SEC. 46. Upon making such record such municipal officers or some person appointed by them for that purpose, shall make complaint under oath to a judge of a court or to any trial justice, which complaint shall contain, in substance, the allegations set forth in said petition, and a prayer that such provision may be made for the care, custody, support and education of the child named in said complaint as justice requires, and thereupon the magistrate, before whom such complaint is made, shall issue his warrant and cause such child to be brought before him, and if, upon notice and hearing, it appears that the allegations of the complaint are true, and that justice requires that such child shall be supported and educated away from its parents, he shall order it to such place or institution as is provided therefor by such town, or to such charitable institution or private person, as he deems suitable, provided, that such institution or person consents to receive, support and educate it; but such order shall not extend beyond the time when such child arrives at the age of twenty-one years, if a male, or at the age of eighteen years, if a female. An order to the same effect may be made by the probate court in any county where either of the parents of a child resides, upon petition of the superintendent of any such public or charitable institution asking for the care, custody and control of such child, if written consent be given as provided in section thirty-three of chapter sixty-nine. Such orders and decrees shall have the same effect to divest the parents of all legal rights in respect to such child as specified in section thirty-five of said chapter sixty-nine, and said institution shall have full control over said child thereafter, for said time, and have authority alone to give the consent required in said section thirty-three.

SEC. 47. Whenever the magistrate deems it suitable and conducive to the public welfare, that such child be placed under the control of a private person, he shall first take a bond from such person, running to the town where the child resides, in such sum and with such sureties as he approves, conditioned that such person shall humanely treat and properly support, clothe and educate the child, and in case of the non-performance of said bond, a suit may be commenced thereon, and the sum recovered upon such bond shall be paid into the treasury of the town to which the bond is given. Upon application to any magistrate, he shall examine into the condition and welfare of the children who have been provided for under this chapter, and may at any time make such further order in relation to their care, custody, support and education as justice demands.

SEC. 48. Whenever the municipal officers of a town have reason to believe that any child will be removed beyond the limits of the state before a hearing can be had, as provided in this chapter, they may at any time until after filing the petition, take the child into their custody and keep it until the hearing before the magistrate, as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 49. Whenever a child is in the custody of any public or charitable institution, the parents or either of them may make application in writing to any justice of the supreme judicial court to have its custody restored to them. Such notice of the application and the time and place of the hearing thereon as the court orders, shall be given to such institution and to the municipal officers of the town where the proceedings herein provided were commenced, and if, upon such hearing, it appears that the applicant is of sufficient ability and inclination suitably to provide for its support and education, and that justice requires that its custody be restored to such applicant, the judge shall so order, and the custody and control of said child shall thereupon be given to such applicant until the further order of the court.

SEC. 50. Any town incurring expenses under the five preceding sections, through the fault of parents who are able properly to support and educate their children, but wrongfully neglect and refuse to do so, may recover of them, in an action of debt, the amount so expended.

SEC. 51. Any town may make proper provision for the support of children mentioned in the six preceding sections, and such support shall not make such children or their parents, paupers.
