1. THE Speaker shall take the Chair every day at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned ; shall call the members to order ; and on the appearance of a quorum shall cause a Journal of the preceding day to be read.

2. He shall preserve decorum and order ; may speak to points of order in preference to other Members, shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the House, on motion regularly seconded ; and may vote in all cases.

3. He shall declare all votes ; but if any member doubt the vote, the Speaker shall order a return of the House, with the number voting for and against the question, and declare the result.

4. He shall rise to put a question, or to address the House, but may read sitting.

5. When the House shall determine to go into a committee of the whole House, the Speaker shall appoint the member who shall take the Chair.

6. When any member shall demand a question to be determined by yeas and nays, the Speaker shall take the sense of the House in that manner, provided one fifth of the Members present are in favor of it.

7. He shall propound all questions in the order they were moved, unless the subsequent motion be previous in its nature ; except that in naming sums, and fixing times, the largest sum and longest time shall be put first.

8. He shall consider a motion to adjourn as always first in order, and it shall be decided without debate.

9. He shall put the previous question in the following form, "shall the main question be now put?" and all amendment or further debate of the main question shall be suspended until the previous question shall be decided, and the previous question shall not be put unless one third of the Members present are in favor of it.

10. When two or more Members rise at the same time, the Speaker shall name the person to speak; but in all cases the Member who shall first rise and address the Chair, shall speak first.

11. All committees, except such as the House shall, from time to time determine to select by ballot, shall be nominated by the Speaker, unless a majority of Members shall be in favor of a nomination by the House, in which case the nomination shall be made by the House.

12. The Speaker shall have the right to name a Member to perform the duties of the Chair during his absence, but such substitution not to extend beyond an adjournment.

DUTIES OF THE CLERK.

13. All messages from the House to the Senate, and to the Governor or Governor and Council, shall be carried by the Clerk, unless when the House shall otherwise decide.

14. All papers shall be transmitted to the Governor and Council, and to the Senate, by the Clerk or the Assistant Clerk.

15. In case the Speaker shall be absent, the Clerk shall preside until a Speaker pro tem. be chosen.

16. A Chaplain or Chaplains shall be appointed at the commencement of the session in such manner as the House may direct, who shall perform religious services every morning immediately after the reading of the Journal. They may exchange with the Chaplain or Chaplains of the Senate, when it may be convenient to themselves.

DECORUM OF MEMBERS.

17. Every seat which shall be drawn by any Member, in person, at the beginning of any session, shall be his seat during that session, unless he shall have leave of the Speaker to change it.

18. No person shall sit at the Desk of the Speaker or Clerk, except by permission of the Speaker.

19. No Member shall *spea*k out of his place without leave of the Speaker, nor without first rising and addressing the Speaker; and he shall sit down as soon as he is done speaking.

20. No member shall interrupt another while speaking, except to call to order, or to correct a mistake.

21. No Member shall speak more than twice to one question, without having first obtained leave of the House; nor more than once, until the other Members who have not spoken, shall speak, if they desire it.

22. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be received and considered by the House, and not otherwise; and no Member shall be permitted to lay a motion in writing on the table, until he shall have read the same in his place, and the same shall have been seconded; and no new bill or resolve of a public nature shall be received, except it be reported by a committee, unless the House otherwise order.

23. No member shall nominate more than one person for one committee, provided the person nominated by him be chosen.

24. When a motion has been once made, and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall not be in order for any member who voted in the minority, to move for a reconsideration thereof; but any member who voted with the majority may move to reconsider on the same or the succeeding day.

25. No Member shall be obliged to be on more than two committees at the same time, nor chairman of more than one. No Member of this House shall act as counsel for any party, before a joint committee of the Legislature, or a committee of this House.

26. No Member shall be permitted to stand up to the interruption of another, while any Member is speaking, or pass unnecessarily between the Speaker of the House and the person speaking. Nor shall any Member, or other person be permitted to stand in the Alleys, during the session of the House.

27. Every member shall keep an account of his own attendance and travel, and deliver the same to the Clerk, or to the committee appointed to make up the pay roll; and on failure thereof, shall not be made up in the roll.

28. When the galleries shall be ordered to be cleared or shut, the matter which may occasion such order, shall be kept secret by each Member, until the House shall order such injunction of secrecy to be taken off.

29. Every Member who shall neglect to give his attendance in the House for more than six days after the session commences, shall, on making his appearance therein, be held to render the reason of such neglect ; and in case the reason assigned shall be deemed by the House sufficient, such Member shall be entitled to receive pay for his travel, and not otherwise ; and no Member shall be absent more than two days without leave of the House ; and no leave of absence shall avail any Member who retains his seat more than five days from the time the same was obtained.

30. When any Member shall be guilty of a breach of any of the Rules and Orders of the House, and the House has determined he has so transgressed, he shall not be allowed to vote or speak, unless by way of excuse for the same, until he has made satisfaction.

31. No Member shall be permitted to vote in any question, where his private right, distinct from public interest, is immediately concerned.

32. Every Member who shall be in the House when a question is put, where he is not excluded by interest, shall give his vote, unless the House, for special reasons, shall excuse him, and when the yeas and nays are ordered, no Member shall leave his seat until the vote is declared.

ORDER IN PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES.

33. Every motion shall be reduced to writing if the Speaker direct, or any member request it.

34. On the previous question, no Member shall speak more than once without leave.

35. A motion for commitment, until it is decided, shall preclude all amendment of the main question.

36. Motions and reports may be amended, committed or recommitted, at the pleasure of the House.

37. No new motion or proposition shall be admitted under color of amendment, as a substitute for the motion or question under debate.

38. Propositions to amend by striking out and inserting dates, numbers, and sums, are not divisible; but all propositions, otherwise divisible, shall be divided at the request of any ten members.

39. When the reading of a paper is called for, which has been before read to the House, and the same is objected to by any Member, it shall be determined by a vote of the House.

40. After a motion is stated or read by the Speaker, and seconded, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the House, and shall be disposed of by vote of the House; but the mover may withdraw it at any time before a decision or amendment.

41. When a motion is under debate, no motion shall be received but

1st....To adjourn;

2d.....To lie on the table;

43. No Rule or Order of the House shall be dispensed with, unless two thirds of the Members present shall consent thereto.

44. When a vote, having been declared by the Speaker, is doubted, the members for and against the question, when called on by the Speaker, shall rise and stand uncovered till they are counted, and the vote made certain, without any further debate.

45. One Monitor shall be appointed by the Speaker for each division of the House, whose duty it shall be, to see to the due observance of the Orders of the House, and on demand of the Speaker, to return the number of votes and Members in their respective divisions.
