SUMMARY:

Sought to include real property in the property subject to forfeiture to the State because of its connection to a violation of criminal drug laws. Also provided for money and proceeds for forfeitures to be set aside for the use of the State, county or municipality, depending upon which entity made the seizure. Also permitted fines in cases of drug offenses to be related to the amount of money derived by the defendant from the criminal activity or to the value of the drugs involved, and set aside fines paid as the result of a conviction under Maine's drug laws to any county or municipality which did the investigation and made the arrest.
