Effect of amendments.—The 1961 amendment repealed subsections VIII, X and XI.

IX and added all of that subsection following "school system." The second 1963 amendment again deleted "normal schools and" in subsection IX.

The first 1963 amendment, which became effective on its approval, March 29, 1963, deleted "normal schools and" in subsection

As the rest of the section was not affected by the amendments, it is not set out.

Sec. 14-A. Definition of salary paid to minister of the gospel. — In the case of a minister of the gospel "salary" means the amount of money or credit received as compensation for service rendered, exclusive of mileage, traveling allowances, and other sums received for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of the state's business, but including all of the following:

I. Rental value. The rental value of a home furnished to him.

II. Rental allowance. The rental allowance paid to him to rent or provide a home.

For the purposes of this section there is allocated from the salary or wage paid to a minister of the gospel an amount not exceeding $1,800 as either of the following:

I. Rental value. The rental value of a home furnished to him.

II. Rental allowance. The rental allowance paid to him to rent or provide a home. (1963, c. 67.)

Sec. 17. Preference in state employment for veterans.

II. Ten-point preference is a term applying to veteran preference which entitles the holder to an addition of 10 points to earned qualifying ratings in examination. The classes of 10-point preference are as follows:

A. Disability preference applies to honorably discharged veterans who es-
