RULES.

1.

At the time appointed for the meeting of the board, it shall be the duty of the members to be in their places.

2.

When the board shall have been called to order by the governor, the journal of the preceding day shall be read by the secretary of state.

3.

The following standing committees shall be appointed, viz: On warrants; on accounts; on taxation and expenditures; on election returns; on state beneficiaries and pensions; on state prison and pardons; on reform school; on insane hospital; on public lands and buildings; on public instruction; on military affairs; on Indian affairs; on library; on pay roll.

4.

All committees shall be appointed by the governor, and shall consist of three members, unless otherwise ordered.

5.

In case the governor shall be absent at or during the meeting of the board, members shall be called to order by the senior councillor present, who shall act as chairman.

The seats at the council table shall be numbered commencing at the left of the governor's chair, and each councillor shall have and occupy the seat, which in number corresponds to the number of the district which such councillor represents.

6.

In debate upon any question, or in the presentation of any business, the members shall address the governor, standing in their places.

7.

A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

8.

All communications to the two branches of the legislature shall be transmitted by the secretary of state.

9.

The general business of the council may be prepared by the secretary of state, and placed by him in the hands of appropriate committees without formal action of the board. Every member who shall present a petition shall place his name thereon, and a brief statement of its contents.

10.

The yeas and nays shall be called upon the nomination of all officers of important grade. Upon the nomination of state officers, the call shall proceed alphabetically; upon district nominations, with the councillor representing said district and then alphabetically. Yeas and nays shall be called upon any question before the council by request of two members.

11.

The nomination of all officers of important grade shall have consideration in executive session and the council may go into executive session for deliberation at any time. No person other than the secretary of state or his deputy, shall be admitted to the council chamber during executive session, except by vote of the council. The messenger will be in attendance in the ante-chamber to secure the enforcement of this rule.

12.

All debates or remarks in executive session are understood to be strictly confidential.

13.

When a motion has been made and carried, a motion to reconsider shall only be in order within the seven succeeding days; if seven days shall not intervene before adjournment, then within the first three day after the next meeting of the council.

14.

No member shall absent himself without leave; nor shall leave be asked or granted unless a quorum be still left at the board; and no member absenting himself without leave shall be entitled to pay for the time of his absence.

15.

No member shall act as counsel for any party before a committee of the legislature.

16.

No rule shall be dispensed with, except by the consent of a majority of all the members.

17.

No entry on the appropriation book shall be made, except by, or under the direction of the committee on accounts.

COUNCILLOR DISTRICTS.

The following arrangement for Councillor Districts, for the ten years ending 1902, was adopted in convention of the members of the two branches of the Legislature of 1891-2.

DISTRICTS.

The counties of York and Oxford, to constitute the first district.

Abram W. Harris, Sc. D., President of the College.

EXPERIMENT STATION.—C. D. Woods, Director.

COURSES.—The courses of study are twelve. General Courses—Latin-Scientific, Scientific. Scientific Courses—Chemical, Agricultural, Preparatory Medical, Pharmacy. Technical Courses—Civil, Mechanical and Electrical Engineering. Short Courses—Agriculture.

ADMISSION.—Applicants for admission must pass the required examinations, or present satisfactory certificates of fitness. No distinction is made in regard to sex, or place of residence.

A student who has accomplished half the preparatory work may be examined on that part, and receive credit therefor. At any subsequent examination at which he may present himself, he will be examined only on these studies which he has not passed.

High schools fitting for the college should give a part of the work in geometry and algebra during the last year, or a review of these subjects.

Persons not candidates for a degree, will be permitted to take special studies upon giving satisfactory evidence that they are prepared for them.

No examinations are required for admission to the short winter courses, or to the summer school.

College graduates will be admitted to the junior year of the technical courses as candidates for degrees without examination.

REQUIREMENTS.—The entrance requirements for all courses are, (with the exceptions noted below): Elementary Subjects—Arithmetic, English Grammar, Physiology. Language—English. History—United States History. Mathematics—Plane Geometry, Algebra through progressions. Science—two of the following, Botany, Chemistry, Physical Geography, and Physics.

For the Latin-Scientific Course omit the sciences, and add Latin, and Roman History, and, after 1896, either French or German; for the Scientific Course add General or Roman or English History, and, after 1896, French or German; for the Short Courses in Agriculture, omit Geometry and the part of Algebra beyond simple equations of the first degree; for the Short Course in Pharmacy, omit English, Geometry, the part of Algebra beyond simple equations of the first degree, and the sciences, and add Geography; for the Library Economy Course, substitute Current Events for Geometry and Algebra.

Real equivalents will be accepted for any of the requirements except Geometry, Algebra, and English. Candidates may be admitted with a limited number of conditions.

These requirements open a college career to pupils who have finished preparatory courses without the classics.

CALENDAR.—Spring Term, 1897—February 1, Monday, Before-term examinations begin. February 3, Wednesday, Spring term begins. June 22, Tuesday, President's reception. June 23, Wednesday, Commencement. Fall Term, 1897—August 30, Monday, Before-term examinations begin. August 31, Tuesday, Entrance examinations begin. September 1, Wednesday, Fall term begins. STATEMENT—The Maine Industrial School for Girls is not a house of correction; but is designed as a refuge for girls between the ages of seven and fifteen years who, by force of circumstances and associations, are in manifest danger of becoming outcasts of society. It is not a place of punishment, to which its inmates are sent as criminals by criminal process—but a home for the friendless, neglected and vagrant children of the State, where, under the genial influences of kind treatment and physical and moral training, they may be won back to ways of virtue and respectability, and fitted for positions of honorable self-support and lives of usefulness.

The Institution is a corporation composed of the original corporators and associate subscribers. By them its affairs are committed to a Board of Managers. The State is represented on the Board by the Governor, Secretary of State, and Superintendent of Common Schools. It has provided by statute law for the custody and education of wayward and exposed girls therein, and aids in their material support.

INSTITUTIONS PATRONIZED BY THE STATE.

COMMITTEE OF COUNCIL ON STATE BENEFICIARIES.

Messrs. FREEMAN, MAYO and SPOFFORD.

THE PORTLAND SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF, PORTLAND, ME.

Miss Elizabeth R. Taylor, Principal; Miss Emma L. Plympton, Miss L. Isabel Harris, Miss Estella M. Draper, Miss A. Etta Estabrook, Miss Mary L. Divine, Miss Grace E. Armstrong, Miss Annie L. Patrick, Assistants; Orlando M. Lord, Secretary; George H. Libby, Treasurer, Portland, Maine.

The Portland School for the Deaf is a public school of Portland designed for the instruction of those children whose hearing is so seriously affected as to be incapable of receiving instruction in the common schools.

It is sustained by State and city aid and is open to all deaf children in the State of Maine. The combined system of instruction is used, which includes all known methods of teaching the deaf, especial attention being given to speech and lip reading. The course of instruction includes all the English branches and every pupil is taught a trade before leaving the school.

The dormitory for which the legislature of 1895 appropriated $16,000, is completed and occupied by the school, so that now all the pupils are under the constant care and supervision of the teachers in a commodious and well arranged building, supplied with every comfort and convenience.

Applicants for admission must be between the ages of five and twenty-one years of age and free from any constitutional malady that may render them incapable of receiving instruction.

The charge for pay pupils is $200 a year, which includes board, washing, and tuition. No child is denied admission because of inability of parents or guardians to meet the expense, as the Legislature of the State makes provision for the instruction and maintenance of all State pupils.

The school session is from September 10 to June 15 with one week's intermission at Christmas.

Further information will be given on application to the principal of the school at 79 Spring St., Portland, Me.

RENDITIONS OF FUGITIVES FROM JUSTICE.

RULES OF PRACTICE.

The application for the requisition must be made by the district or prosecuting attorney for the county or district in which the offence was committed, and must be in duplicate original papers or certified copies thereof.

The following must appear by the certificate of the district or prosecuting attorney.

(a) The full name of the person for whom extradition is asked, together with the name of the agent proposed, to be properly spelled, in Roman capital letters, for example: JOHN DOE.

(b) That in his opinion the ends of public justice require that the alleged criminal be brought to this State for trial at the public expense.

(c) That he believes he has sufficient evidence to secure the conviction of the fugitive.

(d) That the person named as agent is a proper person, and that he has no private interest in the arrest of the fugitive.

(e) If there has been any former application for a requisition for the same person growing out of the same transaction, it must be so stated, with an explanation of the reasons for a second request, together with the date of such application, as near as may be.

(f) If the fugitive is known to be under either civil or criminal arrest in the State or Territory to which he is alleged to have fled, the fact of such arrest and the nature of the proceedings on which it is based must be stated.

(g) That the application is not made for the purpose of enforcing the collection of a debt, or for any private purpose whatever, and that if the requisition applied for be granted, the criminal proceedings shall not be used for any of said objects.

(h) The nature of the crime charged, with a reference, when practicable, to the particular statute defining and punishing the same.

(i) If the offence charged is not of recent occurrence, a satisfactory reason must be given for the delay in making the application.

1. In all cases of fraud, false pretences, embezzlement, or forgery when made a crime by the common law, or any penal code or statute, the affidavit of the principal complaining witness or informant that the application is made in good faith, for the sole purpose of punishing the accused, and that he does not desire or expect to use the prosecution for the purpose of collecting a debt, or for any private purpose, and will not directly or indirectly use the same for any of said purposes, shall be required, or a sufficient reason be given for the absence of such affidavit.

2. Proof by affidavit of facts and circumstances satisfying the Executive that the alleged criminal has fled from the justice of the State, and is in the State on whose Executive the demand is requested to be made, must be given. The fact that the alleged criminal was in the State where the alleged crime was committed at the time of the commission thereof, and is found in the State upon which the requisition was made, shall be sufficient evidence, in the absence of other proof, that he is a fugitive from justice.

3. If an indictment has been found, certified copies, in duplicate, must accompany the application.

4. If an indictment has not been found by a grand jury the facts and circumstances showing the commission of the crime charged, and that the accused perpetrated the same, must be shown by affidavits taken before a magistrate (a notary public is not a magistrate within the meaning of the statutes), and that a warrant has been issued and duplicate certified copies of the same, together with the returns thereto, if any, must be furnished upon an application.

5. The official character of the officer taking the affidavit or depositions and of the officer who issued the warrant must be duly certified.

6. Upon the renewal of an application, for example: On the ground that the fugitive has fled to another state not having been found in the State on which the first was granted, new or certified copies of papers in conformity with the above rules must be furnished.

7. In the case of any person who has been convicted of any crime, and escapes after conviction, or while serving his sentence, the application may be made by the jailor, sheriff, or other officer having him in custody, and shall be accompanied by certified copies of the indictment or information, record of conviction, and sentence, upon which the person is held, with the affidavit of such person having him in custody, showing such escape, with the circumstances attending the same.

8. No requisition will be made for the extradition of any fugitive except in compliance with these rules.

PARDONS.

---

A petition for pardon should be addressed to the Governor and Council. The Secretary of State will issue a notice fixing the time for the hearing by the Governor and Council, and forward the same to the petitioners, in order that they may have the same published two weeks, at their own expense, in some newspaper published in the county where the convict was tried. The petitioners must also give written notice to the County Attorney for the county where the case was tried, stating the pendency of the petition and the time fixed for the hearing; and at the hearing must furnish the Governor and Council with a certified copy of the indictment and record of conviction.
