RULES.

1.

At the time appointed for the meeting of the board, it shall be the duty of the members to be in their places.

2.

When the board shall have been called to order by the governor, the journal of the preceding day shall be read by the secretary of state.

3.

The following standing committees shall be appointed, viz :—
on accounts ; on warrants ; on military affairs ; on state pensions ; on prison affairs ; on reform school ; on indian affairs ; on public buildings ; on the insane hospital ; on deaf, dumb and blind ; on public instruction ; on the library ; on public lands ; and on pay roll.

4.

All committees shall be appointed by the governor, and shall consist of three members, unless otherwise ordered.

5.

In case the governor shall be absent at the time appointed for the meeting of the board, the members shall be called to order by the senior councillor present, who shall act as chairman.

6.

In debate upon any question, or in the presentation of any business, the members shall address the governor, standing in their places.

7.

A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

8.

All communications to the two branches of the legislature shall be transmitted by the secretary of state.

9.

Every member who shall present a petition, shall place his name thereon, and a brief statement of its contents.

10.

The yeas and nays shall be called upon the nomination of all officers of important grade. Upon the nomination of state officers, the call shall begin with the senior councillor; upon county nominations, with the councillor representing said county, and then according to seniority.

11.

Persons having business with the governor, any member of the council, or the secretary of state, shall be required to make their wishes known through the messenger.

12

No person shall be admitted into the council chamber except by permission of the governor, one of the councillors, or the secretary of state.

13.

No member shall absent himself without leave; nor shall leave be asked or granted unless a quorum be still left at the board; and no member absenting himself without leave shall be entitled to pay for the time of his absence.

14.

No member shall act as counsel for any party before a committee of the legislature.

15.

No rule shall be dispensed with, except by the consent of a majority of all the members.
