Sec. 10. Judge of probate may appoint stenographer; duties. R. S. c. 65, § 8. The judge of any court of probate or court of insolvency, may appoint a stenographer to report the proceedings at any hearing or examination in his court, whenever such judge deems it necessary or advisable. Such stenographer shall be sworn to a faithful discharge of his duty, and, under the direction of the judge, shall take full notes of all oral testimony at such hearing or examination, and also such other proceedings at such hearing or examination as the judge directs, and when required by the judge shall furnish for the files of the court a correct and legible long-hand or typewritten transcript of his notes of the oral testimony of any person testifying at such hearing or submitting to such examination, and in making said transcript the stenographer shall transcribe his said notes in full by questions and answers.

Sec. 11. Transcript of testimony shall be read to person testifying, and signed when required by law; otherwise deemed correct without signing. R. S. c. 65, § 9. 1915, c. 282. In cases where the person testifying or submitting to examination is required by law to sign his testimony or examination, the transcript made as provided in the preceding section shall be read to the person whose testimony or examination it is, at a time and place to be appointed by the judge, unless such person or his counsel in writing waives such reading; and if it is found to be accurate, or if it contains errors or mistakes or alleged errors or mistakes, and such errors or mistakes are either corrected or the proceedings had in relation to the same as hereinafter provided, such transcript shall be signed by the person whose testimony or examination it is. When the reading of a transcript is waived as provided by this section, such transcript shall be deemed correct. In all other cases the transcript need not be signed but shall be deemed to be complete and correct without signing and shall have the same effect as if signed.

Sec. 12. Certified copies of notes shall be taken as evidence. R. S. c. 65, § 10. Whenever it becomes necessary, in any court in the state, to prove the testimony or examination taken, as provided in the two preceding sections, the certified copy of the transcript of such testimony or examination, taken by such stenographer, is evidence to prove the same.

Sec. 13. Correction of mistakes in transcript. R. S. c. 65, § 11. Manifest errors or mistakes in any transcript, may be corrected, under the direction of the judge, according to the facts. But when an error or mistake is alleged by the party conducting the hearing or examination, or by his counsel, or by the person testifying or submitting to examination, or by his counsel, and said parties cannot agree whether or not there is such an error or mistake as alleged, or what correction should be made, the judge shall decide whether or not such an error or mistake exists, and may allow or disallow a correction according as he may find the fact, but in such case the judge shall annex to the transcript a certificate signed by him stating the alleged error or mistake, and by whom alleged, and the correction allowed or disallowed. In case the said parties mutually agree that there is an error or mistake in the transcript, and in like manner agree what the correction should be, the transcript may be corrected according to such agreement, but such correction shall be stated and made in the presence of the judge. No changes or alterations shall be made in any transcript except in the presence of the judge, or the person appointed by the judge to take the examination.

Sec. 14. When examination is before some person appointed by judge, he may also appoint a stenographer. R. S. c. 65, § 12. When an examination is taken before some person appointed by the judge to take it, the judge may also appoint a stenographer to attend such examination for the purposes mentioned in section ten, and the duties of such stenographer shall be the same as in examinations before the judge. The powers and duties of any person appointed by the judge to take an examination shall be the same at such examination as those of the judge, and the same proceedings for the correction or alteration of transcripts may be had before such person as before the judge.

Sec. 15. Transcripts deemed original papers. R. S. c. 65, § 13. All transcripts made and signed as herein provided, shall be deemed original papers.

Sec. 16. Court first commencing probate proceedings, to have jurisdiction. R. S. c. 65, § 14. CHAP. 67 it depends on the residence of any person, or the locality or amount of property, shall not be contested in any proceeding whatever, except on an appeal from the probate court in the original case, or when the want of jurisdiction appears on the same record.

58 Me. 227; 63 Me. 249; 74 Me. 89; 77 Me. 250; 81 Me. 224.

Sec. 17. When judge or register is interested, proceedings shall be in adjoining county. R. S. c. 65, § 15. 1907, c. 38. 1915, c. 84. When a judge or register of probate is interested in his own right, trust, or in any other manner, or is within the degree of kindred, by which in law, he may, by possibility, be heir to any part of the estate of the person deceased, to an amount in either case of not less than one hundred dollars, or is named as executor, trustee, or guardian of minor children, in the will of any deceased resident of the county, such estate shall be settled in the probate court of any adjoining county, which shall have as full jurisdiction thereof, as if the deceased had died therein. If his interest arises after jurisdiction of such estate has been regularly assumed, or existed at the time of his appointment to office, and in all cases where an executor, administrator, guardian or trustee, whose trust is not fully executed, becomes judge or register of probate for the county in which his letters were granted, further proceeding therein shall be transferred to the probate court in any adjoining county, and there remain till completed, as if such court had had original jurisdiction thereof, unless said disability is removed before that time. Whenever in any case within the provisions of this section, the disability of the judge or register is removed before the proceedings have been fully completed, the proceedings shall then be transferred to the probate court in the county of original jurisdiction or to the probate court which otherwise would have had jurisdiction; and in all such cases the register in such adjoining county shall transmit copies of all records relating to such estate, to the probate office of the county where such estate belongs, to be there recorded.

See § 30; c. 72, § 1; 79 Me. 36.

Sec. 18. Judge to certify unfinished acts of his predecessor. R. S. c. 65, § 16. Every judge, upon entering on the duties of his office, shall examine the records, decrees, certificates and all proceedings connected therewith, which his predecessor left unsigned or unauthenticated, and if he finds them correct, he shall sign and authenticate them, and they shall then be as valid to all intents and purposes, as if such duty had been done by his predecessor while in office.

104 Me. 462.

Sec. 19. Oaths required may be taken before certain officials within or without the state. R. S. c. 65, § 17. 1913, c. 52. All oaths required to be taken by executors, administrators, trustees or guardians, and all oaths required of commissioners of insolvency, appraisers and dividers of estates, or of any other persons in relation to any proceeding in the probate court, or to perpetuate the evidence of the publication of any order of notice, or of any notice of the time and place of sale of real estate by license of a judicial or probate court, may be administered by the judge or register of probate, by any justice of the peace, or notary public, or by any woman appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, to administer oaths in the state; and a certificate thereof, when taken out of court, shall be returned into the registry of probate, and there filed. When any person of whom such oath is required, including any person making an affidavit in support of a claim against an estate, resides temporarily or permanently without the state, the oath may be taken before a notary public without the state, a commissioner for the State of Maine, or a United States Consul.

Sec. 20. Judges shall not be counsel in cases incompatible; nor draft documents, which they are required to pass upon. R. S. c. 65, § 18. 1915, c. 312. No judge of probate shall have a voice in judging and determining, nor be attorney or counselor in or out of court in any civil action or matter, which depends on or relates to any sentence or decree made by him in his office; nor in any civil action for or against any executor, administrator, guardian or trustee under any last will and testament, as such, within his county, and any process or proceeding commenced by him in the probate court for his county, in violation of this section is void, and he is liable to the party injured in damages; nor shall any judge of probate draft or aid in drafting any document or paper which he is by law required to pass upon.

Their election is effected and determined as is provided respecting county commissioners by chapter eighty-three, and they enter upon the discharge of their duties on the first day of January following; but the term of those appointed to fill vacancies commences immediately. All registers, before acting, shall give bond to the treasurer of their county with sufficient sureties, in the sum of one thousand dollars; and every register, having executed such bond, shall file it in the office of the clerk of the county commissioners of his county, to be presented to them at their next meeting for approval, and after the bond has been so approved, the clerk shall record it and certify the fact thereon, and retaining a copy thereof, deliver the original to the register, who shall deliver it to the treasurer of the county, within ten days after its approval, to be filed in his office.

See c. 83, §§ 1-4; Const. Me. Art. vi, § 7; Art. ix, § 1.

Sec. 22. Condition of bond. R. S. c. 65, § 20. 1915, c. 95, § 2. The condition of such bond shall be to account, according to law, for all fees received by him or payable to him by virtue of his office and to pay the same to the county treasurer quarterly, as provided by law; to keep up, seasonably and in good order, the records of the court; to make and keep correct and convenient alphabets of the records, and to faithfully discharge all other duties of the office. If such register forfeits his bond, he is thenceforth disqualified from holding said office, and neglect to complete his records for more than six months at any time, sickness or extraordinary casualty excepted, shall be adjudged a forfeiture.

Registers of probate shall have the care and custody of all files, papers and books belonging to the probate office; and shall duly record all wills proved, letters of administration or guardianship granted, bonds approved, accounts allowed, all petitions for distribution and decrees thereon, and all petitions, decrees and licenses relating to the sale, exchange, lease or mortgage of real estate, all petitions and decrees relating to adoption and change of name, and such orders and decrees of the judge, and other matters, as he directs. They shall keep a docket of all probate cases, and shall, under the appropriate heading of each case, make entries of each motion, order, decree and proceeding, so that at all times the docket will show the exact condition of each case. Any register may act as an auditor of accounts when requested so to do by the judge and his decision shall be final unless appeal is taken in the same manner as other probate appeals. The records may be attested by the volume, and it shall be deemed to be a sufficient attestation of such records, when each volume thereof bears the attest with the written signature of the register or other person authorized by law to attest such records. The registers of probate may bind in volumes of convenient size original inventories and accounts filed in their respective offices, and when so bound and indexed such inventories and accounts shall be deemed to be recorded in all cases where the law requires a record to be made, and no further record shall be required.
