AN ACT relating to bail in criminal cases.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECTION 1. Bail in criminal cases, at any time before default upon their recognizance, may exonerate themselves by surrendering their principal into court or to the jailer in the county in which the principal is held to appear and answer by the conviction of the recognizance, and delivering to the jailer a certified copy of the recognizance, and the principal shall be received and detained by the jailer; and any person surrendered as aforesaid, may be again bailed in the same manner as if committed for not finding sureties to recognize for him.

SECT. 2. At any time after default made upon the 2 recognizance, bail may surrender their principal as 3 provided in the first section of this act, and the court
4 for the county in which the default upon the recogni-
5 zance is recorded may on application therefor, being 6 satisfied that the default of the principal was not with 7 the consent or connivance of the bail, remit the whole
8 or any part of the penalty.
