sheets and at least one volume of Maine Reports yearly, provided he has material enough to make a volume of the size required by this section, and furnish current copies to the state and to the public at a price to be fixed by the governor and council. Each volume shall be of the average size of Maine Reports, and be equal thereto in paper, printing, general finish and quantity of printed matter. The reporter may from time to time as he sees fit, make a written contract in his own name with any person, firm or corporation for the printing, publishing and binding of said reports and shall require such person, firm or corporation to give a good and sufficient bond with good and sufficient sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the terms and conditions of such contract by the person, firm or corporation with whom the reporter makes such contract. Upon receipt of an opinion from the law court the reporter shall prepare a concise abstract thereof in the form of a letter to be immediately distributed to members of the court and such others as the chief justice may direct. In case of a breach of any or all of the conditions of such bond, the reporter may maintain an action on such bond in his own name. In the exercise of any discretionary powers vested in him by this section or by section 15 of chapter 103, the reporter of decisions shall act in accordance with such instructions or advice as may be given to him by the chief justice of the supreme judicial court. (R. S. c. 92, § 2. 1951, c. 57, § 1. 1955, c. 175, § 1. 1957, c. 347, § 1.)

Effect of amendments. — The 1955 amendment inserted in the second sentence the reference to periodic advance sheets and the words “of Maine Reports.” It also deleted the words “the usual number of” formerly appearing before the words “current copies.”
The 1957 amendment inserted the fourth sentence of this section.

Sec. 4. Repealed by Public Laws 1955, c. 175, § 2.

Sec. 5. Reimbursement for expenses.—The reporter shall be reimbursed by the state for charges actually and reasonably incurred by him for clerk hire, stationery, postage, expressage and incidental expenses, to the extent that such charges exceed the amounts he is entitled to retain out of profits to pay the same pursuant to the provisions of section 3, but such reimbursement by the state shall not exceed $2,000 in any one year. (1951, c. 400. 1957, c. 347, § 2.)

Effect of amendment. — The 1957 amendment increased the maximum reimbursement from $1,500 to $2,000.

Chapter 105.

Board of Bar Examiners. Attorneys at Law.

Sections 25-29. Central Register of Attorneys.

Removal of Unworthy Attorneys and Resignation of Attorneys.

Sec. 24. Management of causes by parties or counsel.—Parties may plead and manage their own causes in court or do so by the aid of such counsel as they see fit to employ; but no person whose name has been struck from the roll of attorneys for misconduct shall plead or manage causes in court under a power of attorney for any other party or be eligible for appointment as a trial justice or justice of the peace. (R. S. c. 93, § 23. 1959, c. 40.)

Effect of amendment.—The 1959 amendment struck out the words “not exceeding 2 on a side,” formerly appearing after the word “counsel” in the first clause of this section.

Central Register of Attorneys.

Sec. 25. Central register of attorneys.—It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to establish and maintain a central register of all persons who have been duly admitted as members of the bar in this state. (1955, c. 446.)

Sec. 26. Preparation.—Said list shall be prepared from information furnished to the secretary of state by the clerk of courts from the several counties, each of whom shall within 3 months after the effective date of sections 25 to 29, inclusive, prepare in writing, certify and mail to the office of the secretary of state, a full, true and complete list of all members of the bar now living who have been admitted in their respective counties. (1955, c. 446.)

Sec. 27. Revision.—It shall likewise be the duty of the clerk of court in each of the several counties to furnish to the secretary of state by registered mail a written certificate setting forth any and all additions to the aforesaid list of members of the bar from his county as well as all deletions by reason of death, resignation, disbarment, suspension or otherwise, and all reinstatements or readmissions not otherwise reported to the secretary of state as and when they occur and thereupon it shall become the duty of the secretary of state, forthwith upon receipt of each amendatory certificate, to revise the central register of attorneys accordingly, to the end that said register may be perpetually maintained with current corrections from each county. A list of persons admitted each year together with the date and place of taking the oath and the date of admission shall be supplied annually to the secretary of the board of bar examiners by the secretary of state. (1955, c. 446.)

Sec. 28. Register as evidence.—If and whenever in any proceeding before any court of civil or criminal jurisdiction within the state of Maine, it becomes an issue as to whether or not any individual is or is not duly admitted to practice law as a member of the bar in the state of Maine, the certificate of the secretary of state as to whether or not his name then appears upon the said central roll or register of attorneys shall be prima facie evidence of the fact. (1955, c. 446.)

Sec. 29. Certificates.—It shall be the duty of the secretary of state upon payment of a fee of $5 to furnish his certificate in respect of any individual as to whether he is or is not recorded as a member of the bar on the said central register except that such certificate shall be furnished without charge to the attorney general, his deputies and assistants and the county attorneys of the several counties for use in connection with their public duties. (1955, c. 446.)

Chapter 106.

Superior Court.

Superior Court; Constitution, General Jurisdiction and Powers.

Sec. 2. Salary; expenses.—Each of the justices of the superior court shall receive an annual salary of $13,500. Chapter 103, section 4, relating to reimbursement of justices of the supreme judicial court for expenses incurred by them shall apply to justices of the superior court, including reimbursement for expenses incurred in employing clerical assistance but which in the aggregate shall not exceed a total sum of $4,000 per year for all such clerical assistance. (R. S. c. 94, § 2. 1945, c. 331, § 2. 1951, c. 403, § 2. 1955, c. 472, § 2. 1957, c. 417, § 2. 1959, c. 364, § 1; c. 370, § 2.)

Effect of amendments. — The 1955 justices of the superior court from $10,500 amendment increased the annual salary of to $11,500.
