SUMMARY:

This Act ties into the Municipal General Assistance statute. Under this statute municipalities are required to have a general assistance program.

In the case of burial expenses of an eligible person, the overseer has 10 days to make a decision on the application for payment of burial expenses. In addition to parents and grandparents who are held responsible for a person's basic needs of all types, children and grandchildren are held responsible for burial expenses.

This Act allows those responsible for the estate of the deceased to be reimbursed for his burial expenses if his eligibility cannot be determined beforehand and if he is determined to be eligible subsequent to his burial.
