DESCENT OF REAL ESTATE.

SEC. 1. The real estate of a person deceased intestate, being subject to the payment of debts, including a wood lot or other land used with the farm or dwelling-house although not cleared, and also including wild lands of which he dies seized, but excepting wild lands conveyed by him, though afterwards cleared, descends according to the following rules:

And to the widower shall descend the same shares in his wife's real estate. case, the remainder, or, if no such issue, father or mother, the whole, descends in equal shares to his brothers and sisters, and when a brother or sister has died, to his or her children or grandchildren by right of representation.

V. If no such issue, father, brother or sister, it descends to his mother. If no such issue, mother, brother or sister, it descends to his father. In either case, to the exclusion of the issue of deceased brothers and sisters.

VI. If no such issue, father, mother, brother or sister, it descends to his next of kin in equal degree; when they claim through different ancestors, to those claiming through a nearer ancestor, in preference to those claiming through an ancestor more remote.

VII. When a minor dies unmarried, leaving property inherited from either of his parents, it descends to the other children of the same parent, and the issue of those deceased; in equal shares if all are of the same degree of kindred; otherwise, according to the right of representation.

VIII. If the intestate leaves no widower, widow or kindred, it escheats to the state.

SEC. 2. The degrees of kindred are computed according to the rules of the civil law. Kindred of the half blood inherit equally with those of the whole blood in the same degree. (a)

SEC. 3. An illegitimate child born after March twenty-four, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, is the heir of his parents who intermarry. And any such child, born at any time, is the heir of his mother. And if the father of an illegitimate child adopts him or her into his family, or in writing acknowledges before some justice of the peace or notary public, that he is the father, such child is also the heir of his or her father. And in each case such child and its issue shall inherit from its parents respectively, and from their lineal and collateral kindred, and these from such child and its issue the same as if legitimate.

SEC. 4. Gifts and grants of real or personal estate to a child or grandchild, are deemed an advancement, when so expressed therein, or charged as such by the intestate, or acknowledged in writing to be such. For purposes of descent and distribution, they shall be regarded as part of the estate of the intestate, and as taken towards a share of it.

SEC. 5. When the value of an advancement is determined by the intestate in his gift or charge, or is acknowledged in writing, it shall be allowed in the distribution; if not, the value shall be estimated at the time when it is given. When it exceeds his share, he is excluded from any further portion; when less, he shall receive sufficient to make it an equal share. He shall not refund any part of an advancement.

SEC. 6. When an advancement is made in real estate, it shall be regarded as part of the real estate, and when in personal, as part of the personal estate. If it exceeds his share of the real or personal estate, he receives so much less of the other, as will make his whole share equal. If such child or grandchild dies before the intestate, leaving issue, the advancement made to him shall be regarded as made to such issue, and distribution shall be made accordingly.

SEC. 7. When an estate is solvent, and a person, to whom a share of it descends, is indebted to the intestate at the time of his death, such debt creates a lien on his share, having priority to any attachment of it; and such lien may be enforced by suit and attachment of the share within two years after administration is granted, and by levy within thirty days after judgment. In such action, or in one brought by the heir, all claims between the intestate and heir may be set off and adjusted, and the balance due may be established.

RIGHTS OF SURVIVING HUSBANDS AND WIVES.

SEC. 8. Except as hereinafter provided, the right of widows to dower in the real estate of their deceased husbands, and the right of widowers as tenant by curtesy in the real estate of their deceased wives are abolished. But this section and the nine following sections shall not be held to affect, modify, enlarge or limit the rights and interests which any widower or widow married before May one, eighteen hundred and ninety-five has in the estate of a wife or husband deceased prior to January one, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, nor any of the remedies by which the same may be enforced, nor affect any jointure or antenuptial settlement or pecuniary provision made for such widow by any such husband. Nor shall a widower married before May one, eighteen hundred and ninety-five have any interest in the real estate of his wife conveyed by her during coverture, prior to January one, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven.

SEC. 9. A husband or wife of any age, may bar his or her right and interest by descent, in an estate conveyed by the other, by joining in the same, or a subsequent deed, or with the guardian of the other; or by sole deed; but shall not be deprived of such right and interest by levy or sale of the real estate on execution; but may, after the right of redemption has expired, release such right and interest by sole deed.

SEC. 10. A woman may be barred of her right and interest by descent in her husband's lands, by a jointure settled on her with her consent before marriage; such jointure shall consist of a freehold estate in lands, for the life of the wife at least, to take effect immediately on the husband's death; if of full age, she shall express her consent by becoming a party to the conveyance; if under age, by joining with her father or guardian. (a)

SEC. 11. A pecuniary provision made for the benefit of an intended wife instead of her right and interest by descent, consented to by her as provided in the preceding section, bars her right and interest by descent in her husband's lands. (b)

SEC. 12. If such jointure or provision is made before marriage, without the consent of the intended wife, or if it is made after marriage, it bars her right and interest by descent, unless, within six months after the husband's death, she makes her election to waive such provision, and files the same in writing in the probate court. In case she so makes such election she shall be entitled to her right and interest by descent in her husband's lands. (c)

SEC. 13. When a specific provision is made in a will, for the widow or widower of a testator or testatrix, who was married before May one, eighteen hundred and ninety-five and died since January one, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, or who was married on or after said May one, such legatee or devisee may within six months after probate of said will and not afterwards, except as hereinafter provided, make election, and file notice thereof in the probate court, whether to accept said provision or claim the right and interest by descent, herein provided; but is not entitled to both, unless it appear by the will that the testator or testatrix plainly so intended. If such election is not made within six months after probate of a will, and the estate is thereafter rendered insolvent, and commissioners are appointed by the judge of probate, such election may be made at any time within six months after the appointment of such commissioners. Such election shall not affect any title to real estate theretofore acquired from the executor or administrator with the will annexed, but the widow or widower may recover from such executor or administrator, if not paid within thirty days after demand therefor in writing, one-third of any sums received from real estate sold before such waiver was filed. Whenever the widow or widower is advised that the legal construction of the provisions of the will for her or him is doubtful or uncertain, the time for making such election shall be extended to thirty days after certificate is returned to the probate court in the county where the probate proceedings are had, of the final decision by the supreme judicial court upon a bill in equity, commenced by said legatee or devisee within thirty days after the probate of the will, to obtain the decision of the court as to his or her rights under it, but in no case shall the time for election be less than six months after probate. The clerk of courts for the county in which the proceedings in equity are commenced, within three days after receipt of the decision therein, shall send notice of the same to the widow or widower, or her or his solicitor of record, and transmit a certified copy of the decree to the proper probate court, where it shall be recorded, with the time of its reception: When a provision is made in a will for the widow of a testator who died after April twenty-six, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, or for the widower of a testatrix, who died after June one, nineteen hundred and three, and such provision is waived as aforesaid, such widow or widower shall have and receive the same distributive share of the personal estate of such testator or testatrix as is provided by law in intestate estates. When no provision is made for his widow in the will of a testator who died after April twenty-six, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, or for her widower in the will of a testatrix who died after June one, nineteen hundred and three, such widow or widower shall likewise have and receive the same distributive share of the personal estate of such testator or testatrix as is provided by law in intestate estates, provided such widow or widower shall within six months after the probate of such will, file in the probate court written notice that she or he claims such share of the personal estate of such testator or testatrix. Any notice filed under the provisions of this section shall be recorded by the register of probate in the record books of the probate court where such notice is filed, but a failure to record such notice shall not in any way affect the rights of any widow or widower.

SEC. 14. All releases of rights to dower or curtesy in any manner heretofore or hereafter made, in estates conveyed or mortgaged by husbands or wives, shall be deemed to include and shall be construed to include all rights and interests by descent.

SEC. 15. If the wife has heretofore released her right of dower in a mortgage made by her husband, or if her husband is seized of land mortgaged by another person, or by himself before their marriage, she shall be entitled to her right and interest by descent, as herein provided, in the mortgaged premises, as against every person except the mortgagee and those claiming under him. And if the heirs of the husband, or other person claiming under him, redeem the mortgage, she shall repay such proportion of the money paid by him as her interest in the mortgaged premises bears to the whole value; else she shall be entitled to her right and interest by descent only according to the value of the estate, after deducting the money paid for its redemption.

SEC. 16. If the wife of the grantor or mortgagor of lands conveyed or mortgaged prior to May one, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, or in case of persons then married, prior to January one, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, has not released or barred her right of dower in the same, she shall be entitled, as against the grantee or mortgagee and those claiming under him, to her right of dower only, as then existing. The wife of an insolvent debtor, married prior to May one, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, decreed to be insolvent under the provisions of chapter seventy-two, prior to January one, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, shall be entitled, as against the assignee, and those claiming under him, to her right of dower only, as aforesaid.

SEC. 17. If the owner of real estate contracts to sell the same, and the husband or wife of the owner refuses to release his or her interest and right by descent, the owner may apply to a justice of the supreme judicial or superior court, who, after such notice to the other party as he may order, and hearing, may, in his discretion, approve the sale and price, and order the owner to pay to the clerk of court, for such husband or wife of the owner, such sum as would amount to one-third of the price approved, if the owner has issue, and one-half if he has no issue, at the expiration of the owner's expectancy of life, computed at three per cent, compound interest. The clerk shall give a certificate of such approval by the court, and of the fact that said money has been paid as aforesaid, to be filed with the register of deeds in the county or registry district where the land lies, with the owner's deed thereof, and such register shall record the same; and thereafter such interest or right by descent in such real estate, shall be barred. An assignee for the benefit of creditors, or in insolvency, or a trustee in bankruptcy, may make application for proceedings under this section in relation to any real estate held by him in such capacity, to bar the interest and right by descent therein, of the husband or wife of the assignor, insolvent or bankrupt.

Wife who has not released her right of dower in land conveyed or mortgaged, shall be entitled to same as against grantee or mortgagee. 1895, c. 157, § 8.

Proceedings if husband or wife refuses to release interest in real estate which owner has contracted to sell. 1895, c. 157, § 10.

DESCENT OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.

SEC. 18. The personal estate of an intestate, except that portion assigned to his widow by law and by the judge of probate, shall be applied first to the payment of his debts, funeral charges, and charges of settlement; and the residue shall be distributed or shall escheat by the rules provided for the distribution of real estate. (a)

SEC. 19. Money received for insurance on his life, deducting the premium paid therefor within three years with interest, does not constitute a part of his estate for payment of debts, or for purposes specified in section one of chapter sixty-eight, when the intestate leaves a widow or issue, but descends, one-third to his widow, and the remainder to his issue; if no issue, the whole to the widow, and if no widow, the whole to the issue. It may be disposed of by will; but in case the estate is insolvent, such disposition by will shall be limited to the distribution of such money among the widow and issue in such proportions as the testator may designate.
