LDAN ACT TO AMEND THE BANK HOLDING COMPANY LAWPL 19871208c. 90

Sponsor: CLARK, N., Dow, Rydell, Bott Committee Report: New Draft of LD 278

SUMMARY: The original bill (LD 278) provides that every application to acquire or establish a Maine financial institution holding company, including interstate transactions, is subject to the Banking Code. The original bill provides that the Superintendent of Banking may adopt rules regarding permissible activities of Maine financial institution holding companies, provided that the activities are no more restrictive than those permitted under federal law. The original bill expands current law and requires a Maine financial institution holding company acquiring or establishing an out-of-state financial institution or financial institution holding company to come under the same "net new funds" requirement as other interstate
