CHAPTER 108.

REFERENCE OF DISPUTES BY CONSENT OF PARTIES.

Sec. 1. What controversies may be referred; powers of referees; revocation only by consent. R. S. c. 122, § 1. All controversies which may be the subject of a personal action may be submitted to one or more referees, with the same powers as those appointed by the court; and the parties personally, or by attorney, may sign and acknowledge an agreement before a justice of the peace, although he is one of the referees, in substance as follows:

"Know all men by these presents, that — —, of — —, in the county of — —, and — —, of — —, in the county of — —, have agreed to submit the demand made by said — —, against said — —, which is hereunto annexed," (and all other demands between the parties, as the case may be,) "to the determination of — —, — — and — —; and judgment rendered on their report, or that of a majority of them, made to the superior court for the said county of — —, within one year from this day, shall be final. And if either party neglects to appear before the referees, after proper notice given to him of the time and place appointed for hearing the parties, they may proceed in his absence.

Dated this — — day of — —, A. D., 19—."

Such agreement shall not be revoked without mutual consent; but the parties may agree when the report shall be made, and vary the form accordingly.

If all demands between the parties are so submitted, no specific demand need be annexed to the agreement; but if a specific demand only is submitted, it shall be annexed to the agreement and signed by the party making it, and be so stated as to be readily understood.
