MAINE STATE LIBRARY.

STATUTE REGULATIONS.

Books may be taken from the Library by the Governor, Members of the Council, and of the Legislature, Judges of the Judicial Courts, Secretary of State, Deputy Secretary of State, Adjutant General, Attorney General, Land Agent, Reporter of Decisions, Counsel engaged in argument of causes before the law courts in the middle district, Superintendent of Public Buildings, Superintendent of Common Schools, Superintendent of the Insane Hospital, Chaplains, Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the Senate, Chaplains, Clerk and Assistant Clerk of the House, Secretary and Members of the Board of Agriculture during the session of the Board, provided that this privilege to the members of the Legislature, and those officially connected therewith, shall be limited to the time the Legislature shall be in session.

Any person taking books from the Library shall first give sufficient personal security for their return within twenty days.

No person authorized to take books from the Library shall be permitted to have at any one time more than three volumes, nor shall the same be retained more than three weeks, and all shall be returned on or before the first day of January annually.

The following books shall not be taken from the library room, except for the use of either House, or of the Committee of the Legislature during its session, or for use in the Supreme Judicial Court in term time: all books presented by the United States or any of the States; all works, books and documents relating to the laws or legislative proceedings of the United States, or other States or countries; all digests, reports of decisions, and works relating to the science of the law, and Vattemare's exchanges.

Every person shall be answerable for all damage done by him to any book, and in case of the loss of any volume belonging to a set, the person answerable therefor shall procure a new volume or pay in money the value of the set.

Actions for the breach of said regulations may be brought by the Librarian in his own name for the use of the State, and in case of his death or removal from office, the action shall survive and be prosecuted by his successor.

To the Hon. REUBEN FOSTER,

Speaker of the House of Representatives:

SIR:—I have the honor to transmit herewith my Annual Report as Librarian of the Maine State Library for the year ending December 31, 1869.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

REPORT.

To the Legislature of Maine:

In accordance with the provisions of the statute the Librarian submits the following report of receipts and expenditures, with list of additions made to the State Library during the year ending December 31, 1869.

The amount received by appropriation was one thousand dollars, ($1000.00), by balance from the account of 1868, thirty dollars and ninety-four cents, ($30.94) making a total received of one thousand and thirty dollars and ninety-four cents, ($1030.94). The expenditures during the year for the purchase of books and incidental expenses, amount to eight hundred and ninety-nine dollars and eighteen cents, ($899.18), leaving unexpended one hundred and thirty-one dollars and seventy-six cents, ($131.76), for use till the next annual appropriation shall be received.

The list of books submitted with this report show an increase of the library by purchase of 460 Volumes, consisting of Law Books, 46 Vols.; Miscellaneous Books, 265 Vols.; Magazines and Reviews (bound), 149 Vols.

The library has also received 177 miscellaneous books, documents and pamphlets by donation, and 334 by exchange, exclusive of 504 copies of Pamphlet Laws of the United States, during the year. So that, beside the laws named, 971 volumes and pamphlets have been added during the year.

In the selection of books the valuable assistance of His Excellency the Governor, has been cheerfully rendered, and himself with his Council have given special attention to the affairs of this department, and endeavor to secure its prosperity. The general purpose to complete the many imperfect sets has been carried out as far as possible with the means at command. It is a work of the first importance to complete all imperfect sets in the various departments, requiring continued care, and only to be done at a reasonable cost by patient watchfulness, and in process of time.

This is especially true in relation to Law Reports, many of which cannot be obtained at reasonable rates till new editions are issued. It is certainly desirable if not absolutely indispensable, that a State Library should afford the means of comparing our own laws with those of other States, and their system of administration with ours, that defects may be remedied, if any exist, by the benefit of the experience of others, and that in the settlement of legal questions ready reference may be had to the opinions and reasoning of so many of the best jurists as may be possible.

In this department several sets have this year been completed, beside the usual addition of new reports and elementary law books.

The vacancies existing in the sets of magazines and reviews have been partially filled, but much remains to be done. The leading magazines and reviews are depositories of much of the most valuable information and the soundest learning of the time, which by means of general indices is made readily accessible, and while the later volumes are purchased as issued, it is a matter of no little importance that the missing volumes be secured at an early date. I hope to obtain the volumes still wanting without asking for a special appropriation for this purpose.

In the purchase of miscellaneous books, the same general plan has been continued, and so far as possible the complete works of Authors have been taken, rather than selections of single volumes made from them. No costly illustrated works or elegant and ornamental bindings have been purchased during the year, as with the present necessities of the Library, no expenditures except for books of standard literature and of well known value, in plain and substantial binding, has been thought justifiable.

During the year the Congressional documents of the United States in the Library have been partially examined, with reference to the preparation of a complete list of existing deficiencies and of duplicates in possession, and that we may be in condition to complete these documents as far as may be by exchange or otherwise. It is probably not possible to secure a complete set, but large and valuable additions may be made to our present collection with slight expense to the State. By the assistance of a valuable list of subjects issued by the Boston Public Library in its catalogue, which has been received as a donation at this department, reference may readily be had to all matters treated of in these documents, so far as they may be complete, which is a consideration especially valuable to those who most use a State Library.

During the year the exchanges with other States have been continued in the usual manner, and in all cases where it was possible, the libraries of the several States have supplied copies to fill vacancies in our sets of the State documents of their respective States. Pamphlet copies of the most important legislative and public documents issued under the supervision of the State have also been received from many of the States. These and other pamphlets have so accumulated during a few past years, that it is proper they should be classified and bound with suitable indices to indicate the general contents of each pamphlet, for purposes of reference. A classification has been partially made, and I hope to have them, indexed and bound, upon the shelves before the next year.

During the year but seven volumes have been lost, and five volumes have been worn out and laid aside. Several books and documents have been injured by leakage from imperfections in the roof, and in severe storms it has been necessary to remove a portion of the books from the shelves in some parts of the Library. Efforts by repairing to prevent this have been made, but have not thus far been successful. It is of primary importance that the books be secured from danger of this kind, and I do not doubt it will be your pleasure to consider how it can best be done.

The continued increase of the library renders additional space necessary for the proper and convenient arrangement of the large number of the documents of the various States as well as other books in possession. I do not doubt that a small special appropriation, to finish and prepare an additional room, would be a most judicious expenditure, and I earnestly recommend it to your favorable consideration.

I desire to make no special suggestion in regard to the appropriations, being fully confident that they will be made no larger than is consistent with true economy, and no less liberal than the necessities and uses of the library demand; and that the same generous support which has been extended to it in the past will be continued in the future; thus enabling the institution to increase steadily in usefulness and value, and continue an honor and public benefit to the State.

JOS. T. WOODWARD, State Librarian.
