SUMMARY
New Draft Of LD 1922

The original bill sought to limit an expansion of the pool of numbers in the "Tri-State Lottery." Currently, in order to win, an individual must successfully pick 6 of 36 numbers. This bill would require that the pool of numbers in the Tri-State Megabucks game remain at 36.

The new draft of the bill has the same purpose as the original bill, but corrects the title and amends a different paragraph of the Tri-State Lottery laws. The new draft also adds an effective date clause which ties the effective date of the Act to the enactment of legislation achieving the same purpose by the other two states in the Tri-State Lotto Compact, Vermont and New Hampshire.
