1759

PL 1987
c. 383

Sponsor: CLARK N, Black, Tardy, Bragg
Committee Report: New draft of LD 838

SUMMARY: This new draft is a recodification of animal welfare laws, both civil and criminal. It represents the effort of the Animal Welfare Board to reorganize and reform current law into a more useable text and to remove ambiguities, inconsistencies and duplication. As a result of the work done by the Animal Welfare Board to clarify animal welfare laws, archaic provisions are eliminated, greater enforcement action will be improved and compliance with federal laws governing humane treatment will be achieved.

Projects targeted to a market in which Maine agricultural products did not already have a significant presence shall be given preference. Applicants shall be required to fund at least 25% of the cost of a project and at least 10% of the cost of a project shall be funded from nonpublic sources.

LD RESOLVE, TO STUDY THE NEED FOR UNIFORMITY IN 1833 PESTICIDE REGULATION.

RESOLVE 1987
c. 50
EMERGENCY

Sponsor: TARDY, Parent, Hussey
Committee Report: New Draft of LD 102

SUMMARY: The original bill amended the Maine Pesticide Control Act and the Board of Pesticides Control statute to pre-empt any municipality from regulating the labeling, distribution, storage, transportation, use or disposal of pesticides unless specific provision is made in these statutes for municipal regulation. These are regulated by the State. However, several municipalities have enacted ordinances prohibiting certain kinds of pesticide use in certain locations.
