S-431 CA H S

SUMMARY: The purpose of this law is to provide an effective means of enforcing the potato branding law by making it a separate civil offense to interfere with inspections of potatoes by the State for quality control. An amendment (S-431) reinstates a sentence in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 7, section 952, of the branding law, adding a qualifying phrase which stipulates clearly that the sentence applies to section 952 only. addition, a new subsection is added to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 7, section 957, to allow a packer knowing potatoes to be out of grade to hold them for repacking, provided that the Department of Agriculture, Food and Rural Resources is notified and that the potatoes are inspected prior to shipment. Under these circumstances, the lot of potatoes involved will be segregated, but will not be subject to inspection under the branding law until reworked and regraded.
