DEPOSITIONS IN GENERAL.

In what cases, depositions may be used. R.S., c. 107, § 1.

SEC. 1. Depositions taken for the causes, and in the manner hereinafter mentioned, may be used in all civil suits or causes, petitions for partition of land, libels for divorce, prosecutions for the maintenance of bastard children, petitions for review, and in trials before arbitrators, referees, and county commissioners; and in cases of contested senatorial or representative elections. Depositions or affidavits may also be taken in applications for pensions, bounties, or arrears of pay under any law of the United States.

Before whom to be taken. R.S., c. 107, § 2.

SEC. 2. A justice of the peace or notary public may take depositions to be used in a pending cause, in which he is not interested, nor is then nor was previously, counsel. (a)

When a cause is deemed pending. R.S., c. 107, § 3. 15 Me., 451. 16 Me., 258. 37 Me., 413. 69 Me., 338.

SEC. 3. No suit, petition, libel or prosecution, is, for the purposes of this chapter, pending, until the process therein has been duly served on the respondent, or such notice as is required by law, or ordered by the court, has been given; and no such deposition shall be used in the trial of any cause, except by consent of parties, unless the notice hereinafter mentioned is given to the adverse party.

Reasons for taking. R.S., c. 107, § 4. 53 Me., 180.

SEC. 4. Depositions may be taken for any of the following causes. I.—When the deponent is so aged, infirm, or sick, as to be unable to attend at the place of trial.

II.—When the deponent resides out of, or is absent from the state.

(a) 25 Me., 439; 66 Me., 352; 68 Me., 219.

III.—When the deponent, before the session of the court where the deposition is to be used, is bound to sea on a voyage or is about to go out of the state, or more than sixty miles from the place of trial, and is not expected to return in season to attend it. CHAP. 107,
SEC. 4.
21 Me., 215.

IV.—When the deponent is a justice of the supreme judicial, or a superior court, or is judge of a court of probate, and is prevented by official duty from attending the trial.

V.—When the deponent resides in a town other than that in which the trial is to be had; also when he resides in the same town; but in the latter case, the deposition shall not be used, unless, at the trial, the party offering it shows the deponent's death or permanent removal from that town.

VI.—When the deponent is confined in prison, and such imprisonment is continued until after the trial.

SEC. 5. On application of either party to a justice of the peace or notary public, he may issue a summons to any deponent, except the adverse party, to appear at a designated time and place to give his deposition, and shall issue a notice to the adverse party to be then and there present; and the deposition may then and there be taken by him or any other justice or notary, but the deposition of such adverse party may be taken by commission as is provided for taking depositions of other witnesses by commission. On application, justice or notary may issue summons to deponent, and notice to adverse party.
1881, c. 66.
See § 21.
41 Me., 600.

SEC. 6. The notice to the adverse party shall be served on him or his attorney by reading it in his presence and hearing, or by giving to him, or leaving at his place of last and usual abode, an attested copy thereof; and the service may be made by a sworn officer, or by any other person and proved by his affidavit. Service of notice, how to be made.
R.S., c. 107, § 6.
37 Me., 413.
72 Me., 471.

SEC. 7. No person, for the purposes of this chapter, shall be considered such attorney, unless his name is indorsed upon the writ, or the summons left with the defendant, or he has appeared for his principal in the cause, or given notice in writing that he is attorney of such adverse party. (a) Who shall be considered attorney of the adverse party.
R.S., c. 107, § 7.

SEC. 8. Where there are several plaintiffs or defendants, notice is sufficient, if given by the justice or notary to one or more of them; the adverse party shall be allowed not less than at the rate of one day, Sundays excepted, for every twenty miles' travel from his usual place of abode to the place of caption, between the service of notice and the time appointed for taking the deposition. Verbal notice to the adverse party by a justice or notary is sufficient; and when a deposition is taken out of the state, and not under a commission, the adverse party or his attorney shall have due notice thereof. (b) Notice to one of the adverse party is sufficient; time of notice; when verbal notice may be given.
R.S., c. 107, § 8.
—notice to take a deposition out of the state.

§ 13.
66 Me., 353.

SEC. 13. The deposition shall be written by the justice or notary, or by the deponent or some disinterested person, in the presence and under the direction of such justice or notary; and after it has been carefully read to or by the deponent, it shall be subscribed by him.

If deception is used in taking, it may be rejected.
R. S., c. 107,
§ 14.
—when it may be closed.

SEC. 14. If the adverse party is notified to take depositions in the same cause at two places at the same time, or any deceptive means are used to prevent his attendance at the taking of any depositions, the court for such reason may reject them; and no deposition shall be closed until the expiration of one hour after the time appointed for the taking.

Form and requisites of caption.

SEC. 15. The justice or notary shall make out a certificate and annex it to the deposition, therein stating the following facts: (b) § 15.

III.—Whether the adverse party was notified to attend, and did or did not attend.

IV.—The cause in which the deposition is to be used and the names of the parties thereto.

V.—The court or tribunal in which it is to be tried, and the time and place of trial.

VI.—The cause of taking the deposition.

SEC. 16. The deposition shall be delivered by the justice or notary to the court or referees before whom the cause is to be tried, or shall be inclosed and sealed up by him, and directed to such court or referees, and kept sealed until opened by their order.

To be delivered in court, or sealed up.
R. S., c. 107,
§ 16.
1883, c. 156, § 1.
70 Me., 292.

SEC. 17. When a deposition is so taken, it shall not be used on trial, if the adverse party shows that the cause for taking it no longer exists. (a)

When not to be used.
R. S., c. 107,
§ 17.

SEC. 18. Objections to the competency of a deponent, or to the questions or answers, may be made when the deposition is produced, as if the witness were testifying on the trial; but if a deposition is taken on written interrogatories, all objection to an interrogatory shall be made before it is answered; and if the objection is not withdrawn, it shall be noted thereon, otherwise it shall not afterwards be allowed.

Objections to competency, when to be made.
R. S., c. 107,
§ 18.

SEC. 19. When a plaintiff becomes nonsuit, or discontinues his suit and commences another for the same cause, between the same parties or their representatives, all depositions lawfully taken for the first may be used in the second suit, if they were duly filed in the court where the first suit was pending, and remained on file until the commencement of the second.

How such a deposition shall be taken and certified.
R. S., c. 107, § 23.

SEC. 23. The deponent shall be sworn and examined, and the deposition written, read, and subscribed, as other depositions; and the person taking it shall annex to it a like certificate, as nearly as the case will admit, and also state therein that it was taken in perpetual remembrance of the thing, and the name of the person at whose request it was taken, and of all who were notified, and all who attended.

Shall be recorded, and where.
R. S., c. 107, § 24.
19 Me., 153.

SEC. 24. The statement, deposition, and certificate, shall within ninety days after the taking, be recorded in the registry of deeds in the county where the land or any part of it lies, if the deposition relates to real estate; if not, in the county where the parties or some of them reside.

When it may be used in evidence.
R. S., c. 107, § 25.

SEC. 25. All such depositions, recorded as aforesaid, or a copy thereof attested by the register of deeds, may be used in the trial of any cause pending when the deposition was taken, or commenced afterwards, between the person at whose request it was taken, and either of the persons named in the statement and duly notified, or those claiming under either, concerning the title, claim, or interest set forth in the statement, subject to the same objections as if originally taken for the suit.

How such depositions may be taken out of the state.
R. S., c. 107, § 26.
72 Me., 470.

SEC. 26. Depositions, to perpetuate the testimony of witnesses living out of this state, may be taken in any other state, or foreign country, upon a commission issued by the supreme judicial court; and the persons desirous to procure such depositions may apply to said court and file a statement as aforesaid; and if it relates to real estate in this state, the statement shall be filed in the county where it lies; if not, in the county where some of the parties reside.

Court after notice and hearing, may issue commission.
R. S., c. 107, § 27.
72 Me., 470-1.

SEC. 27. The court shall order notice to be served on each of the persons named in the statement living in the state, fourteen days before the time appointed for hearing the parties, and on hearing the parties, or the applicant, if no adverse party appears, may issue a commission for taking such deposition as in a cause pending.

To be taken on interrogatories.
R. S., c. 107, § 28.
72 Me., 470.
—application may be filed in vacation, and notice given.

SEC. 28. The deposition shall be taken on interrogatories filed by the applicant, and cross interrogatories by any party adversely interested, substantially as when taken to be used in pending causes. Or the person wishing to take the deposition may file his statement in the clerk's office in vacation, and cause notice to be given to the persons named therein as interested, fourteen days at least before the next term of the court, at which time the parties may be heard.

PENALTY FOR REFUSING TO APPEAR, OR TO GIVE DEPOSITION.
