102. Town may make an offer of judgment

§ 101. Trespass on land; tender

In actions for trespass on lands, the defendant may by answer disclaim all title to the land described, and allege that the trespass was involuntary, or by negligence or mistake, or in the prosecution of a legal right, and that before action brought he tendered sufficient amends therefor or that he brings money into court to satisfy the damages with costs to that time. If on trial he establishes the truth of his allegations, he recovers costs.

In actions against towns for injury to the person or damage to property from defect in ways, a town may make an offer of judgment in the same manner and with the same effect as defendants in other civil actions.

R.S.1954, c. 113, § 44; 1959, c. 317, § 174.
