SUMMARY:

According to this Act, the voters of Wallagrass Plantation voted in November, 1984 to incorporate into the Town of Wallagrass.

This Act seeks to have the results of the vote validated, confirmed and made effective. It also seeks to have the vote approved upon certification to the Secretary of State. The validation, confirmation and effectiveness are to take effect at the first town meeting.

This new draft eliminates the emergency provisions of the bill. It adds the standard provisions for changing a plantation to a town. It specifies the effective date as the first town meeting in March, 1986.

House Amendment A inserts sections of the original bill that were inadvertently left out in the new draft.
