Effect of amendment.—The 1959 amendment rewrote this section.

Chapter 100.

Miscellaneous Provisions Relating to Towns.

Sections 7-A to 8. Public Dumping Grounds.
 Sections 68-A to 68-J. Pin Ball Machines.
 Section 71-A. Drive-In Theaters.
 Sections 79-A to 79-D. Closing-Out Sales.
 Sections 136-A to 136-F. Trading Stamp Companies.

Public Dumping Grounds.

Sec. 7-A. Public dumping grounds; acquisition.—Any municipality may by action of its legislative body direct its municipal officers to take suitable lands for public dumping grounds. When so directed, the municipal officers shall proceed in the same manner as used in laying out public ways, except that a fee simple title shall be acquired.

I. The public dumping ground is not established until it has been accepted, as laid out, by the legislative body of the municipality.

II. Any public dumping ground that ceases to be usable as such may be disposed of in the same manner as other lands owned by the municipality.

III. Public dumping grounds established under this section shall be subject to chapter 36, section 85. (1959, c. 130.)

Sec. 7-B. Public dumping ground; nuisances.—Whoever personally or through the agency of another leaves or deposits any offal, filth or other noisome substance in any public dumping ground, except in the manner prescribed by the local health officer, and in such manner as may be satisfactory to such health officer, shall be guilty of committing a nuisance. Such person shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100, or by imprisonment for not more than 3 months. Any expenses incurred by a municipality in the abatement of such nuisances may be recovered in an action of debt brought in the name of the municipality against the guilty party. If requested, and if the gravamen of the offense so indicates, the court in its discretion may award double damages in such suits. (1959, c. 130.)

Dogs.

Sec. 9. Lists of all dogs; returns.

If any city or town fails to remit to the treasurer of state on or before October 15 of each year a sum of money equal to the licenses required by sections 9 to 28, inclusive, on all dogs living on the 15th day of June preceding, such deficiency shall be collected in the manner provided by section 13 of chapter 18. (R. S. c. 88, § 8. 1955, c. 135.)

Effect of amendment.—The 1955 amendment substituted in the last paragraph of the section the words “collected in the manner provided by section 13 of chapter 18” for the words “added to the state tax of such delinquent city or town for the following year.” As the rest of the section was not changed by the amendment, only the last paragraph is set out.

Sec. 10. Dog licenses; fee; suitable tag; duties of animal husbandry expert; kennels.—On or before the 1st day of April of each year, the owner or keeper of any dog 6 months old or over shall apply to the city or town clerk either orally or in writing for a license for each such dog owned or kept by him. Such application shall state the breed, sex, color and markings of such dogs and the name and address of the last previous owner.

A fee of $1.15 shall be paid the city or town clerk for each license issued on male dogs, and a fee of $5.15 shall be paid for all female dogs capable of bearing young. All female dogs shall be considered capable of producing young unless a certificate issued by the commissioner of agriculture and signed by a licensed veterinarian, or previous license record, is presented from a licensed veterinarian stating that such female was made incapable of bearing young by spaying by him. When such certificate accompanies the application, a fee of $1.15 shall then be paid on such spayed females. In addition to the amount paid for license and tag, each applicant shall pay the city or town clerk 25c for the recording and making a return to the commissioner of agriculture, except that a license and tag shall be issued by the city or town clerk, upon application, for any trained guide dog owned or kept by a blind person without payment of any fee required under this section. When any such dog has not been previously registered or licensed by the town or city clerk to whom such application is being made, such town or city clerk shall not register such dog nor issue to the owner or keeper a license and tag therefor unless written evidence shall be exhibited to him that the dog is trained and educated and intended in the fact to perform such guide service for such applicant.

Such licenses shall be made in triplicate, the original copy shall be mailed to the commissioner of agriculture, 1 copy given to the person applying for the license and 1 copy retained by the city or town clerk.

A suitable tag showing the year such license is issued and bearing such other data as the commissioner of agriculture may prescribe shall be given with each license and must be securely attached to a leather or metal collar which must be worn at all times by the dog for which the license was issued and it shall be unlawful for any person to remove such tag or to place either collar or tag on any dog not described or for which the license was not issued.

Returns from clerks of cities, towns and plantations showing all licenses issued by them together with a correct report showing the total number of dogs in "both sexes" found by the city or town assessors and the number of dogs killed shall be made to the commissioner of agriculture not later than the 1st day of July each year.

All license blanks and tags shall be furnished by the commissioner of agriculture. The representatives of the department of agriculture in charge of animal husbandry shall be known as the animal husbandry specialist and the assistant animal husbandry specialist, who shall carry out the provisions of the dog licensing laws and the adjustment of claims for damages to livestock and poultry by dogs and wild animals, and to the promotion of animal husbandry within the state. The expense of furnishing the above-mentioned blanks and tags, and the necessary clerk hire and travel, and the salary of the animal husbandry specialist and the assistant animal husbandry specialist shall be paid from the funds received from the licensing of dogs; provided, however, that money is hereby appropriated out of the dog license receipts for the purposes of this section.

Any person becoming the owner or keeper of a dog after the 1st day of April, not duly licensed as herein required, shall, within 10 days after he becomes the owner or keeper of said dog, cause said dog to be described and licensed as provided above.

Every owner or keeper of dogs, kept for breeding, hunting, show, field trials and exhibition purposes, may receive annually a special kennel license authorizing him to keep said dogs for said purpose, provided he keeps said dogs within a proper enclosure; and provided further, that such special kennel license shall permit such owner, keeper or authorized agent to transport under control and supervision said dogs to and from places of hunting or exhibition within or without the state. When the number of dogs so kept does not exceed 10, the fee for such license shall be $9.90, and in addition 25¢ for each such license as a fee for recording and making the return required by law; when the number of dogs so kept exceeds 10, the fee for such license shall be $19.90, and in addition 25¢ for each such license as a fee for recording and making the return required by law, and no fees shall be required for the dogs of such owner or keeper under the age of 6 months. Dogs covered by kennel license shall be furnished suitable kennel tags as prescribed by the commissioner of agriculture or his agent. (R. S. c. 88, § 9. 1945, c. 183, §§ 1, 2, 3; c. 209. 1949, c. 261. 1955, c. 433, § 2; c. 444. 1957, c. 187. 1959, c. 34.)

Effect of amendments. — The first 1955 amendment substituted "$1.15" for "90¢" in the first and third sentences of the second paragraph and "$5.15" for "$4.90" in the first sentence of the second paragraph. The second 1955 amendment inserted in the first sentence of the last paragraph the words "hunting, show, field trials and exhibition" and the words "hunting or." The second amendment also substituted in the last sentence of the last paragraph the words "furnished suitable kennel tags as prescribed by the commissioner of agriculture or his agent" for the words "exempted from the provisions of this section requiring registration, numbering and collaring."

The 1957 amendment substituted the words "who shall carry out" for the words "and shall devote their time to the carrying out of" and inserted the words "and poultry" in the second sentence of the sixth paragraph.

The 1959 amendment added the exception at the end of the fourth sentence of the second paragraph and added the last sentence therein.

Sec. 11. Dog kennels. — The commissioner of agriculture, his authorized agent, or duly authorized and appointed state humane agents, may at any time, enter any kennel, shelters or buildings used for the purpose of housing dogs and excepting any domicile and excepting any building used for human habitation heretofore recognized as not subject to search without warrant, and make examination and conduct any recognized test of the existence of any contagious or infectious disease or condition, and may quarantine such place, kennel or shelter in person or by registered mail and maintain such quarantine as long as the commissioner, his authorized agent, or duly authorized and appointed state humane agents, may deem necessary. Any kennel, shelter or place where dogs are housed or confined shall be maintained in a sanitary and humane manner and any records required by law shall be properly kept and available to the commissioner, his authorized agent, or duly authorized and appointed state humane agents, upon request.

Any person, firm or corporation violating any quarantine or maintaining dogs in an insanitary or inhumane condition, or not keeping records required by law shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100 for each offense. (1949, c. 314. 1955, c. 234. 1957, c. 10.)

Effect of amendments. — The 1955 amendment rewrote this section. applicable to duly authorized and appointed state humane agents.

The 1957 amendment made this section

Sec. 14. Unlicensed dogs; warrants; disposal.—The municipal officers of each city, town or plantation shall annually within 10 days from the 1st day of June issue a warrant, returnable in the 1st day of July following, to one or more police officers or constables, directing him or them to proceed forthwith to enter complaint and summons to court the owner or keeper of any unlicensed dog. The said police officer or constable shall, before entering such complaint and obtaining said summons, call on the owner or keeper of said dog and demand that he conform with the law and pay the license fees due, and if the owner pays such license fees, he shall pay in addition thereto the officer's fee of $2, which the officer shall retain and make return and pay over to the city or town clerk the license fees received by him.

(1955, c. 274. 1957, c. 189.)

Effect of amendments. — The 1955 amendment added the second sentence of the first paragraph; however, the 1957 amendment deleted the word “may” which formerly appeared as the seventh word of such sentence and inserted the word “shall” in lieu thereof. As the second paragraph was not changed by the amendments, it is not set out.

Sec. 18. Payment of damages done by dogs and wild animals; recovery from owner; keeping dogs that kill livestock and poultry.—Whenever any livestock, poultry or domestic rabbits, properly enclosed, owned by a resident of this state is killed or injured by dogs or wild animals, the owner, after locating such animal, animals or poultry or a sufficient part of each to identify the same, may make complaint thereof to the mayor of a city, or to one of the municipal officers of the town or plantation where such damage was done within 24 hours after he has knowledge of same. Thereupon, the municipal officers shall investigate the complaint and if satisfied such damage was committed by dogs or wild animals within the limit of their municipality, after viewing the evidence estimate the actual value of such animals or poultry according to the purposes for which they were kept, whether as breeders or other purposes, together with the damage to any other animals or poultry being bitten, torn or chased or exhausted, and make returns on blanks furnished by the department of agriculture. Such returns shall be made in triplicate, the original and duplicate copies together with a bill from the claimant shall be mailed to the commissioner of agriculture or his duly authorized agent within 15 days from the date of investigation, and the triplicate shall be kept by the municipal clerk as his record.

A full description of all evidence seen by the investigator shall be plainly printed or written in triplicate on all reports and recommendations giving the number of animals or poultry, properly enclosed, with the estimated value and the number of each giving their ages, average live weight and any other information that will assist in making a fair adjustment.

When livestock, poultry or domestic rabbits, properly enclosed, are kept in an unincorporated place, the owner may make complaint to the municipal officers of the nearest municipality adjoining, or the nearest municipality when there is none adjoining who shall investigate the complaint.

Each report and recommendation must be signed by the investigator in the place provided for his or her signature. Such signature shall be construed to mean that the investigator has seen evidence legally establishing the liability of the state. All reports and recommendations must be signed by a majority of the municipal officials.

The commissioner of agriculture or his duly authorized agent shall approve the bill or, if it seems advisable, investigate and adjust the claim.

When the claim is approved by the commissioner of agriculture or his duly authorized agent, the same shall be paid by the state to the person sustaining such damage.

All dogs doing such damage and found without leather or metal collar and tag as required by law shall be deemed to be unlicensed. If investigation shows such dog or dogs to have been legally licensed, the state shall accept liability and adjust the damage.

The state may maintain an action on the case against the owner or keeper of the dogs to recover the amount paid unless, before the final disposition of the case, the said owner or keeper of the said dog produces satisfactory evidence that the dog has been killed.

Any person who keeps a dog that kills or injures any livestock, poultry or domestic rabbits shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100 and costs unless, before the final disposition of the case, the said owner or keeper of the dog produces satisfactory evidence that the dog has been killed. (R. S. c. 88, § 16. 1945, c. 378, § 72. 1949, c. 118, §§ 1, 2. 1957, c. 186, § 1.)

Effect of amendment.—The 1957 amendment rewrote this section. Prior to the amendment the section applied to “sheep, lambs, domestic rabbits properly enclosed or other domestic animals”.

Sec. 19. Repealed by Public Laws 1957, c. 186, § 2; c. 429, § 84.

Cross reference.—See now § 18 of this chapter for provisions relative to damages to poultry by dogs or wild animals. Effective date.—Chapter 429, P. L. 1957, became effective on its approval, October 31, 1957.

Sec. 23. Stealing or killing dog.—Whoever steals or confines and secretes any dog, or willfully or negligently injures or willfully or negligently kills any such dog, except as provided in section 24 and unless such killing be justifiable in the protection of persons, property or game, shall be liable to the owner in a civil action for the full value of the dog. (R. S. c. 88, § 21. 1953, c. 98. 1957, c. 5.)

Effect of amendment.—Prior to the 1957 amendment this section applied to registered dogs only. The amendment also cited § 24 in lieu of referring to “the following section.”

Sec. 24. Killing dogs chasing game or livestock or poultry.—Any inland fish and game warden, sheriff, deputy sheriff or constable may at any time lawfully kill any dog he may find in the act of hunting or chasing moose, caribou or deer, or he may find worrying, wounding or killing any livestock or poultry, when said dog is outside of the enclosure or immediate care of its owner or keeper. Any owner of livestock or poultry or any member of his family or any person to whom is entrusted the custody of any livestock or poultry shall have a right to kill any dog attacking any of said livestock or poultry. Any person having any evidence of any dog hunting or chasing moose, caribou or deer, or of any dog kept and used for that purpose, or of any dog worrying, wounding or killing any livestock or poultry, when said dog is outside of the enclosure or immediate care of his owner or keeper, may present said evidence to any trial justice or judge or recorder of any municipal court, which said trial justice, judge or recorder shall have power to issue a warrant against the owner of said dog, ordering him to appear before him and show cause why said dog should not be killed. Upon hearing the evidence in said case said court may order said dog killed. Any person may lawfully kill a dog which suddenly assaults him or another person when peaceably walking or riding. (R. S. c. 88, § 22. 1953, c. 223. 1957, c. 220.)

Effect of amendment.—The 1957 amendment substituted “livestock or poultry” for “domestic animal or fowl” in the first and third sentences, substituted “livestock or poultry” for “sheep or fowl” in three places in the second sentence, and made the last clause of the third sentence into a separate sentence.

Such register shall be signed by the person renting such room or rooms, or by someone under his direction; and the proprietor of such hotel or lodginghouse or his agent, shall thereupon write opposite such name or names so registered the number of each room assigned to and occupied by each such guest, together with the date such room is rented. The proprietor of such hotel or lodginghouse, or his agent, shall also keep and preserve a record showing the date when the occupant of each room so rented shall quit and surrender the same. Such license shall be valid and effective for a period of 60 days from date of issuance, unless revoked as hereinafter provided, and the validity of such license may be extended for a period of 60 additional days if the licensee shall furnish to the said municipal officers an affidavit to the effect that all goods, wares or merchandise listed in the above-mentioned inventory have not been disposed of within the original 60-day period.

II.
