Chapter 39-B.

Maine Mining Bureau.

Sec. 1. Mining bureau established.—The Maine mining bureau, as heretofore established, shall consist of 7 members, one each from the state departments of agriculture, forestry, state, economic development and inland fisheries and game and the water improvement commission, each of whom shall be appointed by the head of his respective department, plus the state geologist. The state geologist, by virtue of his office, shall be the consultant to said bureau. They shall organize with a chairman, and a secretary who shall keep the records of their doings and such data regarding the mines in the state as may be useful. The jurisdiction of the bureau shall be confined to land owned or held in trust by the state. (1957, c. 293, § 2. 1959, c. 135, § 1.)

Effect of amendment.—The 1959 amendment rewrote the first sentence, increasing the membership from 5 to 7 by adding members from the department of inland fisheries and game and the water improvement commission.

Sec. 2. Authority to prospect.—Any person over 18 years of age or any corporation may enter upon state-owned land, including lands held in trust, when the trust is such as to be consistent with mineral development, on receipt of a prospector's permit from the Maine mining bureau for the purpose of prospecting for valuable minerals and metals, except water, sand and gravel.
