REPORT.

To the Honorable the Governor and Executive Council of Maine:

The State Bank Examiner has the honor to herewith present the Twenty-Sixth Annual Report:

In many respects the past year has been one of the most prosperous for the Savings Banks of this State.

The large increase of deposits has in almost every case been safely invested, and very many of the securities owned, upon which the payment of dividends or interest was suspended some years ago, have during the past twelve months either honored their defaulted coupons or become dividend paying stocks, or have sufficiently enhanced in value to be exchanged without great actual loss for more desirable property.

The only possible loss of any considerable amount which has been sustained during the year, will be to the three or four Savings Banks which had the misfortune to be depositors in the Pacific National Bank of Boston, at the time its untrustworthy career, which for months rendered it the subject of suspicion, culminated in its final suspension. Whether these Savings Banks who were among the unfortunate depositors, will ever be sufferers, can only be determined by the result of much litigation, some of which is already pending.

A few Savings Banks continue to loan money on names alone, notwithstanding the fact that in case of loss thereby, the managers would be personally liable to the depositors; as trustees generally receive no compensation for their services, this would seem a sufficient penalty to deter them from making such loans.

The securities held by the thirteen Savings Banks whose deposit accounts were reduced by decree of Court during the years of 1877 and 1878, have so much appreciated in value that nearly all of these banks have made partial or final special dividends within the last two years to the depositors whose accounts were so reduced. With the exception of interest, it seems probable that in the end very little loss will be sustained by those who were interested in these banks at the time of the reduction.

The Wiscasset Savings Bank, which on account of some of its assets being unavailable, was in 1879 enjoined by the Court from paying depositors or receiving new deposits, through the skillful management of its officers, had so far converted its securities, that at the last April term the injunction was dismissed. It now merits and receives the complete confidence of its depositors.

BANKS WHOSE AFFAIRS ARE BEING SETTLED BY RECEIVERS.

The affairs of the two Savings Banks in the hands of Receivers, are not yet fully settled, as will be seen by the following statement :

DEPOSITS.

During the year of 1878 the deposits of the Savings Banks of this State decreased.....$3,725,320 00
 In 1879 there was a further decrease of 186,363 00
 In 1880 the deposits increased..... 1,968,183 00
 In 1881 the increase was..... 2,900,180 00
 From November 7th, 1881, to November 1st, 1882, the increase of deposits have been..... 3,029,334 74

The amount deposited in the fifty-five Savings Banks of Maine November 1st, 1882, was $29,503,889.71.

The number of depositors in these banks have during the past year increased 7,512; the present number of depositors being 95,489, of which 76,602 are depositors of sums not exceeding $500 each. The average amount to the credit of each depositor is $308.87.

RESERVED FUND.

One of the most gratifying results shown by the record made by the Savings Banks the past year is the large increase of the Reserved Fund, the aggregate amount of which is $958,893.19, an increase during the last twelve months of $87,877.86.

Permanent depositors not only have the satisfaction of feeling more and more secure as this fund continues to increase, but they also receive a direct benefit in its growth by a corresponding appreciation of their deposits and by participating in the earnings of the fund itself.

DIVIDENDS.

Fifty-four of the Savings Banks during the past year declared the following dividends:

One.....	6	per cent.
Five.....	5	“
One.....	4 $\frac{3}{4}$	“
Eight.....	4 $\frac{1}{2}$	“
Two.....	4 $\frac{1}{4}$	“
Thirty-five.....	4	“
One.....	3 $\frac{3}{4}$	“
One.....	3 $\frac{1}{2}$	“

This does not include the Pembroke Savings Bank, which is closing its affairs and will soon surrender its charter. The aggregate amount of these dividends was $1,098,934.30.

INVESTMENTS.

The statute controlling the investment of deposits restricts such investment in the West to the municipal bonds of cities of twenty thousand inhabitants, or more, of the States of New York, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Missouri, and in the public funds of each of the above-named States, and county bonds in the same States, when not issued in aid of railroads; provided, that no investment shall be made in the bonds of the several cities and counties of the States of Indiana, Illinois and Missouri, with the exception of the city of St. Louis in the State of Missouri, when the municipal indebtedness of such city or county exceeds five per centum of its valuation; in the first mortgage bonds of any railroad company or other corporation incorporated under the authority of this State; in the stocks of any such railroad company which is unincumbered by mortgage; in the stocks and bonds of any other corporation incorporated under the authority of this State, which earn and are paying regular dividends of not less than six per centum per annum, and may invest by loan on first mortgages of real estate situated in this State, not exceeding sixty per centum of its value, &c. It is further provided that no Savings Bank shall have more than seventy-five per centum of its deposits in mortgages of real estate.

It will be remembered that the above statute was enacted in 1877, in the midst of the epidemic of distrust which followed the panic, when at least one-quarter of all the Savings

Banks of Maine were insolvent. It is not strange that under these circumstances the Legislature, in the interest of safety, took extreme cautionary ground, enjoining restrictions the reasons for some of which seemed then inexplicable and with the changed conditions of to-day are certainly unnecessary and inexpedient.

There are three essential elements to be considered in the investment of Savings Bank deposits, viz: First, safety; second, convertibility; third, profit.

There are investments combining these constituents of Kansas, as well as of Ohio; and some of the securities of New England have proved as disastrous to investors as those of States west of the Mississippi. It may also be seen by careful reference to the report of current sales from 1875 to 1879, years notorious for lack of confidence in all kinds of property, shrinkage of values and financial depression, that no securities found more ready sale, commanded better prices, or shrunk less in value, than first mortgage bonds of the trunk line railroads of the New England, Middle and Western States.

The Savings Banks which suffered most during those years of inactivity of business, were those having the largest proportion of their deposits invested by loans on mortgages of real estate. By granting legal authority for additional territory in which the deposits of Savings Banks may be invested, it is fair to presume that the trustees would continue to exercise the same careful discretion which has characterized their management under the present restrictions. It would seem that the advantage afforded by a broader field, would be the enlarged opportunities for the selection of safe and desirable investments.

The writer would most respectfully recommend that the Legislature amend the law by substituting in place of section 10, chapter 218, public laws of 1877, the following :

Savings banks and institutions for savings are restricted to and hereafter may invest their deposits in the public funds of any of the New England States, including the bonds of the counties, cities and towns of the same ; in the public funds of the United States ; in the stock of any bank or banking association incorporated under authority of this State or of the United States ; in the municipal bonds of cities of ten thousand inhabitants, or more, of the States of New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri, and in the public funds of each of the above named States, and in the bonds of counties in the same States, having a population of not less than twenty thousand, when not issued in aid of railroads ; and in the bonds of the city of Chicago, and the County of Cook, in the State of Illinois ; provided, that no investment shall be made in the bonds of the several cities and counties of the States above named, with the exception of the city of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri, where the municipal indebtedness of such city or county exceeds five per centum of its valuation ; in the first mortgage bonds of any completed railroads of the States above named, and in the first mortgage bonds of the Central Pacific, Union Pacific and Northern Pacific Railroads, and in the railroad bonds of this State ; in the stock of any dividend paying railroad in New England ; in the stocks of any railroad company in this State which is unincumbered by mortgage ; in the stock and bonds of any other corporations incorporated under the authority of this State which earn and are paying regular dividends of not less than six per centum per annum ; and may invest by loan on first mortgages of real estate situated in this State not exceeding sixty per centum of its value ; and may loan to any county, city or town ; and on notes with a pledge as collateral of any of the aforesaid securities, including savings bank deposit books of any savings bank in this State, and the stock of any of said railroad companies, not over seventy-five per centum of the market value of such stock; and may loan to said corporations, on personal securities, with at least two good and sufficient sureties, when the securities pledged are their own bonds and stock; and may also loan on such other personal securities, as in the judgment of the trustees, it will be safe and for the interest of the bank to accept. Savings Banks may also invest in the car trust securities issued by any railroad which is not in default on the interest on its bonds, and in any car trust securities guaranteed by a car trust or railroad equipment company; provided, that the car trust company or equipment company has paid a dividend on its capital stock for two years. All investments shall be charged and entered on the books of the bank at their cost to the bank, or at par when a premium is paid.

The writer would also recommend that section twelve of the same chapter be so amended that Savings Banks shall be restricted from investing by loans on mortgages of real estate more than fifty per centum of the deposits of the bank.

STATE TAX.

In 1875 the Legislature authorized the present State tax of one per centum per annum on the deposits of Savings Banks. At that time the best investments of the country were available on a basis which would yield seven and eight per cent. interest to the purchaser. With such earnings, a tax of one per cent. was indeed a light burden, and a reasonable proportion of the expense of maintaining the government of the State. Some objection was, however, made at the time, on the ground that Savings Banks were quasi charitable and purely benevolent institutions, calculated to encourage and establish habits of economy and thrift, and as such were entitled to the same liberal exemption which the policy of this State has awarded to societies, associations and corporations, whose objects have been of a similar character. Nevertheless, no organized opposition has ever been shown, and this tax has in every instance been assessed and collected without resistance or expense to the State.

The unprecedented business prosperity of the country during the last three years, has completely revolutionized monetary values. The "money power" was never before so circumscribed, and its power to earn is now so weak that all dividend paying stocks and interest bearing bonds are immediately absorbed by investors, at prices which limit the income therefrom to four per cent. interest.

The Savings Bank in its capacity of Trustee, holding the savings of those who are unable to invest for themselves, and compelled by law to respond on call of depositors after sixty days' notice, must invest its deposits in securities capable of being converted, without loss, into cash in sixty days, and such securities as these command the highest prices and necessarily yield the smallest interest. Consequently one-fourth of the gross earnings of the savings of the mechanic, whose all is deposited in the Savings Bank, is appropriated by law toward maintaining the government of the State.

True, Savings Banks are permitted to loan seventy-five per centum of their deposits on mortgages of real estate, and mortgage loans command six per cent. interest; but the best mortgage loans are sought for and taken by individual money lenders, who generally escaping taxation altogether, render Savings Banks unequal competitors. Assuming, however, that good mortgages are available in abundance at six per cent. interest, and a Savings Bank invests therein seventy-five per cent. of its deposits; suddenly a wave of financial stringency sweeps over the country; its depositors become alarmed and serve notices on the bank to withdraw; the mortgage loans are safe and good, but inconvertible, and the bank is rendered legally insolvent and forced into liquidation within ninety days.

It is, however, urged that one per cent. is a light tax. Let us examine this proposition and see what portion of the property held by Savings Banks receive special favors by unusual exemption.

The Savings Banks of Maine hold $5,647,157.83 in United States bonds, and these they are allowed to deduct from the amount returned to the State Treasurer for purposes of taxation; true, but United States bonds are exempt from taxation wherever found or by whoever owned.

Savings Banks are also permitted to deduct all the real estate owned by them, which amounts to $1,149,232.10; yes, but this property all pays a municipal tax where it is located.

Savings Banks have $5,180,472.56 in loans on mortgages of real estate. Every dollar of this real estate is taxed once to the mortgagor, and as a rule do not mortgagees generally escape taxation?

The collateral loans of the Savings Banks amount to $3,964,905.83, but these collaterals are or should be taxed to their owners.

The Savings Banks have, besides the above-named assets, $15,488,867.92 which is in cash, city and county bonds, railroad bonds and bank stock. This is the property of 95,489 depositors, and is but a small proportion of the city, county and railroad bonds and cash owned by the people of Maine. Yet it would be a difficult task, in fact an impossibility, to find among all these securities owned in this State, another $15,000,000 which is taxed at all, or any other 95,489 individuals who pay tax on money invested to draw interest.

But without recognizing any of the considerations already urged, and waiving the claim that Savings Banks, as institutions of beneficence, are entitled to the fostering protection of the State, it will not be denied that these voluntary Trustees, who receive these deposits of the poorer classes in small amounts, invest them in the safest practicable way, collecting and dividing the profits among the depositors, retaining nothing for the benefit of the corporation itself, are at least entitled to an equitable participation in the privileges and burdens necessarily imposed, in the support of the government, with other corporations created upon business principles, expressly for the profit of those concerned therein. Whether Savings Banks bear more than an equitable share of the burden of taxation, may be shown by a single comparison. The aggregate amount of Savings Bank deposits is $29,503,-889.71; assuming that these deposits are so invested as to yield an income of five per cent. per annum, the gross earnings amount to $1,475,194.48. The amount of State tax paid by the Savings Banks the past year was $190,089.39.

Now let us compare this result with some other corporation; and for no other reason than its being the largest in the State, we will take the Maine Central Railroad Company. In 1881 the net earnings of this company amounted to $647,722, and they are not likely to be less the present year. This company pays the present year a State tax of $28,156.18.

Taking the net earnings and tax of the Maine Central Railroad Company as a criterion by which to measure an equitable assessment upon the gross earnings of the Savings Banks, and they would have to pay the present year a State tax of only $64,126.03.

Besides the State tax of $190,089.39, the Savings Banks have paid the past year municipal taxes amounting to $16,861.72.

The General Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in 1881 reduced the tax on Savings Bank deposits to one-half of one per cent.

The responsibility rests upon the Legislature of this State to promote habits of frugality among our people, by encouraging the growth of these accumulations of their savings, in the depositories which the wisdom of former Legislatures has provided, where they will continue to contribute their full share with the funds of the capitalists in producing the magnificent results of developing the resources and operating the business enterprises of our State.

A reasonable reduction in the rate of taxation will increase rather than diminish the aggregate amount of revenue, while a policy less liberal will have a tendency to transfer these deposits to the savings institutions of other States, or to distribute them among the ninety-six thousand depositors, completely beyond the reach of taxation.
