Organization of the Legislature.

Sec. 2. Salary and travel of members of the legislature and representatives of Indian tribes.—Each member of the senate and house of representatives shall receive $1,600 for the regular session of the legislature, and shall be paid for travel at each legislative session once each week at the rate of 5¢ per mile to and from his place of abode, the mileage to be determined by the most reasonable direct route. He is entitled to mileage on the first day of the session, and such amounts of his salary and at such times as the legislature may determine during the session, and the balance at the end thereof. Two dollars shall be deducted from the pay of every member for each day that he is absent from his duties, without being excused by the house to which he belongs.

The president of the senate and speaker of the house of representatives shall each receive $1,850 for each regular session of the legislature, with the same mileage as other members, and subject to the same deductions in case of each absence. Any member acting as president pro tempore of the senate, or speaker pro tempore of the house, shall receive $2 a day extra therefor.

The member of the Indian tribe elected by it to represent the tribe at the biennial assembly of the legislature shall receive a compensation of $250 for such attendance. (1955, c. 478, § 1. 1957, c. 1, § 1; c. 414, § 1. 1959, c. 225; c. 373, §§ 1, 2.)

Effect of amendments. — The 1955 day of January, 1957, increased the salary amendment, effective on the first Wednesday of members of the senate and house from
