SUMMARY:

LD 366 amends the motor vehicle dealer-franchise law to allow a dealer to recover attorneys fees and costs of defense from a manufacturer if the dealer is sued by a consumer on a breach of implied warranty complaint and it is later determined the manufacturer is liable. Committee amendment "A" (S-80) was adopted to give the dealer the rights of a consumer under 22 MRSA $\S2-607(5)$. The dealer could thus notify the manufacturer that if it does not come in and defend against a suit, it will be bound by the court's decision.
