A listing of the complaints received from July 1, 2015 to December 31, 2015 begins on page 4 of this report.

A legend for the abbreviations used in this report appears on page 3.

Types of complaints Office of the State Auditor personnel investigate:

- illegal acts affecting State government such as theft, fraud, and financial conflict of interest,
- financial fraud depleting resources or increasing expenditures of the State,
- significant abuse of State equipment or property,
- clear misuse of State property, programs, or work time for personal gain,
- gross misconduct with significant financial effects,
- consistent, wasteful conduct with significant financial implications, and
- kickbacks or similar acts involving return payments to State workers or vendors.

Types of complaints Office of the State Auditor personnel do not investigate, but the Office does generally refer these complaints to other State agencies or other government authorities:

- personal conflicts between individuals or domestic or other threats of violence,
- alleged improper acts by Federal officials,
- personal gripes against State employees about personal matters,
- mistakes made by State personnel,
- insignificant matters or complaints without sufficient factual basis, and
- matters handled by other specific State investigation units.

The Office of the State Auditor does not have enforcement power. However, we work with governmental entities that do have enforcement power. This includes the Attorney General's Office and the District Attorneys' Offices.
