SUMMARY

The original bill would have established a commission to examine how effective current OUI laws are and how to improve them. The commission would have also reviewed the OUI information reporting system.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-398) revises the make up of the commission, and adds specific concerns to the subject matter to be reviewed: ignition interlock devices and "immediate" license suspensions. It also requires another review of the liquor liability law in 2 years.

Senate Amendment "A" (S-408) to Committee Amendment "A" adds members of the Human Resources Committee to the Commission membership.
