The board shall consist of 3 members, who shall be residents and legal voters of the city where it is established; they shall not hold any state, county, or city office or be candidates therefor at any election, primary election, or caucus so long as they shall continue members thereof. One member shall be appointed and commissioned by the governor with the advice and consent of the council for the term of 4 years. The other 2 members shall be chosen one from the political party polling the highest number of votes for governor at the next preceding state election, and one from the political party polling the next highest number of votes for governor at such election; they shall each hold their office for the term of 3 years; each shall be nominated by the city committee of his own political party, and upon due notice thereof in writing, the mayor or the officer performing the function of mayor of such cities shall forthwith appoint such persons, so nominated, members of the board. They shall also receive such compensation as may be fixed by the municipal officers for such time as they are necessarily employed in making up and preparing the list of voters, and their necessary expenses. Cities where a board is established shall provide a suitable place for holding its sessions and shall pay for the services of such officers as the board may employ and have in attendance to preserve order and execute its precepts. Such cities shall also pay all reasonable expenses, such as the expense of blank books, stationery, and the necessary assistance of clerks. or more, boards of registration shall be in session every day of the year, Sundays and court holidays excepted, for the purpose of registration and enrolment of voters and to revise and correct the voting list. Open sessions shall be held for the purpose of registration and enrolment of voters from 9 to 12 o'clock in the morning, and from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon, Saturday afternoon excepted. From the 18th to the 13th days inclusive of their sessions next prior to any election, the board shall be in session from 9 o'clock in the forenoon to 1 o'clock in the afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and from 7 to 9 o'clock in the afternoon. On the 12 days of their sessions next prior to an election the board shall be in closed session to enable the board to verify the correctness of the list and to complete and close the records of its sessions. In cities of 25,000 inhabitants or any greater number less than 30,000, the boards shall be in session on each of the 16 days, Sundays and court holidays excepted, next prior to any election; the 1st 10 days thereof in open session, and the last 6 days thereof in closed session, during the hours and for the purposes as above provided. No name, except as hereinafter provided, shall be added to or stricken from the general register of voters after 9 o'clock in the afternoon of the last of the days devoted to registration as herein provided. The board shall not place upon the voting list during the revision of the same, the name of any person who shall not personally appear before the board in open session and request it; but nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to require any voter, whose name is already upon any ward list and who afterwards moves from such ward to any other ward in such city, to appear personally before the board in order that his name may be transferred from one ward list to another. On the last of the days of their session devoted to the completion of the records as above provided, the sessions of the boards shall close at 5 o'clock in the afternoon except when such last day is Saturday, and certified copies of the voting lists shall at that hour be delivered to the city clerk and receipts taken therefor. The wardens of cities shall be governed by such revised and corrected lists; and no name shall be added thereto or stricken therefrom on the day of election, except as hereinafter provided, and no person shall vote at any election whose name is not on such lists. No board of registration shall be answerable for any omission of a name or residence from the voting list or for any error therein, unless such name and residence are correctly entered in the general register of voters; but on the day of election the board shall be in session, and shall give to any voter whose name has been stricken from the general register or omitted from the voting list through any error of the assessors or the board, or in whose name or residence as placed on the voting list a clerical error has been made, a certificate signed by a majority of the board, giving the corrected name and residence of such person, and directed to the officer presiding over the election; such officer shall on receipt of such certificate, allow the person therein named to vote and shall check his name on such certificate, and securely attach it to the voting list. In case any person is aggrieved by any order or decision of the board, the whole case, upon petition for mandamus, shall be reexamined and determined by any justice of the superior court in the county in which the controversy arises, which determination, however, shall not affect any election held prior to the decision of such justice. No costs shall be allowed either party in any such proceeding.

See c. 116, §§ 17-20, re mandamus.

Every married woman now registered, or who shall hereafter register as a voter, shall be registered under her given name and married surname. Any married woman or widow may use her family name as a part of the name by which she shall be registered as a voter. Whenever a registered woman voter shall assume through marriage or any process of law a new surname, she shall notify the board of such change, in person, and the board shall then register her again; but when the open session for registration of voters, as hereinbefore provided has ended, and before the close of the day of election, she may present to the board a duly executed certificate of her marriage, or of her change of name by process of law, and the board shall cause her name to be changed accordingly on the voting list and the general register, and shall issue its certificate directed to the officers presiding over the election, in the same manner and with the same effect as hereinbefore provided by reason of clerical error or omission of a name from the voting list.

The name of the applicant, if admitted to registration, shall be announced in a clear, audible, and distinct voice before entering it on the register.

Sec. 21. Voter claiming exemption from educational test to make declaration under oath. R. S. c. 6, § 3. Any applicant for registration as a voter, claiming exemption from the educational test required by the preceding section and section 2, except those exempted by their provisions, shall declare under oath that he was a legal voter in this state on the 4th day of January, 1893, and, if required to do so, shall furnish such other reasonable evidence of the truth of his statement as shall be satisfactory to the board.

Sec. 22. Requirements made of applicant who is a naturalized citizen. R. S. c. 6, § 18. An applicant who is a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce for inspection his certificate of naturalization, or a duly certified copy of the court record of such naturalization from the court by which he was naturalized, and to make oath that he is the identical person mentioned therein, and the board, if satisfied that he has been legally naturalized, shall make a record or memorandum upon such certificate or copy of the date of such inspection and enter it upon the general register, and shall enter in a book kept for that purpose, the name and location of the court by which such certificate or copy was issued, with the date thereof and the date of such inspection, together with the name of the applicant as it is spelled and recorded in such certificate or copy, which need not again be produced before the board for examination.

See c. 94, §§ 21-24, re naturalization.

Such notice and summons shall be served upon such person by an officer qualified to serve civil process, by giving him in hand or by leaving at his last and usual place of abode an attested copy of such notice and summons, at least 6 hours before the closing of the final session of the board devoted to the revision and correction of the voting list. Such person and the board may also summon and examine other witnesses before the board concerning his right to vote, and if it appears to the board that such person is not or will not be qualified to vote at such election, they shall cause his name to be erased from the list and not add it thereto.

Certified copies of all such lists made in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be furnished to the clerk of such city by the board at least 30 days prior to any such election, and the clerk shall cause such copies to be posted in their respective wards at or near the several voting places customarily used as such, at least 27 days prior to any such election; provided, however, that in case of a failure to elect any municipal officer at any election, or any person elected declines to serve, so that a special election is held to fill the vacancy, or in case of a special election to choose representatives to congress or members of the legislature, the board shall not be required to prepare nor the city clerk to post new lists of voters, and for this purpose the board shall be in session on the 3 days, Sundays and court holidays excepted, next preceding such election, the first 2 thereof to be devoted to registration of voters, and the last to enable the board to verify the correctness of such lists and to complete and close up the records of its sessions.
