CHAPTER 9
REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Sec.

1301. Membership in regional planning commission.

§ 1301. Membership in regional planning commission

A county in which a regional planning commission has been formed may become a member of the commission by resolution of the county commissioners. A county has the same powers and duties as a municipality with respect to chapter 239, subchapter 1, and the county commissioners have the powers and duties of municipal officers. A county is entitled to 2 representatives and one associate representative. They shall be appointed by the county commissioners. The term of office of a representative is 4 years, but initial appointments shall be made for 2 and 4 years, respectively. The term of office of an associate representative is 4 years. The jurisdiction of a regional planning commission may include all or part of a member county as determined by the commission.
