LD AN ACT RELATING TO THE STOCKING OF FISH IN 1836 BODIES OF WATER

LVWD

Sponsor: GAUVREAU, Aliberti, Handy, Stevens A Committee Report: LVWD

SUMMARY: This bill sought to require public hearings before new species of fish could be stocked in the lakes of Maine. The bill was an outgrowth of a situation in Sabattus Pond where the Department of Marine Resources has been stocking alewives. The citizens in that area were concerned about issues of algae growth and sport fishing. The Department of Fisheries & Wildlife opposed the bill because of the tremendous logistic problems that it would create.

The sponsor took a leave to withdraw with the promise that the Department of Marine Resources would keep residents of the Sabattus area fully advised of their future plans and seek local input before implementing them.

SUMMARY: This new draft establishes a one day fishing license at a cost of $5. It differs from the original bill in that it allows the license to be exchanged for a season license, eliminates the yearly fee increase, and adds an effective date of January 1, 1987.
