REMARKS.

IN the return from the Bank of Cumberland, there is an additional item, under the resources of the Bank, "called profit and loss," against which stands the sum of $6,447 85. But their being no authority for such an item, it is omitted in this abstract; consequently the resources fall short of the liabilities the above amount.

The return from the Citizens' Bank, has an item under the liabilities of the Bank, called "suspense account," against which stands the sum of $475. But there being no such authorized item, it is not included in this abstract; consequently its resources exceeds the liabilities by the above amount.

In the return from the Frankfort Bank, under the resources there is an item called "U. S. Treasury notes, at 6 per cent. interest from date," amounting to $2,000. There being no authority for such an item, it is not included in this abstract.

The return from the South Berwick Bank, has an item under the resources of the Bank, called "suspense account," against which stands the sum of $387 50. But their being no authority for such an item, it is not included in this abstract, and the resources falls short of the liabilities the above amount.
