1318 AN ACT PERTAINING TO THE POLITICAL Cark,N.
RIGHTS OF STATE EMPLOYEES

SUMMARY: ID 1318 proposed to authorize classified and unclassified state employees to run for political office in partisan and non-partisan elections for local and county office, but not for state political office. This bill would have authorized state employees to solicity contributions except during working hours or on state property. In addition, sollicitation by a supervisor from a subordinate or by a state employee from anyone with whom the employee official deals would also be prohibited.

The bill failed to define election and state employee. As a result, referenda and the Constitutional Officers would be subject to the provisions of the Act. This bill is a redraft of ID 173, reported by the Majority of the Committee.
