PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

To His Excellency, the Governor and the Honorable Council:

GENTLEMEN :— The trustees have the honor to hereby present their annual report of the Military and Naval Orphan Asylum at Bath with those of the treasurer, committee on children and lady visitors.

Sixty-three children have been under our care the past year whose ages are from five to fifteen years. The report of the committee on children accompanying this gives full information regarding those who have been in the Home in the period covered by this report.

The health of the children has been excellent, being even better than that of those in our own families. Too much credit for this cannot be given to the matron and her assistants for their faithful care under the skillful guidance of Dr. Charles A. Packard, physician of the Home. It is again our pleasure to bear testimony to the remarkable skill of our matron, Mrs. Stetson whose motherly interest in those under her care is a model for those occupying similar positions. We are also most fortunate in retaining the services of the housekeeper, Miss Chase to whose careful supervision much of the financial success of the institution is due.

During the ten years that a majority of the present trustees have been on the board, there have been but three deaths in the Home, and two of these were known to be consumptives when admitted. When we remember that about one hundred different children have been there each year it is a record that we can point to with pride and I think a comparison in a like institution is hard to find.

The interest of the public in the Home is well manifested by the continuation of those courtesies which it has been our pleasant duty to mention in all previous reports. We feel that this interest is deserved, for no similar institution can point with more pride to those who for the most important period of their lives have enjoyed the blessings of our Home. Many who were inmates in former years are now ministers, teachers and merchants, and often captains visiting our port take especial pains to tell of the benefits of the Home which they themselves or officers under them have enjoyed.

Twenty-seven years have passed since the act of incorporation was approved and it seems to the trustees that the time has come to refer to Section 6 of the act. It is as follows:

"Section 6. Upon the final execution of the purposes herein specified as the object of this incorporation, viz: the support and education of the orphans and half orphans of persons engaged in the service of the United States during the recent Rebellion, said asylum shall continue the exercise of its corporate powers as an institution for the education and support of such orphans and half orphans of this State as the trustees, under the direction of the Legislature, may deem eligible to admission therein."

Under the original and amended act the applications for admission are naturally falling off and we intend to ask the coming Legislature to direct the trustees what children in the future may be deemed eligible. Bearing in mind the original purpose of the asylum we will recommend that a preference be given to the decendants of those residents of our State who served in the Civil War and who from poverty are unable to suitably rear and educate their children. If any vacancies thereafter remain we will recommend that the trustees be empowered to admit orphans and half orphans in needy circumstances independent of the requirements of the original act. We are induced to recommend this preference for the decendants of those who served in the War of the Rebellion from the fact that during the past two years we have received a number of applications for the grandchildren of Maine veterans, as well as for children whose fathers, although residents of Maine did not serve on her quota, and these applications we were obliged to deny being contrary to the act.

Two years ago we were given an appropriation of eight thousand dollars a year for current expenses, and five hundred a year for repairs, and by the strictest economy consistent with the welfare of the inmates of the Home we are able to finish the year with a balance in the treasury of seven dollars and fifteen cents. We therefore ask that the same amount be again appropriated for the years 1893 and 1894.

Should our request for a change in the act of incorporation be made we beg that the amount of ten thousand dollars annually be appropriated as the increased number to be cared for will call for such a sum.

In asking for this appropriation we feel that the money will be devoted to such a purpose as will bring the State and its citizens profit and honor.

In behalf of the trustees,

SETH T. SNIPE, President.

Bath, Maine, January 2, 1893.

VISITING COMMITTEES' REPORT.

Mr. Watson:

DEAR SIR: I see little that calls for suggestions from me. I am aware that "eternal vigilance" is wise, but I know that the matron and housekeeper of the "Home" need no watching. They would do their duty faithfully under any circumstances. I sometimes think them too reticent about personal needs. I know of no modern institution of similar kind where there is not some bath-room conveniences for the family, separate from that for the "inmates." And I have wondered that this has not come into the plans when repairs have been made at the "Home."

May it not be possible during the next year to secure an appropriation for this purpose. I am quite sure that a very simple room will satisfy the matron. Pardon me if I have stepped over limit in making this suggestion. I wish to add this testimony to my former testimonies, relating to the children. They receive helpful training that fits them for good positions when they leave the Institution.

During the year I have made the usual number of visits, and have been satisfied that the children are well clothed and fed.

The matron informs me that there has been an average of good health, equal to former years. And the numbers have not varied greatly, fifty eight being the largest and forty-three (I think) the smallest number.

Respectfully,

MRS. THOMAS H. RICH.

LEWISTON, ME., December 15, 1892.

While the Bath Military and Naval Orphan Asylum is under the present management one can speak only in praise of the manner in which its affairs are conducted.

In going through the house I am always impressed with its exquisite tidiness in every particular. The pretty new dining room adds much to the convenience and attractiveness of the house as all who enjoyed the pleasant tea drinking soon after its completion will testify.

There has been but little sickness among the children the past year and their healthful appearance and happy faces bear witness to the faithful and motherly care that is over them constantly.

FRANCES A. PACKARD.

1 NORTH STREET, December 22nd, 1892.

BATH, ME., December 21, 1892.

To the Bath Military and Naval Orphan Asylum:

Mr. Watson:

DEAR SIR: Since 1884 I have been a lady visitor at the Home. I have had an opportunity to inspect all parts of the house. I consider the managers have fulfilled their duties in every respect. Each year the needed improvements have been made adding to the house a homelike appearance.

Mrs. Stetson still retains the love and affections of the children, and with the efficient help in the other departments the Home is all one could desire.

Respectfully,

MRS. E. F. DONNELL.

To Mr. W. H. Watson, Secretary of the Bath Orphan Asylum:

DEAR SIR: It gives me pleasure to express my unqualified approval of the present condition of the Home. Each visit of the past two years has served to strengthen my previous conviction that all possible is being done not only for the physical welfare of the children but also for their spiritual instruction. I have no criticism to offer. In consideration of Mrs. Stetson's more than  $\epsilon$  flicient management I can only express what I feel to be the desire of all friends of the Home, that the welcome provision of the private dining-room be followed by other personal comforts just as far as may be compatible with the best interests of the Institution.

Most respectfully yours,

FRANCES R. JOHNSON.

ROCKLAND, December 21st, 1892.

BRUNSWICK, December 16th, 1892.

Mr. W. H. Watson:

DEAR SIR: Since my appointment as one of the lady visitors of the Home I have made two visits and I can truly say it will be one of the pleasantest records in my life. I had no idea of the management of the Home until my visit, and I think it wonderful the manner it is conducted. The neatness and order prevailing and the loving care of the matron, Mrs. Stetson, and as far as I could see, every child seemed happy.

I sincerely think Mrs. Stetson is the right person in the right place and I think it would be hard to find her equal for the management of such an institution, and it seems to me it is the duty of the trustees of the asylum to look well for her comforts. The only suggestion I have is a water closet and I think it very much needed.

Respectfully yours,

MRS. Z. O. BRAGG.

By-Laws of the Board of Trustees.

Article one amended May 13, 1889, to read as follows:

ARTICLE 1. The board of trustees shall meet on the first Monday of January of each year for the purpose of organization. Stated meetings of the board shall occur quarterly on the second Monday of April, July and October at 7.30 o'clock P. M. Special meetings shall be had upon the written request of three trustees, by call of the president, or in his absence, of the secretary.

ART. 2. At each annual meeting the board shall elect, by ballot, a president, secretary and treasurer, an executive committee of three of its members, and a committee of one or more on reception and disposal of children, which committees shall continue to perform the duties charged upon them until their successors are elected. The executive committee shall have in charge all the interests of the asylum which are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws; shall make all necessary purchases, engage or dismiss assistants employed in the institution, see that needed repairs are made, and report their doings at each monthly meeting of the board, for its action thereupon. All bills against the asylum, with accompanying vouchers where possible, shall be required to be approved by a majority of the Executive Committee or by vote of the board at a meeting, before being paid by the treasurer. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Reception and Disposal of Children to entertain any and all propositions which may be made for receiving such orphans or halforphans to the asylum as are entitled to its privileges, and to admit them to the institution, subject to the approval of the board at its next meeting. This committee shall also receive applications from parties desiring to adopt children who are full orphans, or to furnish homes for halforphans, to investigate the character of the applicants, and if found satisfactory, to so report at the next subsequent meeting of the board, when, if objection is not made by the surviving parent, the board may direct that such half-orphans be placed in the proffered homes. No child shall be received to or removed from the asylum, except by approval of this committee or of the board of trustees, nor shall any half-orphan be received or removed except upon the approval of its surviving parent.

ART. 3. At each monthly meeting, or oftener, the lady visitors may make a report or statement to the trustees in reference to the asylum, and such action may be taken thereon as seems best. The report or statement shall be made in writing, dated and signed by the visitor or visitors.

ART. 4. The treasurer shall have charge of all moneys collected for the association, pay orders drawn upon him under a resolution of the board or by the approval of the Executive Committee. He shall give a bond which shall be satisfactory to the trustees; shall invest or hold all funds under their direction; shall keep an accurate account of his receipts and payments in a book for that purpose, which shall be open to the inspection of the trustees; and shall make an annual report to them, and also the association, at their annual meeting.

ART. 5. The secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the board of trustees, and report the same at its meetings. He shall give notice in writing of all stated and special meetings of the board.

ART. 6. These by-laws shall take effect from their adoption by the board. They may be altered or amended at a stated meeting by vote of a majority of the full board, notice having been given of the proposed alteration at a previous meeting.

ART. 7. Previously adopted by-laws, inconsistent with the foregoing, are hereby repealed, and amendments to such by-laws, conflicting with these, are declared void.

ART. 8. These by-laws, together with those of the association, and the statement of duties of employees, and regulations for government of the asylum, shall be read at each annual meeting of the board of trustees. They shall be conspicuously entered in the book of records, on pages set apart for them, and amendment or alterations shall be entered immediately after adoption, on pages reserved for that purpose following the entry of the by-laws.

The foregoing are as amended and adopted October 1, 1883.

W. H. WATSON, Secretary.
