Chapter 88.
Boxing Commission.

Sec. 7. Licenses.

Any person, club, association or corporation, or any officer of such club, association or corporation who conducts such a boxing contest or exhibition, or any boxer, manager, timekeeper, knock-down timekeeper, second, referee, judge or physician who engages in or in any way takes part in such a contest or exhibition without first obtaining such a license, or when such license has expired or has been suspended or revoked by the commission or temporarily suspended or revoked by the chairman, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both. (R. S. c. 78, § 8. 1945, c. 213. 1949, c. 111, §§ 1, 2. 1953, c. 244, §§ 3, 4. 1957, c. 40, § 1.)

Effect of amendment. — The 1957 amendment made the fourth paragraph of this section applicable to exhibitions and added the provisions as to imprisonment in such paragraph. As the first three paragraphs were not changed by the amendment, they are not set out.

Sec. 7-A. Permits for foreign co-promoters.—No foreign co-promoter, meaning a promoter who has no place of business within the state of Maine, shall directly or indirectly participate in the promotion of or receive any remuneration from or render any services in connection with any such boxing contest or exhibition held within the state of Maine unless he first shall have been granted a permit by the commission. No promoter shall be associated with any foreign co-promoter in promoting any boxing contest or exhibition unless the foreign co-promoter has first secured a permit. Such permit shall expire one year from date of issue and the fee therefor shall be fixed by the commission at a figure between $10 and $100, depending upon the probable income of the applicant for a permit to be derived from the conducting of such boxing contests and exhibitions.

A foreign co-promoter by accepting a permit agrees to be subject to all the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Any foreign co-promoter who violates any provision of this chapter or any rule and regulation promulgated thereunder shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both. (1957, c. 40, § 2.)

Sec. 9. Hearings.

Any person, club, association or corporation aggrieved by the findings of the commission may take an appeal within 60 days to the superior court in the county where the hearing was held. On such appeal, the complaint shall, in substance, state the findings of the commission and the grounds for appeal, and said court shall consider said proceeding de novo and an appeal may be taken to the law court as in other actions. In the event the final judgment of the court reverses the finding of the commission, the court finding and order shall be conclusive upon the commission. (R. S. c. 78, § 9. 1959, c. 317, § 36.)

Effect of amendment.—The 1959 amendment rewrote the last paragraph of this section. Affected by the amendment, only the last paragraph is set out.

Effective date and applicability of Public Laws 1959, c. 317. — Section 420, chapter

317, Public Laws 1959, provides as follows: "This act shall become effective December 1, 1959. It shall apply to all actions brought after December 1, 1959 and also to all further proceedings in actions at law or suits in equity then pending, except to the extent that in the opinion of the court the application of this act in a particular action pending on December 1, 1959 would not be feasible or would work injustice, in which event the laws in effect prior to December 1, 1959 would prevail."

Sec. 12. Decisions. — In all boxing contests or exhibitions conducted under the provisions of this chapter, there may be a decision as to the winner by 2 judges and the referee, or by 3 judges, licensed under the provisions of this chapter. (R. S. c. 78, § 12. 1953, c. 244, § 7. 1957, c. 40, § 3.)

Effect of amendment. — The 1957 amendment inserted the words "or by three judges" in this section.
