RULES.

1.

At the time appointed for the meeting of the board, it shall be the duty of the members to be in their places.

2.

When the board shall have been called to order by the governor, the journal of the preceding day shall be read by the secretary of state.

3.

The following standing committees shall be appointed, viz:— on warrants ; on accounts ; on military affairs ; on state pensions ; on prison affairs ; on reform school ; on indian affairs ; on public buildings ; on the insane hospital ; on deaf, dumb and blind ; on public instruction ; on the library ; on public lands ; and on pay roll.

4.

All committees shall be appointed by the governor, and shall consist of three members, unless otherwise ordered.

5.

In case the governor shall be absent at the time appointed for the meeting of the board, the members shall be called to order by the senior councillor present, who shall act as chairman.

6.

In debate upon any question, or in the presentation of any business, the members shall address the governor, standing in their places.

7.

A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

8.

All communications to the two branches of the legislature shall be transmitted by the secretary of state.

9.

Every member who shall present a petition, shall place his name thereon, and a brief statement of its contents.

10.

The yeas and nays shall be called upon the nomination of all officers of important grade. Upon the nomination of state officers, the call shall begin with the senior councillor; upon county nominations, with the councillor representing said county, and then according to seniority.

11.

When a motion has been made and carried, a motion to reconsider shall only be in order within the seven succeeding days; if seven days shall not intervene before adjournment, then within the first three days after next meeting of the council.

12.

Persons having business with the governor, any member of the council, or the secretary of state, shall be required to make their wishes known through the messenger.

---

13.

No person shall be admitted into the council chamber except by permission of the governor, one of the councillors, or the secretary of state.

14.

No member shall absent himself without leave; nor shall leave be asked or granted unless a quorum be still left at the board; and no member absenting himself without leave shall be entitled to pay for the time of his absence.

15.

No member shall act as counsel for any party before a committee of the legislature.

16.

No rule shall be dispensed with, except by the consent of a majority of all the members.

RENDITION OF FUGITIVES FROM JUSTICE.

Before granting the requisition authorized by the constitution and laws of the United States upon the executive authority of any other State for the rendition of a fugitive from justice charged with crime in this State, the Executive will require two certified copies of the indictment or warrant charging the offence against the fugitive, and the officer's return thereon. The return should show that the fugitive is not within the precinct of the officer, that he has escaped therefrom, and the place or State to which the officer has reason to believe such fugitive has fled. The copies of the indictment should be certified by the Clerk of Court or Judge in the county where the indictment was found; the copies of the warrant, including the return thereon, should be certified by the municipal judge or magistrate issuing the same, or by the officer making the return. The proper expense of rendition of fugitives to this State will be audited and paid by order of the Governor and Council; the expense incurred in this State for the return to other States of fugitives from justice, will be paid by the Agents of such States.

PARDONS.

A petition for pardon should be addressed to the Governor and Council. The Secretary of State will issue a notice fixing the time for the hearing by the Governor and Council. The notice must be published two weeks at the expense of the petitioners, in some newspaper published in the county where the convict was tried. The petitioners must also give written notice to the County Attorney for the county where the case was tried, stating the pendency of the petition and the time fixed for the hearing; and at the hearing must furnish the Governor and Council with a certified copy of the indictment and record of conviction.
