REPORT.

---

To the Legislature of Maine:

In accordance with the provisions of law, I submit the following report :

I entered upon my duties as State Librarian on the 5th November, 1878. Ten months of the year covered by this report were embraced in the term of office of my predecessor, Mr. Hobbs, from whose entries and memoranda this report is chiefly made up.

The amount of funds received by me for the use of the Library was two hundred and fifty dollars. The expenditures for purchase of books and incidental expenses, since November 5, have amounted to two hundred and sixty dollars and thirty-seven cents. The expenses of the Library have been adjusted by the Trustees, and the vouchers are on file in the office of the Secretary of State.

The catalogue of accessions, submitted herewith, shows an increase of the Library, during the past year, of 1282 volumes and 84 pamphlets, as follows :

By purchase, law books.....	58 volumes.
“      miscellaneous books.....	547 “
“      pamphlets.....	-
By exchange .....	640 “
“      .....	28 pamphlets.
By donation .....	37 volumes.
“      .....	56 pamphlets.

This increase is independent of books and documents received from our own State government, and also of documents and reports of the 2d session of the 45th Congress.

As usual, the laws, judicial reports and documents of this State, have been exchanged with the United States, with the various States and Territories, and with the British Provinces. These exchanges afford access to a great amount of useful material, and furnish a valuable addition to a library designed chiefly for judicial and political reference.

I would respectfully recommend a special appropriation from year to year, in addition to the usual appropriation for the Library, for the completion of imperfect sets of Law Reports, and would suggest, in this connection, that, aside from the loss of present use, should be considered the materially enhanced cost of such works, as they become every year more scarce. In the selection of law books, I have had the valuable advice and suggestions of Judge Libbey of the Supreme Court, to whom I desire to tender my warmest acknowledgements.

A further and lamentable deficiency of the Library is found in the department of history, especially the history of the State and towns of Maine, and I suggest the propriety of supplying this great need at an early date.

I desire to earnestly impress upon the attention of the Legislature the absolute necessity of better accommodations for the immediate and pressing needs of the State Library. Additional shelf room is indispensable to its increasing proportions. A large amount of useful matter, frequently called for, is at present packed away in nooks and corners, difficult of access, and any systematic arrangement of it is practically out of the question, with the present supply of shelf room. The rapid augmentation of our collection, by exchanges alone, has already outstripped the limits of the main library, and it has become a serious question what shall be done with the books received, without interfering with others, equally valuable, already on the shelves.

I feel that I cannot too earnestly urge the necessity of a re-arrangement of the library upon a thoroughly systematic basis, embracing some approved and simple method of cataloguing. The additional expense attending such a task would be comparatively small, and would be repaid ten fold in the increased facilities afforded to all whose interests are in any way connected with the library.

The last Catalogue was published in 1862, with a supplement, (added in 1867) since which latter date over eleven thousand volumes have been added to the library, for any record of which it is necessary for one to consult thirteen annual reports. I submit that the interests of the State Library are entitled to your fostering care, and deserving of the most liberal bounty, both because of the vast amount of invaluable material contained in it and because the honor of the State is involved in its maintenance and support.

JOHN D. MYRICK, State Librarian.
