REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHILDREN.

To the Trustees of the Bath Military and Naval Orphan Asylum.

GENTLEMEN—The report of your Committee on Children for the year just closed, will vary but little from that of the previous year. The asylum has been wonderfully blessed, so far as the health of the inmates is concerned, as not a case of serious sickness has occurred during the year, which we think may in a great measure be attributed to the watchfulness of the Matron, and the attention of the physician, whose service are by the year. Sixty-six (66) children have been inmates in the year, nineteen (19) have gone to homes provided, or returned to parents or relatives, leaving forty-seven (47) inmates at this date. I have no suggestions to offer, believing as I do that this department of the Home is being well conducted.

Respectfully yours,

J. G. RICHARDSON.

Committee on Children.

BATH, January 1, 1894.

REPORT OF VISITING COMMITTEE.

Mr. W. H. WATSON.

Dear Sir:—The year just closing is marked by no event of importance at the Bath Military and Naval Orphan Asylum. I have been unable to make as frequent visits as in former years, but I have kept myself informed of its welfare and prosperity through one who is a constant visitor. Under the present management, I can speak only in praise of the manner in which its affairs are conducted.

Respectfully yours,

FRANCES A. PACKARD.

BATH, December 27, 1893.

Mr. W. H. WATSON.

Dear Sir:—It gives me great pleasure to report to you my entire satisfaction of the condition of the Home. The neatness and order about the same, also the tidiness of the children. I think we have a "model Home," one in which Bath may well be proud of. I have no criticism to offer.

Respectfully yours,

MRS. E. T. MITCHELL.

BATH, December 27, 1893.

To the Trustees of Orphan Asylum, Bath, Maine:—My visits have been conscientiously made to the Home, seeking, always, to learn the condition and the needs, in all things relating to its welfare. During the present year, I have found a better record in regard to health than formerly. This may be to the improvement in regard to sewerage. I think it is. There is need of more improvement. One, the kitchen floor, another that I have spoken of in former reports, a bath-room for the hospital room and Mrs. Stetson.

Respectfully,

MRS. THOMAS HILL RICH.

LEWISTON, Me., December 28, 1893.

MR. W. H. WATSON.

Dear Sir:—My visits to the Home during the past year have served only to strengthen my conviction that the Institution is conducted under most judicious management and in a manner to insure the entire welfare of the children interested to it. The improvements which have been, and I believe will continue to be added from time to time attest the kind readiness to meet every need within the power of the officers. I feel nothing is lacking in the kind personal attention of the matron to the needs of each child as well as in the scrupulous care with which everything about the Home is conducted.

FRANCES R. JOHNSON.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

To His Excellency the Governor and the Honorable Council:

GENTLEMEN—The Trustees have the honor to hereby present their annual report of the Military and Naval Orphan Asylum at Bath, with those of the Treasurer, Commmittee on Children and lady visitors.

The home life of the children the past year has been very much like that of previous years and fully reported in the annual statement of the officers. The responsibility imposed upon those having the case of so large a number is fully appreciated by the Matron in charge and her assistants, and has been met and borne by the exercise of that wisdom, judgment and thoughtful consideration, which has commanded the respect of the board and successfully accomplished the purposes of the institution.

The physical condition of the children with few exceptions has been good through the year, no deaths having occurred nor anything happened to seriously interfere with the steady progress of the beneficient purpose of the State in the establishment of this institution.

At the commencement of the year there were forty-seven children in the Home. During the year nineteen have been admitted and eighteen have been provided with good homes or removed by parents or guardians. We now have fortyeight under our charge.

The names of all the children who have at any time during the year been inmates will be found in the report of the Committee on Children. A reference to the list will show the residence and age of the children, and the names of the soldiers and sailors whose orphans are receiving the support and education and care that was promised by our people in the dark days of the rebellion.

Two years ago the Trustees asked the legislature to amend section 6, of the act of incorporation so as to receive not only the children of soldiers and sailors who served on the quota of Maine in the late war, but also the descendants of those residents of our State who served in the Civil War, and who from poverty are unable to suitably rear and educate their children. The request of the Trustees was granted and under the amendment, ten have been received during the year.

The Home has sustained a great loss the past year in the death of one of its Trustees, Hon. J. G. Richardson, who from being on the committee for the reception and disposition of children was brought into closer contact with the home life of the children than any other member of the board. By his faithful discharge of this duty he so endeared himself to every child of the Home that his death was not only a personal loss to each Trustee but to every child at any time connected with the institution.

We would not forget at this time to acknowledge the courtisies received from our citizens and from the various companies who have given the children free excursions, from the various publications received free, and also Sedgwich Post, No. 4, G. A. R., for their donation for the New Year's tree.

Since the last report a sewer has been put in the streets passing the Home, and the sanitary condition is consequently better than at any other time since the institution was founded. There remains, however, the vaults, which in summer offend the nostrils and endanger the health of the inmates. The new sewer makes it possible to put in suitable closets, thus doing away with the vaults and as a sanitary measure, even more than as a proper convenience, we think that this should be done.

The report of the Treasurer with a classified account of receipts and expenditures appended, and an itemized account with vouchers accompanying is placed upon file. An examination of that report shows the expenses for the two years have exceeded the appropriation, $714.76.

The Trustees, having considered the subject are of the opinion that the sum of $8500.00 a year will be required for the ordinary expenses of the asylum and $500.00 a year for repairs.

An appropriation of that amount is the least in their judgment, having a due regard for economy, which will meet the requirements of the coming two years.

We would also recommend an addition appropriation of $1,000.00 for the purpose of putting in sanitary water-closets and the proper plumbing connected therewith.

Having been on the board of trustees for the past twelve years and knowing the working of the Home, I am satisfied that there has been no time in its history when is was reflecting more honor to the State than the present time and would again ask for the closest scrutiny into its management by your honorable body, by a committee of the legislature and by all its citizens.

In behalf of the Trustees,

SETH T. SNIPE, PRESIDENT.

BATH, Maine, January 7, 1895.

Number and Names of Children who have been in the Bath Military and Naval Orphan Asylum During the Year 1894.

Those opposite whose names a cross is placed are children that have been provided with homes during the year ending December 31, 1894.

Sixty-six children have been in the Home during the year. Eighteen have either been provided with good homes or taken by their relatives, leaving forty-eight at the close of the year, viz.: nineteen girls and twenty-nine boys.

Ten children have been admitted under the amendment to the act of incorporation two years ago allowing us to receive the grandchildren of Union veterans.

W. H. WATSON,

For Committee on Children

BATH, January 1, 1895.

REPORT OF LADY VISITORS.

W. H. WATSON:

Dear Sir:--Each visit which I am privileged to make at the Home serves only to strengthen my previous conviction that the institution is wisely and conscientiously conducted. I am glad to feel that the board of government is ready in every way within its power to show to the matron its appreciation for her valuable and personally disinterested service. It is a pleasure to be associated with so generously a conducted institution.

> Very respectfully, FRANCES JOHNSON.

BRUNSWICK, December 31, 1894.

MR. W. H. WATSON:

Dear Sir :---By reason of sickness in my family I have not been able to visit the home but once this year. It is a great pleasure to me to visit the home, it is so systematically carried on one can not help but to enjoy it. I was very sorry to find Mrs. Stetson in such poor health, but hope by immediate rest and care she will be able to resume her duties in as short a time as will be well for her I think her the right person for such an institution and to do so. it seems to me the only one now that thoroughly understands the home since the death of so true a friend as Mr. Richardson. Ι know of no suggestions I have to make except the same as I have made before in regard to a bathroom for the matron and her visitors, unless in some way the children's playground could be improved so as not to carry so much mud in the house, everything else it seems to me is perfect in regard to the children's comfort.

Respectfully yours,

MRS. Z. O. BRAGG.

To Trustees of Bath Orphan Asylum.

My visits during the year ninety-four have been very satisfactory. Some needful improvements have been made, which, in my judgment adds materially to the health of the occupants. I sincerely hope that a larger sum than usual may be asked for from the State. that a few more improvements may be made. The cheerful appearance of the Home is a testimony to the love that watches over the children who know no other love and no other home. Our esteemed matron has felt the care more heavily perhaps, than during any previous year and needs rest. The housekeeper also deserves great commendation for her share in all the orderliness and neatness of the institution. I looked everywhere (at my last visit) and I left the home with profound thankfulness that our State is helping such a worthy cause and that the management of the Orphan's Home is committed to such efficient hands.

> Very respectfully, Mrs. THOMAS HILL RICH.

Mr. W. H. WATSON:

Dear Sir:—Since my appointment as one of the lady visitors of the Home, I find it in every respect a well kept Institution. The neatness and order is to be recommended. Mrs. Stetson still retains the love and affection of the children. There has been but little sickness if any the past year, surely it is wonderful among so many. I have no criticism to offer, hoping that the same watchful care that has attended them in the past will still continue with them.

> Yours respectfully, MRS. E. T. MITCHELL.

To the Trustees of the Bath Military and Naval Orphan Asylum:

GENTLEMEN:—My report for the year 1894 as visitor to the Bath Military and Naval Orphan Asylum can only be a repetition of what I have written each year since I was chosen to this office, nor do I see how it can be otherwise, so long as the institution continues under its present management. My visits have been made without regard to the day appointed for inspection and I have invariably found the building from cellar to attic immaculate. This fact proves the efficiency of our esteemed matron and housekeeper and the bright happy faces and the prevailing healthfullness of the children testify to the care and oversight that are so judiciously exercised.

Respectfully yours,

FRANCES A. PACKARD.
