Organization of the Legislature.

Sec. 2. Salary and travel of members of the legislature and representatives of Indian tribes.—Each member of the senate and house of representatives shall receive $1,600 for the regular session of the legislature, and shall be paid for travel at each legislative session once each week at the same rate per mile to and from his place of abode as state employees receive, the mileage to be determined by the most reasonable direct route. He is entitled to mileage on the first day of the session, and such amounts of his salary and at such times as the legislature may determine during the session, and the balance at the end thereof. Two dollars shall be deducted from the pay of every member for each day that he is absent from his duties, without being excused by the house to which he belongs.

Each member of the senate and house of representatives shall receive an allowance for meals in the amount of $5 for each day in attendance at sessions of the legislature. Each member occupying overnight accommodations away from home immediately preceding or immediately following attendance at daily sessions of the legislature shall be reimbursed, under procedures governing state employees, for actual housing expenses not to exceed $7 per night.

The president of the senate and speaker of the house of representatives shall each receive $1,850 for each regular session of the legislature, with the same mileage as other members, and subject to the same deductions in case of each absence.
