IV. Any person taking books from the Library shall first give sufficient personal security for their return within twenty days.

V. No person authorized to take books from the Library shall be permitted to have at any one time more than three volumes, nor shall the same be retained more than three weeks, and all shall be returned on or before the first day of January annually.

VI. The following books shall not be taken from the Library room, except for the use of either House, or of the Committees of the Legislature during its session, or for use in the Supreme Judicial Court in term time; all books presented by the United States or any of the States; all works, books and documents relating to the laws or legislative proceedings of the United States, or other States or countries; all digests, reports of decisions, and works relating to the science of law, and Vattemare's exchanges.

VII. Every person shall be answerable for all damage done by him to any book, and in case of the loss of any volume belonging to a set, the person answerable therefor shall procure a new volume or pay in money the value of the set.

VIII. Any Member of the Legislature having in his possession any book, map, or other publication belonging to the Library, shall return the same four days before the adjournment of the Legislature.

X. All persons wishing to take books, pamphlets, or maps, from the State Library, are required to report to the Librarian, the title of such books, pamphlets, or maps, before taking the same from the Library rooms.

REPORT.

To the Legislature of Maine:

In accordance with the provisions of law, I submit the following report:

The amount of funds received by me for the use of the library was five hundred and forty dollars. The expenditures for the purchase of books and incidental expenses during the year, have amounted to five hundred and sixty dollars and forty-four cents.

The expenses of the library have been adjusted by the trustees, and the vouchers are on file in the office of the Secretary of State.

The catalogue of accessions, submitted herewith, shows an increase of the library during the past year of 529 volumes and 66 pamphlets, as follows:

By purchase, law books.....	109	volumes.
" miscellaneous books.....	36	"
By exchange	355	"
" 	25	pamphlets.
By donation	29	volumes.
" 	41	pamphlets.

This enumeration does not include documents received from our own State government.

The usual exchange of laws, judicial reports and documents has been made with the general government, with the States and Territories, and with the British Provinces.

It has been my special aim to supply so far as possible, the deficiencies in the department of law reports, realizing the fact that the State Library is designed primarily for a library of reference for the various branches of our State government.

In this connection I renew my recommendation of two years ago, that a special annual appropriation be made, in addition to the usual statute allowance, for the library, for the completion of imperfect sets of law reports, and would suggest that the cost of such works rapidly increases with the lapse of time, and that the present outlay of a few hundred dollars will give the State one of the finest and most valuable law libraries in the Union.

I beg leave to earnestly call attention to the absolute need of increased accommodations to meet the rapidly growing dimensions of the library. A large portion of the volumes, embracing many that are in frequent demand, are from sheer necessity packed away in places difficult of access, and any systematic arrangement of them is utterly out of the question.

The necessity of further protection of the library from loss by fire is also one which should receive careful attention. There are upwards of 37,000 volumes in the State Library, and in case of fire in the capitol, this great accumulation of many years would inevitably be swept away. The value of this collection cannot be computed in money. There are many rare volumes which money could never replace.

I desire to earnestly impress upon the legislature the imperative need of a complete and systematic arrangement of the library, with some simple and comprehensive method of cataloguing. The last catalogue, issued nearly twenty years ago, was long since outgrown and worthless, inasmuch as, aside from the numerous losses and changes in the books which then constituted the library, upwards of 16,000 volumes have since been added, of which there is no catalogue whatever.

A catalogue is a vital necessity to every library, second only to the possession of the books themselves.

Carlyle says: "A library is not worth anything without a catalogue. It is a Polyphemus without any eye in its head, and you must front the difficulties, whatever they may be, of making proper catalogues."

Mr. Cutter, one of the ablest of American librarians, says :
 "A catalogue is designed to answer certain questions about a library, and that is the best which answers the most questions with the least trouble to the asker."

The expense of such re-arrangement and cataloguing would be but trifling, compared with its incalculable value when completed, and when once done would involve no further expense to the State.

To give some idea of the labor performed in the library during the year, I give the following statistics :

No. of volumes packed, addressed, and shipped or mailed to towns, states, &c.....	3,100
No. of volumes received, stamped, labelled, entered on books, &c.....	600
No. of letters, circulars, &c., sent during the year.....	3,200
No. of volumes taken from library, charged on delivery, and credited on return.....	3,000

Involving more than 400 individual accounts.

JOHN D. MYRICK,
State Librarian.
