent of such corporation, or never existed, he shall be deemed guilty of forgery and punished as provided in section one. Forgery by false certificates, and fictitious signatures.
R. S. c. 121, § 9.

SEC. 10. If any officer or agent of a corporation willfully signs with intent to issue, or issues any certificate purporting to be a certificate or other evidence of the ownership or of the transfer of any stock in such corporation, not authorized by its charter, by-laws, and votes, or without such authority issues, sells, or pledges any such certificate or other evidence of ownership or transfer of stock after it is lawfully signed, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than ten years, and by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars. Making or issuing false certificates of stock, or pledging genuine without authority.
R. S. c. 121, § 10.
