SOLDIERS' ORPHANS' HOME, AT BATH, MAINE.

From the close of the year 1871 to the close of the year 1872.

Around this Home affection's flowers shall spring,
And cheerful voices shall loud anthems sing!
Ope wide its doors, and let the words be said:
Love for the living and our martyred dead!

OF THE

BATH MILITARY AND NAVAL ORPHAN ASYLUM.

To the Honorable the Governor and Council of Maine:

The Trustees of the Bath Military and Naval Orphan Asylum have the honor of submitting the following Report of the institution for the year ending December, 1872.

The Asylum continues in its former course of prosperity and makes a happy home for the large number of orphan children gathered from all parts of the State.

The report of the Lady Managers, herewith submitted, will exhibit the detail of the management of the institution. They have been assiduous and successful in their efforts to make the home what it should be, and have earned the gratitude of the people of the State.

Mrs. Mayhew, who served with so much honor in the field during the war, and who has been Matron from the establishment of the institution, still continues at the post of duty; and with the assistance of Miss Baker, Assistant Matron, have succeeded in establishing most happy and beneficent relations in the large family confided to their care.

The Treasurer's report will exhibit the financial affairs of the institution, and it will appear that the amount of income and appropriation fall below the amount necessary to pay the outstanding accounts and to meet the current wants. An abstract of the Treasurer's account is herewith submitted. The account in detail with the vouchers will be forwarded at an early day.

Some of the Trustees have been almost daily visitors at the Home, and have carefully observed the management of the domestic affairs, and have found due economy combined with a generous and liberal supply of all things necessary for the health and comfort of the family.

The Trustees unanimously recommend an appropriation by the State of ten thousand dollars for the expense of the ensuing year, this being the smallest sum that will suffice to keep the Asylum in its present efficient condition. And surely no argument is necessary to satisfy the Legislature that it should not hesitate to appropriate what is necessary for the support of these wards of the State whose fathers gave their lives for the perpetuity of our free institutions.

Respectfully submitted for the Trustees.

N. A. FARWELL, President.

BATH, December 30, 1872.

LADY MANAGERS' REPORT.

To the Trustees :

GENTLEMEN :—Our Fifth Annual Report will set before you, as far as we are able, the internal condition of the institution and its wants. The number of children who have been inmates of the Home during the year is seventy-three. Of these, twenty have been removed in various ways. Eight have returned to their mothers, one to her guardian, three have been adopted, three have been provided with good homes where their position is more or less nearly that of children, and five of the older boys have good homes in the country where they are learning to work. The number of children in the family at present is fifty-three. There has been no death in the family during the year, and only a few cases of serious illness. The behavior of the children, taking the year through, has been generally satisfactory. There have been no cases of serious delinquency. The children attend the public schools as heretofore, and are making some progress in their studies. We have one in the high school, four in the grammar school, and all the rest in the various primary schools. The children are regular in attendance at church and the Sabbath school.

The work, such as cooking, washing, ironing, house-cleaning, and sewing, necessary to be done in so large a family, and which is essential to its comfort and decency, is often a source of difficulty and perplexity to the Managers. The cooking of the house has been on a permanent basis during the past year, and all its operations have been greatly facilitated by the new range and steam apparatus introduced last spring. During the last three months we have had a laundress in the house, and the washing and ironing have been promptly and faithfully done, and more economically than heretofore. Still the labor of washing and ironing for so large a family, with the facilities that we have, is very great; and we would respectfully inquire of you if it would not be expedient as a matter of economy to introduce some apparatus by which this labor would be diminished? We have experienced great difficulty during the past year in procuring the accomplishment of the necessary sewing for the family. We have a young woman in the sewing room who does all that she can; we have hired a seamstress by the day for many days, and have had a good deal of work done outside which has been paid for by the piece, and still the sewing does not come up to the necessities of the family. The Managers are now endeavoring to procure the services of an experienced woman as head seamstress. We find that the affairs of the household move along smoothly, and friction is diminished just in proportion, as the various employees of the institution recognize in the Matron the head of the family, and pay due deference to her position. There has been in this respect a marked improvement during the past year.

We are under the same obligations as in former years to the periodical press, not only in our State, but in several instances beyond it. The following valuable periodicals are regularly received at the "Home": Bath Daily Times, Portland Transcript, Rockland Gazette, Gospel Banner, Lewiston Journal, Waterville Mail, Brunswick Telegraph, Maine State Press, Household, Burr's Fifty-Cent Monthly, Youth's Companion, Arthur's Home Magazine, and Children's Hour. In other respects, too, this year is not behind former years in kindness and favors shown to the home of the homeless. One of the lady Managers, recently on a journey in the State caring for the children, received great kindness and courtesy from Mr. B. Harriman, stage driver at Kent's Hill, Mrs. C. Harriman of the same place, and Hon. John Davis of Brooks, which we mention with gratitude, as also similar kindness from others.

Respectfully submitted,

In behalf of the Lady Managers.

SARAH B. GANNETT, President.

BY-LAWS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE I.—NAME AND OBJECTS.

This Association shall be called the Bath Military and Naval Orphan Asylum; the object and design of which are to afford a home, food, clothing and education for destitute orphan children of soldiers, sailors and marines in the late war of the rebellion, and other friendless children, to put them in the way of learning some useful trade or occupation, or otherwise provide for them till they have attained a suitable age to take care of themselves.

ARTICLE II.—MEMBERSHIP.

Any person may, by vote of the Association and the annual payment of one dollar, become a member; and any person who shall at one time, pay the sum of twenty-five dollars, may become a member for life.

ARTICLE III.—MEETINGS AND OFFICERS.

This Association shall meet annually on the first Monday in May, public notice of which shall be given at least three days in one or more daily newspapers; at which meeting there shall be elected three gentlemen as Trustees, and ten ladies as Managers of the Asylum who shall respectively hold their offices until others are chosen to fill their places. The officers of the Board of Trustees shall be officers of this Association, and the President shall preside at its meetings. Seven members shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE IV.—SPECIAL MEETINGS.

Special meetings of the Association shall be held at the request in writing of five members to be called by the President, or in his absence by the Secretary, in the same manner as the annual meeting.

ARTICLE V.—BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The Board of Trustees shall consist of seven gentlemen, four appointed by the Governor, and three to be chosen by the Association at their annual meeting in May. They shall choose their own officers, fill vacancies that occur in their Board during the remainder of the year, and make all needful by-laws and regulations; and three members shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VI.—PROPERTY OF THE ASSOCIATION.

The Board of Trustees shall have the control and management of all real estate, investments, personal securities and other funds belonging to the Association, and shall exercise a general supervision over the Asylum, and do all which its best interests, in their judgment, require, and to report their doings in detail to the Association, at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE VII.—LADY MANAGERS.

The lady managers shall make a written report or verbal statement of their transactions from time to time, to the Board of Trustees, as often as may be deemed necessary, and make and receive suggestions as the interests of the institution may require.

ARTICLE VIII.—AMENDMENTS.

These by-laws shall not be altered or amended, except at an annual or special meeting of the Association, at which not less than ten members shall be present.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees, held Oct. 10th, 1870, the following resolutions were passed:—

VOTED, That to facilitate the management of the affairs of the Home, the Board of Lady Managers be organized with the following officers: a President, a Secretary, and five Committees. The Committees the Trustees would designate as follows:

1. On New Children—Mrs. Sampson and Mrs. Shaw; whose duty it shall be to act on all applications for admission, and to endeavor to fill up the Home.
2. On Homes—Mrs. Dike and Mrs. Patten; whose duty it shall be to decide on all applications for children.
3. On Clothing—Mrs. Sampson, Mrs. Howland and Mrs. Goss; who shall have charge of providing new clothing, seamstresses, and of the mending.
4. On Provisions and Help—Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Fuller; who shall have general charge of the provision department, and of securing suitable employees in the Home, except seamstresses.
5. On Discipline and the Internal Economy of the Home—Mrs. Gannett and Mrs. Stockbridge; who shall have charge of all matters not specially designated above.

VOTED, That the Matron and House-keeper be instructed to consult the above Committees exclusively in any cases arising under their several jurisdictions, and in any case in which the Committees may be in doubt, or wish assistance, they are expected to confer with one or more of the Trustees.

VOTED, That the Committee on New Children be instructed to use all reasonable and proper efforts to make the benefits of this institution known in the State, and to fill it to the extent of its accommodation.

VOTED, That the following General Regulations be adopted and published for general information:

1. All orphans and half orphans of soldiers and sailors, as well as other full orphans to the age of twelve years, are eligible for admission to this institution.
2. They will be kept during good behavior, or until suitable homes are found for them, or until they arrive at an age to take care of themselves.
3. They are required to attend Divine worship, and Sabbath and public schools, and have regular hours of recreation as well as of assisting in the internal work of the Home.
4. The regular reception day of the children is on the first Wednesday of each month, but friends and relatives can see them at other times. Those coming from abroad cannot be conveniently lodged or entertained at the Home.
5. Any person desiring to take a child or children from the Home for adoption into his family, and proving satisfactory to the Committee on Homes, shall take the child on trial for three months first, at the expiration of which time he shall give sureties satisfactory to the Trustees that he will suitably provide for, educate and kindly care for the child, until arrived at the age of majority. When neither the party adopting or the child seems satisfied, the child may be returned to the Home at the expiration of the three months. No children will be let go where wanted for purposes of profit.

6. All pension moneys falling due to children at the Home must be turned over to the Treasurer, to be by him invested in the Savings Bank, to there accumulate till they arrive at the age of majority, when it will be paid over to them, unless it may be deemed necessary by the Trustees to use it for their support before.
