In presenting this the sixth annual report of the State Assessors and the third biennial State valuation, we are not unmindful of the fact that so large a percentage of increase does not appear as in former years. This may readily be accounted for when it is known that we have endeavored, not so much to increase the State valuation as to more thoroughly equalize present values. We have in addition to this also to meet the depreciated condition of values of all classes of property both real and personal. We find that the late act relative to shipping places the present value at $2,531,693, as against the value in 1894 of $6,346,228, a reduction of $3,814,535. We have also been forced to reduce our standard of values on live stock to the extent of over one-half million of dollars, and a total reduction in value of $791,902.

In these two items alone we have to meet and overcome a deficiency of $4,606,437. While real estate property has more generally been returned at nearly its former value, personal property valuations have largely fallen off, in total or aggregate amounts. After meeting these depreciations we have a total State valuation of $328,500,949 as against $324,478,321, an increase from 1894, of $4,022,628, and this we can but think is a fine showing for the year 1896, when it is further known that the total valuations of more than one-half of the towns in the State have been reduced, this, however, applies almost entirely to the small and poorer towns, being largely rural districts, that are not holding up to their former standing, but are gradually and surely growing less in wealth and population. We find an increase of 3,491 polls from 1894, the returns last April showing the number to be 180,176 and a corresponding increase in population of about 15,000.

The returns received from the hands of the local assessors during the past two years have, as a whole, been highly satisfactory to this Board and much credit is due them for the faithful and efficient manner they have performed their work. We desire, however, that more of them in the future will include bicycles in their personal property, and use the same effort to obtain in full this property and enter its value on their lists as other classes. The total value of bicycles as affixed this year amounts to $384,281, which although a considerable amount, does not in our opinion represent their entire value into a large percentage. Again, in the matter of returning money at interest and other securities, we can hardly think that all assessors employ the same care and use the same diligence and effort to obtain the full amount of this class of property.

A large proportion of them, however, have shown by their work that they do not intend to have it escape taxation.

We would again call the attention of assessors to the absolute necessity of making their returns correspond with our duties under the law, and have all property valued at its full market value. In some cases values are returned to us for a less amount and on a fractional portion of a full value. Many have heretofore returned only the number of polls taxed. We desire, in addition to this, the whole number of polls in city, town or plantation, as the case may be.

In conclusion, we desire to express our obligations to all whom we have met in the performance of our duties, to them we are deeply indebted for the results we have been enabled to reach.

OTIS HAYFORD,
GEORGE POTTLE,
WM. C. MARSHALL,
State Board of Assessors.
